TO ALL ORGANIZERS AND SPEAKERS BUREAU DIRECTORS

Dear Comrades,

Enclosed is a report by John Linder outlining how the Twin Cities YSA organized their national YSA speaking tour last fall. Local areas may find this useful in planning the spring tours for Maceo Dixon and Debby Bustin.

Several local speakers bureaus have prepared leaflets on new topics as supplements to their brochures. Washington, D.C., for example, recently sent a mailing with two leaflets--"Why I Am Suing Nixon" by one of the plaintiffs in our suit against the government and "The 'Energy Crisis': Nixon's Latest Fraud." This was accompanied by a cover letter listing four examples of other talks available.

The division for honoraria obtained for national speakers has been changed from 20% to 30% (after travel expenses have been subtracted) for the local area arranging the engagement.

Comradely,

Nancy Cole
