The war parties, the USA and Britain, are moving up the military hardware towards Iraq. Despite the rhetoric over the air waves, troops are on the move. The USA has expanded Al-Udeid Air Base in Qatar with a 13,000 foot runway to handle heavy bombers. Also aircraft shelters, a command and control centre and a tent city to house thousands of troops from the sun-drenched terrain. Equipment for two divisions in the mediterranean, Persian Gulf, South Pacific regions that can be moved to Kuwait. The island of Diego Garcia has enough equipment for a division. Ships in the Gulf are also armed for war and loaded with equipment.

USA forces are overseeing the renovation of an air strip in the Kurdish controlled northern Iraq

“To house, to feed, to equip and medically support 250,000 troops is not easy. This is going to stretch the US lines of communication 7000 miles by air and 12,000 by sea from the east coast of the USA. Hired cargo ships hold the large war machines. Troops have been arriving in the Gulf for months.

There are USA troops in the countries in the under belly of the former USSR. In fact, of the approx 189 countries of the United Nations, 100 have a US military presence.

The Australian Government continues to slavishly follow the USA. The good news is that 75 % of the Australian People are opposed to the war against Iraq.

We the people can't afford to wait for the war to start before we hit the streets. The imperialists never move their troops back unless the opposition from the people is threatening their very existence. These gun-toting Australian politicians need to be told to 'pull their heads in'. Come on, Mothers are you going to hand over your children to get the Middle East oil for the USA so that it can wave a big stick over its rivals?

What about the Iraqi mothers who have been watching their children die for a decade while Australian sailors and ships commit piracy on the high seas to prevent any goods going to Iraq not approved by the Yankee imperialists?

There is not a moment to be lost.

HANDS OFF IRAQ.
