Western Sheriff Arrests United Mine Workers Because They Cause Discontent

(Mail Correspondence.) Trinidad, Colo., Sept. 14.--Harry Douthwaite, former president of district No. 15 of the United Mine Workers, who is a resident of southern Colorado, northern New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming, and Thomas Fenillo, an active member of the same union, were branded as "undesirable citizens" by Sheriff Davis, following their arrest on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. The two men, who are organizers for the Mine Workers, were arrested by Deputy W. Thatcher, handcuffed and taken to the county jail, where they were arraigned in scathing terms by the sheriff. "Las Animas county is not large enough for you fellows," said the sheriff. "If you see fit to stay about here, you may expect to be in jail six months in the year. You are public enemies and breeders of discontent." They were later released and employed counsel to defend them on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. Douthwaite and Fenillo were arrested a second time on the same day on a warrant sworn out by Deputy Thatcher charging them with resisting arrest and threatening an official. Thatcher claims that the men caused him trouble when he tried to arrest them and threatened to shoot him. They are now in the county jail. "I am assuming a friend of the laboring man as any one," said the sheriff, "but I have no use for these agitators. The miners are prosperous and contented, but these organizers are contented by trying to stir up trouble."

SLAYER OF UNION MAN IS SET FREE

Trinidad, Colo., Sept. 19.--The jury in the case of Juan Espanosa, charged with the murder of Alex Obrenski, an organizer for the United Mine Workers of America, at Rugby last May, returned a verdict of not guilty. The jury was out less than an hour. It is claimed by unionists that the killing of Obrenski was due to a conspiracy on the part of the big coal mine operators and that the jury was packed, and they point to the fact that Espanosa has been a trustee at the county jail since his arrest, although he was charged with the gravest of crimes.

MINERS TRAPPED IN BURNING MINE

Sparta, Minn., Sept. 19.--Heroic efforts are being made to save the lives of three miners, who are entombed in the Malta mine, near Sparta, with all means of escape cut off. The unfortunate men were trapped shortly after fire attacked the mine. Firemen are fighting the flames, while a rescuing party is working hard to save the men from death, which is drawing nearer each minute. Practically all hope of saving the miners has been abandoned.

Fine Arrangements to Make Life Pleasant in the Canal Zone--Government Spreads Itself Army Men as Managers

(Mail Correspondence.) Colon, Panama, Sept. 11.--The management of the canal zone has taken some ideas from Socialism in organizing its work. The work is of such magnitude that no other system could succeed. John F. Stevens, of whom James J. Hill said: "He spent $50,000,000 for me and I got back $102 for every dollar spent," is a man of brains and ability and an organizer, but he lacked the system that the present army engineers have at their finger tips. At this place the work on a grand scale is at work. The French did magnificently, but could not finish the work. The government does not drive men as they are driven in the states. Men are allowed a month for sickness, a month for accident if disability occurred in line of duty, and a vacation of six weeks in addition. Men on a monthly salary have the above privileges. A man on an hourly basis, such as mechanics, has all the above except the vacation. Quarters are supplied to the men free. The electric lights, the rooms are well looked after and inspected at regular and irregular intervals. All quarters, married and single, are supplied with shower baths, sanitary plumbing and running water. Rivers have been dammed and reservoirs have been made to give clean water. Examinations of the water are made regularly by the board of health laboratory and all that modern, up-to-date medical science can do, backed by governmental authority and money, has been and is being done. Hospital care is run on the trains and picked up sick men who are sent to two big hospitals at Panama and Colon. Smaller hospitals are maintained at all line posts, where a limited number of patients are kept, but an excess is sent to the large ones. There operations are done and results obtained as good as at the best equipped hospitals in the states. And this is all free. Members of families of employes are given free medical and surgical treatment. They have a terminal operation performed at a nominal charge, $1 a day for attendance. Quarters are assigned to every man when he arrives on the isthmus and the only expenses that he has are for food and laundry, clothes and incidentals. Married men are assigned to separate quarters in regular succession. They are supplied with large, well-furnished rooms and have furniture, refrigerators, sideboards, stoves, fuel, electric lights, beds and all the necessary furniture. Ice is supplied at 40 cents for 100 pounds. Groceries are the same price as in the states, but meat is higher. A train of cold storage cars leaves Colon every day and provisions are delivered at the houses of those ordering them. It is possible to buy frozen cold storage meat at Empire at any time. Other large similar plants are being established at the larger points. Commissaries are at all the principal points and there are no go-betweens to get a profit. The government sells direct to the employes, who purchase with coupons. Five large clubhouses have been built and here amusement is provided at cost. Two afternoons are allowed to the women and they can bowl or play tennis, pool or any other game, all of which are provided. Of course, this is for white people only.

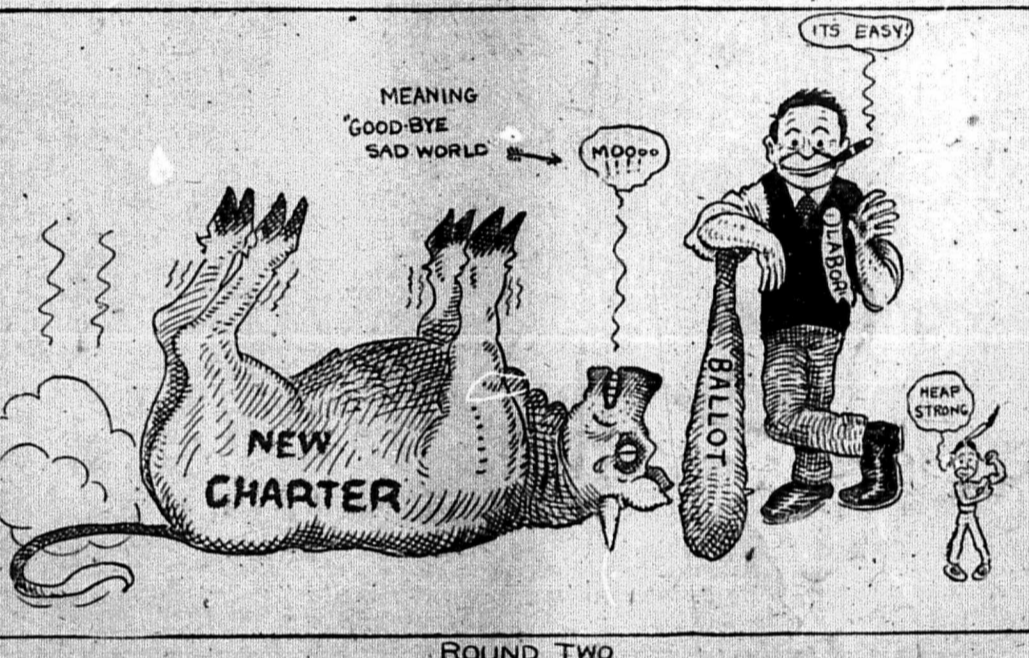

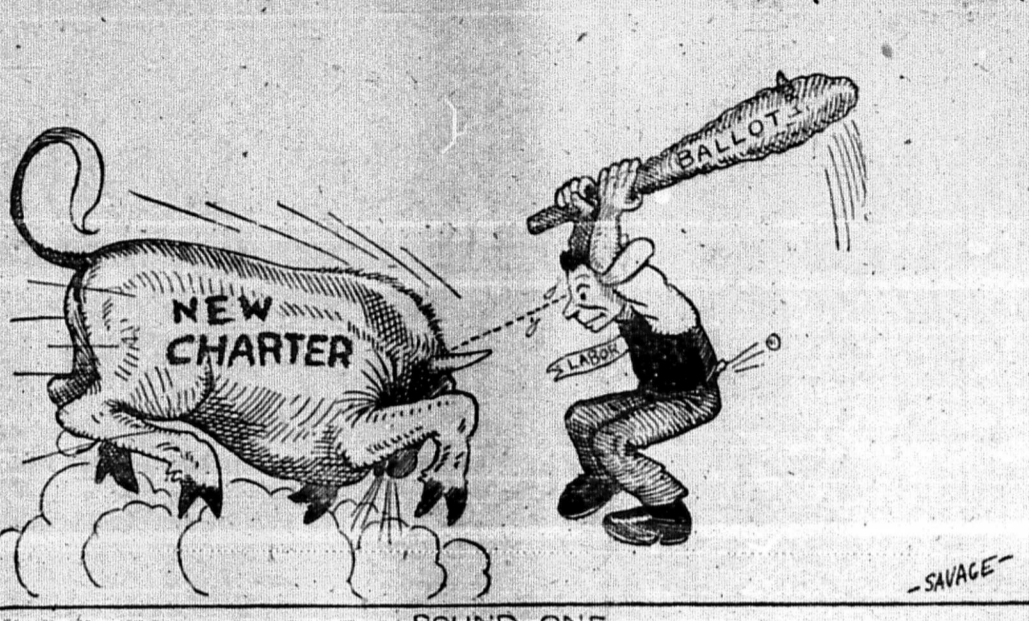

BLACK MEN REFUSE TO SCAB ON WHITE WORKERS

(Mail Correspondence.) Galveston, Tex., Sept. 14.--Dockworkers struck here a few days ago and the walkout has brought a new phase of the race problem. The dockers were white men. Of course, the employing corporations fell back on the hatred between the white and black workers. They imported fifty black workmen from up the state. When the colored men arrived they said they had not been told that a strike was on. "All but nine refused to work as strike breakers. Nine were 'heroes,' however, and went to work. At once fifty white checking clerks walked out because they would not work with strike breakers. The white strikers gave the black men a welcome hand, but somewhat gingerly. The poor blacks wanted the jobs. They needed them, but they realize that it is their duty to stand with the working class, white or colored. One of the black men gave an account of how they were deceived after the deserters from the scab crowd had been mobilized at strike headquarters. If it and other workers in Beaumont were offered jobs at New Orleans," he said. "We were to receive 20 cents an hour for regular days and 40 cents overtime and were working for a period of six months. He said that there was a day straight. After we were placed on the train and the train started we were told that things had got mixed up and that the train was going to Galveston. "None of us then understood that there was trouble here and so we did not object. At Houston we were joined by another party and the train started for Galveston. Just before we got to the bay bridge the conductors and trainmen came through the car and began putting down the shades. "I went to the conductor and asked him what was for, and what was the trouble. He said that there was no trouble, but that they wanted the shades down. We got across the bridge and were intended into a long shed,

7 DAYS FOR A "TELEGRAM"

Two Harbor, Minn., Sept. 19.--James H. Luns, lumberman, of this place, sent a "telegram" message to a partner in Vancouver, B. C., which took seven days to reach its destination, while mail takes from four and one-half to five days. This shows the condition west of here. People here are of the opinion that the telegraph companies are "absolutely" with the government, or the government would have interfered before this. One of the best ways to help the Daily Socialist is to call at our office and buy some of the Socialist Books we carry to stock. If you cannot call send in an order by mail. We carry all the books published by Ohio N. News & Co.--Adv.

GOMPERS APPROVES CRY OF KEY MEN FOR MONEY

Washington, Sept. 18.--President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor has issued an appeal to organized labor throughout the United States for financial assistance for the commercial telegraphers who have been on strike for the past six weeks. The appeal was issued after consultation between President Gompers and the Commercial Telegraphers' Union and is based on a similar appeal sent out by the latter union under yesterday's date. The text of the appeal follows: "The Commercial Telegraphers' Union for financial assistance has the full indorsement and approval of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor. "Realizing the tremendous importance and the vast interests involved, the executive council rendered its good offices to both the organization and the companies. The companies accepted the offer, both the companies spurned it. It is evidently the policy and hope of the two companies to not only crush the telegraphers' organization but the spirit and aspiration for a brighter and better day. While we do not aim at the destruction of the companies and their friends cannot permit the men being ridden over rough shod, the honorable adjustment of the contest can be attained if the companies understand that the telegraphers cannot be starved into an unconditional surrender. To accomplish this purpose labor must come to the financial assistance of the telegraphers. "All unions are urgently requested to at once donate and voluntarily contribute as generously and promptly as possible, and to forward same to Wesley Russell, secretary-treasurer, room 230, Monon building, Chicago, Ill. and notify S. J. Small, president, same address. "Fraternally yours, "SAMUEL GOMPERS, "President American Federation of Labor."

LABOR'S VICTORY---DO NOT GO TO SLEEP, MORE COMING

J. A. Jarvis of the "L" men's Union and chairman of the Chicago Federation of Labor's campaign committee said today: "The capitalist papers are trying to minimize the part organized labor took in the defeat of the charter. It is a fact that organized labor supplied the vote that defeated the charter. It will be necessary for labor to remain vigilant, however, because it is a fact that it is the intention of the 'powers' to put through some law that will placate the United Societies and the so-called taxpayers. "Workmen, who really pay the taxes and everything else, will not be considered. "The instrument will retain all the features obnoxious to labor and we will find ourselves again holding the bag. "Labor can run the city, the state and the nation if it once realizes its own interests and its own strength. When it does justice will prevail. Until it does there will be class rule and the laborers who produce everything simply will get a bare living from their industry."

BIG BLOWS AT CHARTER DELIVERED BY WORKING CLASS WARDS

What did the Socialists do Tuesday? This is the question asked on every side. Of course the exact Socialist vote against the charter cannot be determined, but a study of the returns shows that the greatest majorities against the charter came from the wards and precincts where the Socialist party is the strongest. In the twelfth ward the charter received 1,062 and 5,419 voted against the measure. This gave a majority of 4,357 against the charter, the largest in the city. In the twenty-ninth, another strong working-class and Socialist ward, the majority against the charter was 3,908. So it went all through the city. The silk stocking wards and the wards where the lodging houses are in which live the "spend" men, the defectives and those below the poverty line, and a vote is bought and sold like beer, the charter has the strongest support. Thus the silk stocking wards and the slum wards vote together. The Cook county organization did a good job with the party watchers. County Secretary Franckel had determined men at every polling place in the city. No attempt at fraud was reported. The vote was so strong against the charter that those who contemplated fraud saw the crime would be too great. The first returns from the polls received by any one in the city came to this Socialist county headquarters. It came from a Socialist watcher in the twenty-first ward at 4:25. At that hour the police department nor the newspapers had a word from the polls.

INJUNCTION TO KEEP UNION MEN OUT OF THE CITY DIRECTORY

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 18.--Relying on a supreme court decision concerning the use of the name of the late Henry George to advertise an alleged unfair "Des Moines Typographical Union No. 118" to prevent the use of between 5,000 and 10,000 names in the 1907 Polk directory, which will soon go to press. It is the intention of the local to prepare a list of all persons in sympathy with their plans and induce them to ask for a restraining order against the use of their names in the directory. Between 4,000 and 5,000 union men have already pledged themselves to line up to defeat the directory company on the ground that the publication is to be put out in a non-union shop, and these men will seek to influence members of their families. The argument is that the directory has no right to use a person's name without consent. Officials of the local have consulted an attorney on this particular point and have been informed that a restraining order is possible. (Comment--If the move is successful the Chicago Typographical Union could apply the law here and keep union men's names out of the Chicago directory, which is published in a rat shop.)

50,000 BRITONS FACE LOCKOUT

London, Sept. 19.--From 40,000 to 50,000 workmen, members of the Boiler Makers' society, will be locked out Oct. 1. Notices to that effect are being posted today by the Shipbuilders' federation. The men affected are employed chiefly at the east coast ports, at Barrow and on the Clyde. Some time ago lockout notices were issued because of a number of sectional strikes in which the men left work without giving notice and without discussion of their grievances. The notices, however, were withdrawn and what is known as the Edinburgh agreement was entered into. Under this the representatives of the federation stipulated that any annoying strikes would be avoided in the future. The society repudiated the action of its representatives and the federation is now determined to fight the men to a finish. If you see a job of printing carrying the union label with the number 50 you will know it was done by the Workers' Publishing Society. See to it that your number is on the next job done for your union.

PROTECTION FOR JOBBERS

Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 19.--The Des Moines Labor assembly is determined to root the fake employment agencies and all other evils feeding on the constant struggle of humanity to secure employment. It has informed the measure drawn by the city solicitor which places all employment offices which are run for profit under the control of the city and provides that they pay a yearly license of $25. Each office must also put up a bond of $1,000 with the city. The penalty for violating any of the provisions of the law is a jail sentence of from ten to thirty days. Twelve 5-cent sub. cards, good for three months, mailed to any address for $1.25. Send in your order.

GOOD LAW ENFORCED AGAINST STRIKERS--IS IT ALWAYS SO?

If the fire inspector does his official duty to the entire city as well as he did when the striking telegraphers asked for permission to meet in a Socialist hall there will be no more Iroquois theater horrors. The telegraphers were in sore need of a hall and two large rooms over the Daily Socialist offices were offered to them free of charge if the city officials would allow it. A committee of strikers called on the fire inspector, but he could not allow them to meet there for various reasons, principally because it was an old building without enough fire escapes. He said it would be necessary to count the number of persons going there and very strict account kept of it. While the strikers do not censure the inspector, they wonder if all buildings in Chicago, especially where labor is employed, are so well protected. They have noted the inadequate protection given to the employes of the Western Union Telegraph Company, over 300 of whom may be on duty at one time in the Western Union building, where two very sticky fire escapes leading from the seventh floor, two very slow elevators and one narrow stairway is all

DOLL'S DIAMONDS AND PARIS GOWNS

A doll with real Parisian gowns is the particular fad of Mrs. Edward A. Leicht, wife of a Chicago millionaire. The doll is one of the most important members of the Leicht household and has yet been given, but its hair is done up in the latest fashion and on occasions of large entertainments at the Leicht home it is decked out with jewelry to match those worn by Mrs. Leicht. Mrs. Leicht expects to entertain extensively during the coming season, and this will mean an "arduous social campaign" for the doll as well.

THIEVES BEARD POLICE CHIEF

The limit in burglars' nerve was discovered in Chicago today when it was learned that during last night a gang of robbers had broken into a saloon open across La Salle street from Chief of Police Shippy's office, made as much noise as a small boiler factory, and ended their deprecations with an impromptu banquet. Fredrich's saloon is less than seventy-five feet from the window where the chief's desk is located. After the place had been closed for the night, robbers picked open the door with a hammer. They used hammers and chisels to take apart the slot machines in the place, they broke the telephone to pieces to get at the nickels it contained and they got the cash register open to relieve it of $15. Then they got out food and the best bottled goods in the saloon, and judgment on the fact that there were footprints in the saloon, the chief was with them next elevated on the table, leisurely fed and drank.

PETTIBONE DANGEROUSLY ILL; FEAR OF POISON PLOT

Notes Idaho, Sept. 18.—George A. Pettibone was unable to appear in the district court to have his case set for trial.

An affidavit of the attending physician states that Pettibone is suffering from ulcer of the bladder, which, unless checked soon, will prove fatal.

Several letters have been received at this office, asking if Pettibone has been poisoned. It is not likely that such a crime would be attempted, for, having

DEMAND TREATY ABROGATION

Winnipeg, Sept. 18.—Direct appeal to the English parliament to take steps at once to terminate a part of the treaty between England and Japan was made today by the labor congress, in session

The clause which is especially objectionable reads as follows: "The subjects of each of the two contracting parties (Great Britain and Japan) shall have full liberty to enter, travel or reside in any part of the dominion or of the possessions of the other contracting party and shall enjoy full and perfect protection for their persons and property."

A TOKYO VIEW. (United Press Associations Cable.) Tokyo, Sept. 18.—Americans have had no monopoly on the demand for the Japanese masses since the Vancouver riot.

It is safe to say that Japan will agree to nothing of the kind. Were it not for the minkido holds that such an agreement would amount to virtual abrogation of his people's treaty rights the government would not dare to grant such a yearly income in the present state of public tension.

The Maryland State Federation of Labor is reported to have had the following officers on duty: President, F. N. Zihman; vice president, John C. Walsh; second vice president, Richard J. Smith; third vice president, Gustav Mecher; fourth vice president, Abe Gordon; fifth vice president, M. J. Howe; legislative committee, Edward Hirsch, Robert E. Lee, Frank Forney, Frank S. Haney and Joseph J. Berger; sergeant at arms, Alexander R. Fincher.

Congressman-elect W. B. Wilson of the Fifteenth Pennsylvania district, secretary-treasurer of the United States workers of America, delivered the opening address, after which President Zihman made his annual report. The report says in part: "I would recommend that the year at bodies of labor with the federation have drawn up a series of questions and present them to the candidates for our legislature in their different localities and endeavor to have the signatures of the laborers as to how they stand on the following beneficial laws and if they will vote for the same if elected: A law limiting the hours of labor of all employees of the state to eight hours; inspection of sweat shops and bakeries and rigid sanitary laws, with some penalties; a law compelling the labeling of prison-made goods; sanitary inspection of tenements; a law to prohibit labor agents from the Pennsylvania law; a flat 4-cent rate bill; state railroad commission to compile and investigate railroad rates; a stringent corrupt practices act; a law to prevent the blacklisting of working men, similar to the Minnesota law, which has been tested and declared constitutional."

Of all men, it is argued, the workingman needs his own home, says the Washington Star. There are hundreds of tenements in this city which have been for years paying landlords enough money to have built a dozen houses, and yet they do not own even a single brick. It stands to reason that there must be a profit in renting a house that is, for the work, worth two. There are ample acres in the suburbs. It is pointed out for the erection of hundreds of more pretty homes, where the toiler when his work is done could rest and recuperate, and where by owning his little home his living expenses would be greatly reduced. Rentals in the city increase every year, while in the country, just outside the city limits, they are low. Land is cheap and peace and plenty abide.

CHARLES GRAY IS A MISTERY

Says She'll Continue to Draw Lonely Souls Together—Has a "Cousin"

Miss Marion Grey, beautiful and cultured, but under the charge of maintaining a contraband "affinity club," today, in her offices in the largest office block in Elgin, Ill., defied the United States authorities to find anything illegal in her business of uniting lonely souls wandering aimlessly in different parts of the world. She declared that she had studied in the University of Michigan and that she knew whereof she spoke.

HER CAREER ROMANTIC. Miss Gray's romantic career, since she first came to Elgin last June was the subject of general discussion until her arrest by Deputy United States Marshal Griffith gave it the proportions of an absorbing sensation. The tall brunette young woman this morning rode her automobile from her fashionable apartments at 902 Douglas avenue to her office in the Elgin office block, and she directed her secretary and four stenographers in the performance of their duties.

"I shall continue to manage the Searchlight club," said Miss Grey, who has the right to sell my services to all persons who wish to employ them, and everyone who desires to join the club may do so. My fee to wealthy persons is $5. If a poor man or woman seeks a mate, I will charge the entrance fee will be regulated according to their financial ability.

FEE'S ARE REWARD. "Commissioner Foote will find that our club is a voluntary association of persons who wish to marry. The fees are paid to me as a reward for organizing and conducting the club. PREORDAINED FOR EACH OTHER. "The club has united many couples preordained for each other and will continue to do so. I have studied law and know that the plan is legal. It is also highly praiseworthy. The aim of the club is to help the poor to establish institutions to promote happiness and individual enterprise does it, then the promoters deserve the thanks and not the censure of society."

Miss Grey said she refused to disclose her antecedents. She says: "So far as the world outside of my family is concerned I sprang into existence when I came here Younger and State's Attorney Powers have investigated the club and declared it immune from interference by them. Its offices join those of 'The Millennial Dawn Readers,' magnetic healers, osteopaths and clairvoyants. If society fails to establish institutions to promote happiness and individual enterprise does it, then the promoters deserve the thanks and not the censure of society."

If society fails to establish institutions to promote happiness and individual enterprise does it, then the promoters deserve the thanks and not the censure of society."

The detective abilities of countless investigators into the past of "the beautiful girl mystery" have unearthed these supposed facts concerning her: "That she is a Creole, who was born in New Orleans; she studied law at Ann Arbor, Mich.; has written two novels and one sociological monograph; is a humanitarian, who loves children and decries child slavery as the "infamy of the age"; that a tall, handsome and athletic man, her brother-in-law, known as her "cousin," has visited her periodically; that her mother, an aged woman, who is dependent upon her daughter's generosity for support, lives in Detroit; that she has a brother, in comfort, in sharp contrast with her circumstances at the time her daughter was a destitute student at the University of Michigan; that she boats, swims, drives an automobile, and has an income from the club amounting to from $500 to $2,000 a month.

While the investigations continue the "beautiful girl mystery" maintains a splendid silence about her past, with the sympathy and admiration of everyone with whom she comes in contact, and manages the "affinity club" with the skill of an expert and the finesse of a diplomat.

New York, Sept. 18.—In order to make Henry H. Rogers' bluff of illness good the Standard Oil Company has again assumed control of the affairs of the Standard Oil Company. John D. Sr. has been visiting the offices of the company on several occasions, but for the first time in years, and it is suspected that the old captain is once again on the bridge.

If this is true, then another fact stands out—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has taken the state of Illinois by exegesis, the psychology of running a Sunday school without pouring too much oil on the water or allowing an over-supply of the by-product to leak out and thereby take an active part in the management of the octopus.

John D. Sr., can crack a whip real well, and it is possible that almost any another would lead the other party of octopus in the ring with sawdust all around, teaching little Jawn to make the animal crack his heels. John D. Sr. as the world has been informed by his voracious family physician, has been reborn. He is a different man, of different composition, different pathology, different in every particular. Consequently, he may apply himself for money to have built a dozen houses, and yet they do not own even a single brick. It is pointed out for the erection of hundreds of more pretty homes, where the toiler when his work is done could rest and recuperate, and where by owning his little home his living expenses would be greatly reduced. Rentals in the city increase every year, while in the country, just outside the city limits, they are low. Land is cheap and peace and plenty abide.

At the rate of increase with which Standard Oil has been growing since its organization the end of another fifty years would see it the owner of one hundred billion of concentrated lard.

CAR MEN ELECT OFFICERS; LOTS OF WORK TO DO

Of eight grand lodge officers elected yesterday by delegates to the Chicago convention of the Brotherhood Railway Carmen of America five are members of the old administration. The successful candidates are:

FRANK L. ROMANUS of Kansas City, Mo., grand chief carman; re-elected. M. E. Ryan of Beaumont, Tex., first vice grand chief carman; re-elected. L. L. Hannah of Vancouver, B. C., second vice grand chief carman; re-elected. J. J. Suthons of Rochester, N. Y., third vice grand chief carman; re-elected. J. H. Spelts of Denver, Colo., fourth vice grand chief carman; succeeds B. H. Lewis of Memphis, Tenn. J. M. Wallace of Atlanta, Ga., fifth vice grand chief carman; succeeds E. A. Geiger of Pueblo, Colo. E. W. Weeks of Winnipeg, Man., grand secretary treasurer; succeeds W. F. Donaldson of Kansas City, Mo. W. J. Adams of Kansas City, Mo., editor and manager of the carmen's official journal; re-elected.

John J. Gallagher of Hyde Park, Mass., was defeated for the office of third vice grand chief carman by a majority of four votes. The work of the big convention goes steadily on, but even by working from 8 in the morning until 6 at night, with a two hours' recess at noon, it will not be possible to close the sessions today, as was predicted early last week. Some of the delegates think tomorrow night will see the close of the convention, while others maintain it will continue till Friday night.

After the convention of the Brotherhood Railway Carmen of America, the Mutual Aid association will hold a short convention in Chicago. The next convention city has not yet been decided upon, but will probably come to a vote tomorrow.

ESPERANTO AND SOCIALISM

There is no body of people on earth who welcome Esperanto with enthusiasm exceeding that of the Socialists. Our cause knows no boundaries of races, continents or nations. International solidarity demands an international means of expression, which Esperanto gives us. A short time hence, literature printed in one language will be read by a majority of Socialists throughout the world! Comrades, can you see what this means for our cause? Already, in Russia and Austria, the ruling class is fighting the language. Esperanto study clubs have been broken up and journals impeded by censors. The language smells of revolution.

THE AMERICAN ESPERANTO BOOK. Comrade Arthur Baker, editor of the first Esperanto journal in the United States (Amerika Esperantisto, Chicago), has prepared a complete compendium of the language, so thoroughly analyzing and completely explaining it that a person who does not even know English grammar can learn Esperanto by means of home study alone. This work, called "The American Esperanto Book," contains simple explanations regarding pronunciation, with carefully prepared exercises in reading and translation; a large list of English words with Esperanto translations, and a complete list of Esperanto words with English translations. It places in your hands the means of a thorough reading, writing and speaking knowledge of Esperanto, through home study. Printed from large new type, over 300 pages, clothbound, in a pocket size.

DISCUSS VITAL UNION QUESTION

Telegraphers Hear Hot Shot From Frisco Delegate-- I. W. W. Convention

The Industrial Workers of the World here in national convention did not hold a session this morning, but met at 2 o'clock.

Reports from members of the United Mine Workers were received yesterday and the "check off" system and the union contract were called a new and startling phase of the wage slave system.

The "check off" is a system by which the union dues are deducted from a coal miner's pay and turned over to the local union officials.

Until the country now in force between the Illinois coal mine diggers and the operators workers can be fined if they strike or "lay off" contrary to the orders of the operators or the local union.

A strenuous effort is being made to win the coal diggers over to the I. W. W. idea. During the discussion of the situation the A. J. of L. leaders, Gompers, Mitchell and others, were called traitors and "tools of the capitalist class."

TELEGRAPHERS MEET. Industrial unionism was discussed before the mass meeting of striking telegraphers at the Bevere house yesterday afternoon by Delegate Speed of San Francisco.

"I am glad," he said, "the carmen are on strike. Teamsters with union buttons as big as pie plates are hauling food to the scabs. The scab street carmen are wearing a button too. It says, 'Grand old, Calhoun!'"

"Turn that button over and you will see the label of the International Typographical union. Throughout the country advertisements for scab telegraphers were published."

"Who set up these ads? Why, a union printer. Now what do you think of that?" The telegraphers showed what they thought of this division of the ranks of labor by hissing right heartily.

Speed said that the workers must unite in one big industrial union and understand that the interests of the capitalists and workers are mutually opposed and that one class must rule.

He advised that the workers unite and fight together and make no contracts with their enemies. He was cheered for his ideas and complimented on his delivery.

I. W. W. FOLKS ARE IN POLITICS

The political question drew forth a long, bitter discussion among the delegates to the Trautman division of the industrial workers of the world at Brand's hall yesterday afternoon, some opposing a clause in the constitution which said that all tollers should unite on the political as well as on the industrial field.

During the discussion the Socialists received a few raps and were referred to as schemers to catch votes. Delegate Axelson from Minneapolis said the report of the committee on constitution, which had taken under advisement a proposed change in paragraph 2 of the preamble, which read:

"Whereas these two classes are struggling together on the political as well as on the industrial field, and take and hold that which they produce by their labor through an economic organization, the working class without affiliation with any political party."

Communications had been received from three different locals offering a change in this paragraph with reference to the political question, but after taking the matter under advisement the committee decided to let the paragraph stand as it is.

Delegates De Leon moved that the convention occur in the report of the committee, but Axelson opposed it and offered an amendment to strike out the words "political as well as on the industrial field" and insert "industrial as well as on the political field."

At any rate, there will be a final vote on a vote and the amendment lost, 109 voting against it and 19 for it. De Leon's motion to occur in the report of the committee was then voted on and carried by 115 to 15.

SOLONS TO MEET IN A BIG VAULT

(By United Press Associations.)

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Mayor Horlick and his board of aldermen will hereafter hold their secret sessions in a fireproof vault to escape inquisitive newspaper reporters.

Mayor Horlick does not care to have his pet schemes become public property, but this has happened on several occasions recently. First he thought there were mind readers among the reporters and then he attributed the leak to a secret telephone arrangement. But the mayor says nothing like this will happen again, for the next session will be held in the fireproof vault in the board of education rooms.

ODD ENDS OF NEWS CHICAGO

Some of the Unusual or Unique Occurrences of a Busy Day in a Good Town

A few of the events out of the ordinary and somewhat unusual occurring in Chicago, the city of the unexpected, yesterday follow:

GAVE THEM COIN.

Mrs. Eva C. Clark, 716 La Salle avenue, a teacher in the school, was robbed of $51, which was stolen from her locker by small boy pupils. The result was a wild distribution of money among the young of the school. The thieves, for there were three of them, gave their companions new $10 bills and bills of other denominations in plenty. The result was a vastly enriched neighborhood.

The three youngsters arrested have so far as possible given clues to the location of the money they stole.

FRIDAY THE THIRTEENTH. Until Friday, the 13th, an employe of the Adams Express Company in Newark, N. J., Leon Sackett walked into the Desplaines street station yesterday and gave himself up, saying his conscience hurt him so because he stole $50 from the company. He married when he was 15 and the desire to support his wife in style caused him to steal. He will be held until an officer comes for him. He was good until Friday, the 13th.

A REELING WOMAN.

Rev. Frederick E. Hopkins, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational church, whose exhortations of the booze habit among women has led to his severe denunciation of late, yesterday spent some time downtown for the purpose of gathering evidence. He says he found near Jackson street and Congress street a well-dressed woman badly intoxicated. This may not be new in Chicago, but it is one of the oddities of the day's news because it is a wonder the pastor did not get a half dozen such cases in that neighborhood.

CHUM MADE HIM STEAL.

Because his chum had an influence over him, C. E. Lantry, an employe of the Fair, declares he was compelled to steal. The police assert that the Fair suspected another man, named Moses, also, an employe, but later found that Lantry was the culprit. Lantry tried to get automobile fixtures down on Michigan avenue and was told to leave them and call later for the money. He did so and as he walked into the establishment he got his cash was arrested. He said Moses hypnotized him.

FALSE TEETH LOST.

"Johnnie" Hand, the musician, has lost his teeth. He played at the Auditorium Annex before an audience in excitement of getting refreshments decided he could do better by taking out his false teeth, which he did, placing them on a chair. When he awoke the next morning he found that something was lacking and, looking at himself in the cheval glass, ascertained what it was. Alas, it was then too late! The teeth were absent and none at the hotel could say who picked them up.

PRESSMEN WANT THE 8 HOUR DAY

Chicago Printing Pressmen's union, No. 2, will hold a special meeting Saturday evening, Sept. 21, at Oriental hall, 122 La Salle street. Meeting called to order promptly at 8 o'clock.

The meeting is for the purpose of forming definite plans for the inauguration of the eight-hour day Oct. 1.

One big Chicago printing establishment, a member of the Typothetae, has already begun to prepare for the inauguration of the shorter workday. At present the pressmen and feeders work nine hours a day and feeders wash and clean up the presses. This requires about thirty minutes in the morning and fifteen minutes at night.

The house above referred to has employed a man to wash and oil all the presses. When the eight-hour day is inaugurated pressmen and feeders at the establishment, while actually working but eight hours a day, will have but fifteen minutes rest from the time they start to work until they are ready to go to bed.

It is believed that the plan will be generally adopted by employing printers.

W. P. S. S. PLANS BIG HARVEST FEE

The Young People's Socialist League, which has begun plans for a great harvest festival at Brand's hall the 25th, means to make it one of the greatest events of the kind given in the history of this flourishing organization. The proceeds will be used to equip headquarters for the league, buy its library and defray the expenses of incidents.

The Socialist singing societies will assist. Miss Knopfnagle and others will sing. The league is doing its best to get a whole farm into the building.

BE LEON TO TELL OF THE STUTTGART CONGRESS

Daniel De Leon, delegate from the Socialist Labor Party to the International Socialist Congress at Stuttgart, Germany, will make a report of the session at Metropolitan hall, Jefferson and Ohio streets, Sunday, Sept. 22, at 8 p. m.

An admission fee of ten cents will be charged at the door.

De Leon is in Chicago, attending the national convention of the Trautman wing of the Industrial Workers of the World.

AN INDUSTRIAL ROMANCE

How Miss Jamieson Frightened Col. Clowry—From Parlor Car to Smoking Car

Miss Ida Jamieson, a telegraph operator, who for several years has been connected with the Western Union Company in Chicago, tells of Robert C. Clowry's refusal to better conditions for the operators in a Chicago branch office twenty years ago.

Clowry, who is now president of the company, was at that time general superintendent in Chicago. He met Miss Jamieson while on a train and was lavish in his attentions to her until he found out that she was a mere telegraph operator.

He did not seem to be able to leave her to join his friends in the smoker until she said to him:

"Perhaps, Mr. Clowry, you can do something to improve the conditions in 'Bx' office!"

"Where is 'Bx' office?" Clowry asked, gruffly.

"It is in the wholesale district of Chicago, where I work," said Miss Jamieson.

"What! You an operator! My experience with telegraph operators is that they don't care for nice things. They like an office best when they can write their names in dust and dirt on the tables. I believe I will go to the smoker."

Should the offices of the Western Union be inspected one would have no idea that Clowry still thought this.

POOR NEWSPAPER WORKER LANDS $100—SMALL GRAB AT "PAP"

Chicago's "business" city council has beaten the New York Life Insurance Company at its favorite form of graft. The city council spent public funds to circulate literature to influence voters to endorse the charter.

So far only $100 has been found that was so spent. It went to Harry Barrett Chamberlain, a brilliant and wise newspaper writer, who publishes "The Voter" on "the side."

Chamberlain knows more about graft in public places than most men, but he never "got next" to the "pap" until recently, so far as is known.

It was learned yesterday that the $100 was spent and that it went to Chamberlain. He published 1,000 copies of "The Voter," so the city paid ten cents each for them.

The city council finance committee presented Chamberlain and his associates with the $100. The voucher turned up.

Chamberlain was assistant secretary of the charter convention. He is one of the "uplift" proteges of Daily News Lawson. Milton J. Foreman was chairman of the charter convention. He is also a member of the council finance committee.

The 1,000 copies of The Voter circulated contain the Foreman speech. It was this speech that was considered worth ten cents per copy.

Members of the finance committee yesterday resisted with vehemence the proposition that the $100 paid over to Chamberlain.

C. Sorenson, Chicago, saw the need and dropped in $15 on the Sustainers' Fund yesterday. There are a large number of outstanding pledges on that fund that if paid at once would meet the present emergency.

William Acker, Chicago, takes another share of stock just when it is needed.

Your local was just about to take a share of stock you remember, when it was discovered that additional funds were not so urgently needed, and so you postponed action. Well, now is the time to stir up the membership on the matter, for it is greatly needed right now.

Ralph C. Silver, Glenn's Ferry, Idaho, buys a copy of the Esperanto Book and sends in a dollar for free delivery on a share of stock.

"I cannot afford to be without the Daily Socialist," says C. E. Wilson, Washuta, Wash., in sending in his renewal. "You are certainly doing good work and you have the courage to go after anyone who deserves it. If the laboring people could all understand what this means, you would have 500,000 subscribers in your own city."

CONVICT CUTS OFF HIS HAND

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 19.—Dared to show his nerve, Albert E. Festerite of South Bend, serving a term for the Richard, Mich., bank robbery in the Marquette prison, picked up a piece of glass and cut off his left hand. The fact came out in an investigation now being conducted at Marquette for the purpose of learning the truth of the alleged cruelties practiced in the prison. According to Festerite, he could no longer stand the abuse, and when he was told to prepare himself for another beating he replied that he would cut off one of his hands before he would submit to further ill treatment. Jerred at by the keeper, he promptly carried his threat into execution.

WHY ITALIAN SLEW WOMAN

If He Did Kill Her State Assumes a Theory--Defense Strongly Denies Guilt

Frank J. Constantine is making a determined effort to bring about his acquittal of the charge of murdering beautiful Mrs. Louise Gentry. The theory of the state which may be brought out today is that after he got to boarding with the Gentrys he fell in love with the woman and after begging her for money, begging her to elope with him and doing everything else to wean her from her husband, grew insanely jealous and, seizing her husband's razor, hacked her to death.

DEFENSE STANDS BY GUNS.

On the other hand, the defense means to stand by its guns and its former assertion that Constantine could not have committed the deed; that he did simply because he was scared and could not at first overcome an impulse to flee the house which was the scene of so much blood and turmoil.

The state says Constantine deliberately wrecked the Gentry home and that the couple may have quarreled because Gentry's love may have been returned in part, but the woman chided him because of his conduct with another.

In the meanwhile Constantine seems supremely indifferent to his fate and is one of the coolest persons in the courtroom. The state will demand the death penalty.

EX-CATHOLIC PRIEST TO JAIL

(By United Press Associations.)

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 18.—District Attorney Goehring, who prosecuted Ludwig Szecygiel, the Polish priest convicted last night of second degree murder of Andrew Starzynski, will decide today the disposition in the case of Stephen Starzynski, the brother killed at the same time.

The facts in both cases were practically the same, and as the prosecutor says he is satisfied with the verdict, it is probable the case of Stephen will be dropped.

Szeczygiel, when he heard the words "second degree" smiled and his countenance brightened.

STEVE ADAMS TO HAVE PROTECTION

The Defense conference will meet this evening at 55 North Clark street.

The meeting will be an important one. Steve Adams is about to be tried, and the indications are that the mine owners will do their best to hang him, hoping the working class will "lay down" and rest, now that Haywood is free.

Chicago workers do not intend to allow the trial of Adams to take place in darkness, and will send a newspaper writer to Wallace to send reports to the labor press.

The light of publicity is what the mine owners and Governor Gooding fear more than anything else, and the Defense conference proposes that Adams' trial shall have all the publicity given to that of Haywood in the working class press.

All the labor organizations that have voted on the proposal to continue the conference for defense purposes and the nucleus of a great labor press association have demanded that it be continued and kept in readiness for action.

J. P. MORGAN EVEN BREAKS GAME LAWS--IS FINED

Bany, N. Y., Sept. 18.—Convicted of having been caught with thirteen illegally caught brook trout in the lexbox of his Adirondack summer home, J. Pierpont Morgan was fined $155 today by Justice of the Peace Harrington of Racquetts lake.

The conviction of the financier was brought about by the inspectors of the state forest, fish and game commission, which made announcement of the case tonight. For breaking the law Morgan must pay $25 and for the thirteen he caught an additional fine of $10 each. This is the full legal penalty.

JOBS HANG ON POLITICAL WHIM

State Mine Inspection Branded as a Farce--Row Approaches a Climax

Belleville, Ill., Sept. 18.—A great kick is going up all over this territory about the unfair methods employed in the examinations conducted from time to time for mine inspectors.

It is charged that well-qualified and deserving applicants are discriminated against at Springfield and that the examinations are a farce. Slippery politicians, it is asserted, are in charge, determine results and award certificates. It is even alleged that a combination exists among certain officials which is intended solely to keep out men who are undesirable to them.

The press of Belleville has given a great deal of attention to this phase of political procedure at Springfield and there is a strong demand for a thorough investigation.

DO JAPS HAVE "BERIBERI"

(By United Press Associations.)

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 18.—Do Japanese in traveling from one city to another spread the disease of beriberi?

A City Physician Slatery of Lincoln is so certain that they do that he has undertaken an examination of all orientals in Lincoln and he is urging the government to make similar examinations in all parts of the country. Dr. Slatery came to this conclusion when he learned that twenty Japanese are suffering from the disease in a railroad camp near here.

MRS. KLIMOVICZ REVEALS HERSELF

Has Been Employed Under Assumed Name in Roadhouse-- Does Not Love Husband

Mrs. Anne Klimovicz, the real Mrs. Klimovicz, was found last night. She has been working in a roadhouse three and one-half miles from Elgin, Ill., and her discovery solves the mystery that impelled her husband to declare Miss Tillie Tolan, a west side girl, was his wife, missing for two years, and induced two women to swear Miss Tolan was their illegitimate daughter. The resemblance of the real wife to Miss Tolan is more remarkable even than the resemblance of their pictures.

Mrs. Klimovicz said she had been living at the roadhouse owned by W. S. Snow on the Chicago road. She has been there for many months under the name of May Reaves. She said she never would have come to Chicago to identify herself if it had not been for a spiteful remark made by Tillie Tolan that she (Tillie) could put both her feet into Mrs. Klimovicz's shoes, this assertion being based upon a statement of the despairing husband that his bride had big feet.

WHAT INFLUENCED HER. The woman also decided to come to the front to save her parents grief. They thought Tillie Tolan was their daughter and were heartbroken that she should turn against them. Mrs. Klimovicz's parents are living at Grand Rapids, but the girl does not wish to return home, and says if her husband were the only consideration in the case she should not have come forward, because she is anxious for him to get a divorce on the ground of cruelty. Mrs. Klimovicz is not yet 20. She weighs 145 pounds, has large blue eyes, is a blond and is 5 feet 4 inches tall. She is as very like the Tillie Tolan, however, that their own mothers, their fathers, one husband and innumerable other relatives have been completely confused.
