
Letter to Adolph Germer in Chicago from Alfred Wagenknecht in Chicago, July 29, 1919.

A document in the Socialist Party of America papers, Duke University, microfilm reel 9.

July 29, 1919.

Dear Comrade: —

At the meeting of the new National Executive Committee, held in Chicago on July 26 and 27, the following motion was passed:

“That the office of the National Executive Secretary be declared vacant inasmuch as the present incumbent refuses to perform his duties as National Secretary by refusing to tabulate the vote in referendums expressing the will of the membership and further refuses to recognize the regularly elected National Executive Committee.”

Yours in Comradeship,

A. Wagenknecht,
Executive Secretary, Pro Tem.
