

COALITION OF LABOR UNION WOMEN

March 22-23-24, 1974

Pick-Congress Hotel, Chicago, Illinois
at Congress and Michigan Avenues

"To bring together women union members and retirees of bonafide Collective Bargaining organizations to deal with our special concerns as unionists and women in the labor force . . . In an inter-union framework, the Conference will consider positive action in the areas of equal pay, equal rights and equal opportunity . . . (more specifically) . . . education about women's legal rights, adequate maternity benefits and child care, equitable hiring and promotion practices, adequate minimum wage, up-grading and affirmative action, organizing the unorganized women workers, and equitable representation of women in union structures and policy making decisions."

—Adopted at CLUW National Planning
Committee meeting held January 25-26,
Chicago, Illinois

The purpose of this National Conference is to establish a structure for an ongoing organization, and to exchange information and ideas which will help union women take action on the problems which affect them.
