MYRNA LAMB

"Playwright Lamb (is) a deft lyricist with a barbed wit and a no-nonsense lucidity about contemporary man-woman relationships." —TIME.

Lamb's feminist plays have been performed by women's groups across the country and are included in several anthologies. Her most recent work, Apple Pie, is scheduled for production by Joseph Papp and the New York Shakespeare Festival. A 1972 recipient of the Rockefeller playwright-in-residence grant and winner of a 1973 Guggenheim award, Lamb is available to read from her plays and speak on women's liberation.

Author of: The Mod Donna and Scyklon Z: Plays of Women's Liberation.
