

DOCK STRIKEERS LOST TO WOLFERS

Strike Results in a Lullion Among the Shippe of the World

Antwerp, Sept. 23.—The strike of the dock laborers of this city, which began last June and continued throughout the ensuing months with intermittent vigor, has come to an end in a victory for the Federation of Ship Owners.

DOWAGER WILL RUN EXHIBIT

St. Petersburg, Sept. 16.—An industrial exposition of decorative art and home furnishings will take place at St. Petersburg during the summer of 1908 for the purpose of developing business, to show the progress achieved in these industries, and to develop the artistic style of the manufacturers.

STRUCTURAL MEN LIKE EQUITY PLAN

Indianapolis, Sept. 25.—Upon beginning their eleventh annual convention in this city, the delegates of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, in Orpheum Hall on North Delaware street, their first official act was to endorse the organization of the Producers' and Consumers' International Equity Union and Co-operative Exchange, and the plan that had been adopted by this new organization to bring about co-operation between union farmers and the other trade unions in the country.

HOLIDAYS CUT ICE IN MINES

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 25.—President Fechen of the United Mineworkers of America has decided to appeal to the government to prevent the importation of laborers from England, Scotland and Wales to be put to work in the coal mines. Owing to the shortage of men, coal operators of the Pittsburg district have sent agents abroad to secure additional help.

BEVERIDGE IS HOME

New York, Sept. 24.—The Kaiser Wilhelm II. of the North German Lloyd line, with Senator Beveridge and his bride and a distinguished company of Americans on board, reached here today after a fast passage of five days, westward hours and thirty minutes from Cherbourg, Southampton and Brest.

The Stick that Changed to a Serpent

AIR SHIP SAILS CARRIES 10 MEN

Constance, Germany, Sept. 25.—Count Ferdinand Zeppelin, the German aeronaut, today made the most successful aerial voyage hitherto achieved in any dirigible balloon. He spent four hours and seventeen minutes in the air, completely circumnavigating the lake of Constance and passing over five different states. The speed of the airship is estimated to have been at least thirty-eight miles an hour. When both motors were in operation it easily outdistanced the numerous seagulls laden with observers that followed on the lake.

RAIL KINGS BLOCK CO-OP

Seattle, Sept. 25.—The effort of Seattle unions to furnish their members with fuel under the market price charged by the coal companies has failed because they cannot secure the shipping privileges necessary to carry such a project to successful execution.

ODD DISCOVERY IN LIGHT EFFECT

Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 14.—A dentist here, Dr. Radard, after having for several years made experiments with the narcotic effect of blue light, has submitted his results to the Swiss Society of Ophthalmology. He claims that a complete narcosis can be obtained if the rays of a blue electric light are brought to bear on the human eye, while all other rays of light, particularly daylight, are kept out of it.

JURY BELIEVES THAT THIS SUFFICIENT FOR MAN WHO KILLED HOME-WRECKING MEDIC

We, the undersigned jurors in the case of Amos C. Campbell, in consideration of the mitigating circumstances in connection with said case, do recommend that he be confined in the penitentiary not to exceed the minimum term prescribed by law, one year. This letter, which was attached to a verdict of guilty of manslaughter, will be made the basis of a petition for a new trial for the slayer of Dr. Benjamin F. Harris, whom he charged with having wrecked the home of his wife. This action of the jurors is unprecedented and is taken as a justification of the unwritten law plea, on which ground it was predicted the defense would fight their case.

JUDGE LANDIS CALLS BLUFF OF THE OIL MAGNATE

Federal Judge Landis today formally granted immunity to the Chicago & Alton for turning state's evidence against the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and called the hand of Standard Oil in insinuating that it had been picked out by Judge Landis for a victim of trust busting. As a result President James A. Moffatt of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana must appear before the grand jury in Judge Landis' court next Tuesday morning and explain what he means by the statement contained in a pamphlet issued by him to this effect: "For fifteen years other shippers have shipped freight out of this territory under circumstances similar to those under which the Standard Oil Company was indicted and fined."

What Do You Want Us to Do?

The response to the statement that the Daily must have immediate relief has begun to come, but it is not coming at a rate that will insure continued publication. To suspend for the time it would take to collect back debts and bring the paper into a position to meet its obligations and continue would be a heavy blow to the organization that is built up, and might mean the complete loss of the paper, in spite of the fact that it is now in better shape by far than at any time in its career.

ANTI-JAP MAN GOES CRAZY

Out of work and despondent, Edward Welch, 32 years old, an iron worker, living at 6615 Monroe avenue, last night slashed his throat and left wrist with a razor in an attempt at self-destruction. When at the end of a quarter of an hour he was still alive the man walked from his home to the Hyde Park police station more than a mile away and asked to be sent to a hospital. His clothing was saturated with blood.

DESPOUDENT MAN SEEKS TO END ALL

After making known his desire for medical attention and explaining how he came by his wounds Welch fainted in front of the police sergeant's desk. He was taken to the county hospital, where it is said he will recover. If you see a job of printing carrying the union label with the number 65 you will know it was done by the Workers' Publishing Society. See to it that this number is on the next job done for your union.

ONE YEAR FOR DOCTOR'S SLAYER

Jury Believes That This Sufficient for Man Who Killed Home-Wrecking Medic

We, the undersigned jurors in the case of Amos C. Campbell, in consideration of the mitigating circumstances in connection with said case, do recommend that he be confined in the penitentiary not to exceed the minimum term prescribed by law, one year. This letter, which was attached to a verdict of guilty of manslaughter, will be made the basis of a petition for a new trial for the slayer of Dr. Benjamin F. Harris, whom he charged with having wrecked the home of his wife. This action of the jurors is unprecedented and is taken as a justification of the unwritten law plea, on which ground it was predicted the defense would fight their case.

TAFT TURNS A NICE FLIP-FLOP

Secretary of War William H. Taft recently ran afoul his anti-labor record as a federal judge and just to show the world that he was not a flip-flopper he turned as quickly as his smaller brother, did a political flip-flop in full view of the audience. All this happened at Tacoma, Wash., where invited labor representatives refused to occupy the platform with Taft. Their reason was that as a federal judge Taft issued repeated injunctions against strikers and always in the interests of capital.

DETECTIVES AT HEELS OF KILLER

Squads of detectives in automobiles, armed with shotguns, and farmers and townsmen on horseback and in wagons, are participating in a man hunt, scouring every inch of the ground between the Chicago limits and Summit Hill, in an effort to run to ground Richard Walton, negro, charged with choking to death Mrs. Lillian White Grant, kindergarten teacher, as the climax of a series of attacks on women.

WIRELESS ON A COMMERCIAL BASE

Glace Bay, N. S., Sept. 24.—Guglielmo Marconi declares that a plant is ready for transatlantic wireless service on a commercial basis, and that transatlantic communication can be opened permanently in about three weeks. He said the rate would be 10 cents a word for ordinary messages, and 5 cents a word for press dispatches. This rate reduces the present cable rate more than one-half, and Marconi says that later he will cut his rate in two.

FARMERS' STRIKE ON IN SOUTH

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 20.—Delegates to the Canadian Trades and Labor-congress at Winnipeg caused some commotion during a banquet tendered them by refusing to honor a toast to King Edward VII. Those who participated in the case of less majesty denied that they were residents of the United States. The labor congress passed a resolution calling upon the Dominion government to stem the tide of East Indian immigration. Honore J. Jaxon of Chicago was fraternal delegate to the congress and represented the Western Federation of Miners. Jaxon was lieutenant in the Louis Riel rebellion in Canada and was sentenced to death should he ever return to the Dominion. He was not molested.

FARMERS' UNION LEADER IN STRANGE MOVE; FIGHT PROMISED

Mysterious moves on the part of President J. A. Everett of the American Society of Equity yesterday and today give promise of a hot time at the Farmers' National Convention in Indianapolis the last of next month. Without informing the executive board of the national organization, Everett called a meeting of the retailers at the Great Northern hotel. It was supposed to be a secret gathering, but when discovered Everett refused to discuss the purpose of the meeting. The associations of retail hardware and jewelry dealers met him there and they had a long conference. Representatives of other organizations of retail dealers were present at various times during the afternoon.

Michigan Business Men Mob Stirton, Socialist Speaker

Crystal Falls, Mich., Sept. 24.—Citizens' alliance men here today proved themselves worthy of citizenship in Colorado. A. M. Stirton, a Socialist speaker for the state organization, came here to discuss Socialism and was mobbed by business men. He was refused the use of the streets and the energetic alliance men were able to prevent the Socialists from renting a hall. Late this afternoon Stirton was walking in the street when he was met by a mob of business men. "Get out of this town," the leader said, "or it will go hard with you." The Socialist speaker said that he was on lawful business and would stand for his rights as a citizen. At this the crew of business men, supported by a few thugs and the town marshal, grabbed the agitator and carried him to a passenger train that pulled in just at that time. Stirton was forced upon the train and it sped out. That he will come back is believed here.

CRAFT KING IN OFFICIAL PLACES

The Chicago police force and Cook county deputy sheriffs are vying with each other in a "graff" contest. Disclosure up to date award even honors. While the police have shown as the heroes of half a dozen holdups, the deputy sheriffs have supplied opium and cocaine to prisoners and aided inmates of the jail to saw their way to liberty. As the police are in overwhelming majority, it is expected they soon surpass their competitors and monopolize attention. James Kostakos, a Greek fruit dealer, appeared before Municipal Judge Pettit this morning and testified he had been beaten and robbed of $90 by four uniformed policemen—McAvoy, Jennings, Steindle and Pierce. Mrs. Nora Sullivan charges she was insulted by a policeman to whom she made complaint that she had been robbed. When she asked him to make an investigation he threatened to arrest her.

JAXON IS IN CANADA AGAIN

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 20.—Delegates to the Canadian Trades and Labor-congress at Winnipeg caused some commotion during a banquet tendered them by refusing to honor a toast to King Edward VII. Those who participated in the case of less majesty denied that they were residents of the United States. The labor congress passed a resolution calling upon the Dominion government to stem the tide of East Indian immigration. Honore J. Jaxon of Chicago was fraternal delegate to the congress and represented the Western Federation of Miners. Jaxon was lieutenant in the Louis Riel rebellion in Canada and was sentenced to death should he ever return to the Dominion. He was not molested.

15 CENTS A DAY; SOCIALISTS ACT

Vienna, Sept. 25.—Fifteen cents a day is adequate pay for men employed by the government to repair bridges, the Hungarian ministry of commerce has declared. This ruling has angered the workmen of the country and started a serious agitation among the Socialists. The thousand workmen here struck yesterday, the railway men are threatening to quit work and much dissatisfaction exists among the miners and textile and iron workers.

STUYVE'S TRIP ENDS IN GROUCH

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 24.—The real purpose of Stuyvesant Fish's visit to the executive office Monday is as much a mystery today as it was yesterday. The nearest approach to a statement that Secretary Loeb will make is to say: "Mr. Fish sent a message to the president. It had nothing to do with Harriman." It is believed here that Fish merely sought a request to Sagamore Hill for an interview, and as he departed on the afternoon train somewhat disgruntled it is believed he was turned down. Before nightfall all of the furniture destined for Washington will have been shipped and the presidential party will leave for the capital tomorrow at 10. POLICE DOCILE AT SECOND MEETING

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 23.—The indignation meeting held in Minneapolis Saturday evening was a complete success, notwithstanding the next morning's Tribune pronounced it a fiasco. It had previously stated that a serious clash was likely to result from the Socialists' announcement that they would hold an indignation meeting within the forbidden district. Forty or fifty police were on hand to "preserve order."

"PIN HEAD" FOR 'FRISCO THRONE

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 23.—At a meeting of the Union Labor delegates, held a few evenings ago, P. H. Carthy, commonly known as "pinhead," was indicted for the position of "pinhead" by the president of the Building Trades Council. The convention also endorsed the candidacy of John H. Nelson for recorder, H. T. Mulcahy for county clerk, Thomas O'Neil for sheriff, W. J. Walsh for coroner, and Charles Bantell for treasurer. Everybody received endorsement for the manner in which they had conducted their offices and the uprightness prevailing therein.

SUPPRESSES OPIUM SMOKERS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 25.—Consul General W. D. Straight advises that the Chinese authorities have been active in enforcing the provisions of the anti-opium edict, and it is expected that all dens will be finally closed by the early part of June, 1908. Proclamations in the vernacular have been posted everywhere throughout the city urging the people to abandon the use of the drug. There have been in the past 1,600 dens in Mukden, the daily consumption averaging 200 packets or about 1,000 pounds per day. It is stated also that about 2,600 pounds of opium have been daily used in the opium dens.

TRAUTMAN POOH DAH OF I. W. W.

The principal business before the Chicago convention of the Industrial Workers of the World yesterday was a motion to re-establish the office of president. It was defeated. The resolution was introduced by Delegate Fred Hazelwood of British Columbia who was the I. W. W. delegate to Stuttgart. It evoked a storm of protests and a general discussion. The office of president was done away with last year and general secretary-treasurer made the chief office. This position is now held by W. A. Trautman.

AFTER BIG WIRE FRAUD GAME

(Mail Correspondence.) Bilking the "Hon." John Thompson

The scribe traversed the downtown streets lost in preoccupation. He wanted a good labor story, but blamed if he knew where it was coming from. The conventions were over, no new strikes or settlements reported, he had met and conversed with the gracious coterie of Chicago labor men who condescended to call him "friend" and they knew of nothing new in the labor field.

Autocrats agree that gastronomy is the quickest way to a man's heart. "Why not," thought the scribe, "an equally expeditious way to his head, and perhaps, in this instance at least, to his thoughts?"

The oyster season had been "open" but a few weeks and the scribe dearly loved the husky mollusk. He ordered, scalloped, fried, stewed or "shell a half."

Oysterward, then, he wended his way and, still consumed with the thoughts of that elusive story, butted into one of John H. Thompson's restaurants—the one located at 105 Madison Street. (Keep the change, Brother Thompson, you're welcome to the advertising.)

Somewhere between the third oyster and the last half of the seventh cracker the gentlemanly waiter leaned over the counter and whispered mysteriously: "Say, pal, I've got two 50-cent tickets for the Olympic tonight and can't go. Can you use 'em? I'll make your check right."

Now, wasn't that a story, thought! And didn't the scribe want to reach up and shake the fellow's hand, and at the same time introduce a custard pie to his physiognomy. (The man seated at the scribe's right will never know how nearly he came to losing that piece of pie before his plate.)

GIRL'S DREAM COMES TRUE

Longs for Break in Dead Monotony of Farm Life and Gets Excitement. (By United Press Associations.)

Medina, O., Sept. 24.—Edith Mohler, 12 years old, daughter of a farmer, concluded, after reading a few yellow backed novels, that the countryside was too quiet. So she wrote herself a few threatening notes and later was found chained, gagged and bound in her father's barn. She told a thrilling story of attack by a masked man and immediately saw all the excitement any girl could ask. Armed men with bloodhounds tore over the country after her assailant. Sheriff's deputies galloped over the country roads.

But the bloodhounds, after chasing two or three inoffensive farmers, gave up in disgust. The posse of 200 men, tired and worn to bed, returned to the county sheriff finally put the little girl on the grill, in the presence of her parents, and she confessed that it was all a hoax, invented to stir up little excitement in her neighborhood. She had done the binding, note writing, etc., and the bad masked man was a creature of her imagination. Then the posse went back to the neglected fall plowing.

WAR AT HANCOCK IS DECLARED

The Socialists of Hancock, Mich., are determined to secure a final judicial decision upon their legal right to parade through the city carrying the red flag. Nine were arrested in the northern city for this "offense" and are to be brought to trial some time this week.

The mayor of Hancock has publicly announced that even if proved to be true that Socialists have a legal right to use red flags in street parades he will forcibly prevent it.

THE CHANGING ORDER. By O. L. U. P. S. L. DECIDES UPON NEW PLAN

In the Future Will Intersperse Business With Pleasure; Friday's Great Meeting

The Young People's Socialist League made an experiment last Friday night. They heard a program—a real, live program—before they got down to "business." The biggest of the organization has always been "business." Most of the pleasure that the members might have got out of the meetings has been lost because there has always been "important business" on hand that took all the time to settle.

Now they are tired of it, and have had a quiet little revolution in their method of handling this business. Two weeks ago they worked out a new constitution, one section of which gave new powers and responsibilities to an executive committee. A DEMOCRATIC ORGANIZATION. When the league was formed the founders desired a purely democratic organization, so they provided that the body of the membership should themselves transact the business. But the business got to a point where it threatened to swamp the meetings, and the members decided that that particular brand of democracy was not the kind they wanted. From now on only two evenings a month will be devoted to business meetings; the other meeting nights will be devoted to music, debates, lectures and the like.

FRIDAY EVENING'S PROGRAM. The program Friday consisted of a violin solo by E. J. Benson, a review of current topics by M. F. Cimballo, a talk on "Tricks of Journalism" by H. G. Creel, labor editor of the Chicago Daily Socialist, and an extemporaneous debate. The subject of this was, "Resolved, That Socialism is opposed to patriotism." M. F. Cimballo and George Eisler were chosen from the floor to open the debate and various members followed, as the spirit moved. After they had debated for a while a vote was taken with the result that the affirmative, which was represented by Cimballo, was declared winner.

HARVEST FESTIVAL. The harvest festival and farmers' party planned by the league will take place next Saturday, the 28th, at Brando's hall. This already proved to be a success. All the young women will come in calico dresses, the men in overalls. Contributions of farm produce, to be disposed of, are requested. The program is to have the same of their young lives, and so will every one who comes.

HERE'S PROOF OF WIRE VICTORY

The "Mailgram" published in Chicago by the telegraph, giving strike news, prints the following from the Detroit News: "Owing to the inability of the telegraph companies during the strike to handle the country news, the Detroit News has been forced to print the progress of today's game, play by play, as it is wont, and makes this acknowledgment to its readers of the unavoidable inability to give every play from start to finish of the game."

News for Unionists

Indications as to the outcome of the demand for an eight-hour day on and after Oct. 1, recently made by Chicago Pressmen's union No. 4, were found in the want column of today's papers and for several days past. Employing printers are advertising for men to "wash up" presses and rollers after hours. Hereafter these duties have been done by the pressmen's assistant and consumed about forty-five minutes each day. When the eight-hour day goes into effect many firms are prepared to employ a man to tend to the washing of presses and rollers, thus relieving the pressmen of three-quarters of an hour's work and making their actual time at the press but fifteen minutes less than formerly. The pressmen now work nine hours a day. The new arrangement is entirely satisfactory to the men and it is thought it will be universally adopted.

The fifth annual convention of the Citizens' Industrial Association of America will assemble at Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 7. This organization is perhaps the most important industrial organization of all those opposed to working class supremacy and progress.

The Michigan State Federation of Labor yesterday opened its eighteenth annual convention at Detroit with President Charles C. Carpenter of Grand Rapids in the chair. The convention will probably last the remainder of the week. Following are the new officers of the International Association of Machinists elected at the St. Louis convention: President—James O'Connell, Washington. First vice president—P. J. Conlon, Washington. Second vice president—J. L. Bucklewe, Little Rock, Ark. Third vice president—James Somerville, Alberta, Man. Fourth vice president—Thomas Wilson, Cheyenne, Wyo. Secretary—George Preston, Washington. Sixth vice president—Undecided. Seventh vice president—Walter Ames, Kansas City, Mo. Secretary—George Preston, Washington. Members of executive board—James Reynolds, Cleveland, O.; Hugh Doran, Chicago; Edward Tucker, Washington; W. E. Ireland, Pittsburgh, Pa. Delegates to American Federation of Labor—Eugene Barber, St. Louis, Mo.; A. F. Stark, Rock Island, Ill.; Thomas A. Lear, St. Paul, Minn.; R. G. Church, Ill., New Haven, Conn. Editor "Machinists' Journal"—D. D. Wilson, New York.

MUST GO TO JAIL AT LAST

By an oversight Federal Judge Landis failed to make out a commitment for John McCaffery, a letter carrier, whom he sentenced to a year in the house of correction for robbing a letter. McCaffery was released on his own recognizance to enable him to provide for his wife, who gave birth to a child during his trial and was destitute. McCaffery presented himself at the prison doors according to promise, but the court's forgetfulness left the jailer without the necessary papers.

DETECTIVES DRIVE MEXICAN AGITATOR FROM CHICAGO

Relentless pursuit of Mexican labor leaders within the borders of the United States continues. President Diaz of Mexico and capitalists of the United States have entered upon a campaign looking to the extermination of enlightened Mexican workmen who seek to organize Mexico's millions of wage slaves.

When set upon in their native country a number of these men escaped to the United States, into what they believed was a haven. Since then they have been hounded all over the country by private detectives and Republican administrations have aided the pursuit.

Recently came to the attention of detectives that Filipe Jauragu, one of the escaped leaders, was in Chicago working as a pressman in a local printing establishment. He was followed to his lodgings and Saturday an ineffective attempt made to capture him. Jauragu had been conveyed to the hunter man and he escaped but a few minutes before the arrival of the detectives.

Jauragu is a co-worker with Antonio Villarrea, who conducted the St. Louis junta in the interests of Mexican labor. Villarrea was threatened with arrest and return to Mexico, whereupon he escaped, but was recently captured in Los Angeles, Cal. The work of the junta is now being conducted by Villarrea's sister, a beautiful Mexican girl who has given her life to the uplifting of her oppressed countrymen.

SMOOTH MAN GETS W. U. ON HIP

(Mail Correspondence.) San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 21.—On Sept. 17 a man of San Antonio went to the Western Union office at Houston to send a very urgent telegram for a grip containing clothing and valuables. He was told "indefinite delay."

He offered to pay repeat price. Told again indefinite delay. He offered a special bonus. Told once again indefinite delay. He asked the clerk to give him a statement showing the company could not handle his message promptly.

After consulting with the chief operator the clerk signed the following: "I came in to send a telegram to you at San Antonio, but the receiving clerk at the W. U. says he cannot guarantee delivery of the message on the 15th nor even within a week of the 15th." This statement is signed "R. J. Selman, Receiver, W. U."

Same Old Lies

Reference has already been made to the grotesque lying of the capitalist newspapers concerning the Stuttgart Congress.

If the International Socialist Congress that was recently held at Stuttgart be taken as a criterion, the strength that comes from harmony is woefully lacking among those who follow Herr Bebel and other leaders of his party.

There is no means of finding out who that "correspondent" was, but the San Diego Times must plead guilty to being the easiest mark of the age if it was fooled into paying telegraph and cable tolls on any such stuff.

To those who saw the almost machine like order of the Congress, its rather exaggerated decorum on most occasions, and its remarkable harmony, such a "dispatch" reaches the height of ridiculous.

Of course, there was not even a suggestion of a discussion on the meaning of Socialism, for Socialists do not meet today to ask why they exist.

Yet it is safe to say that so carefully and widely has this barefaced falsehood been circulated that for years to come the Stuttgart Congress will be held up by opponents of Socialism as an awful example of the quarrels of Socialists.

AND THOUSANDS OF WORKING MEN WILL CONTINUE TO GET THEIR IDEAS FROM THE NEWSPAPERS THAT PRINT SUCH STUFF!

Get Ready for Action

The campaign of 1908 is only about six months distant. That campaign should be a memorable one for Socialists. It will be a memorable one whatever happens.

It will be a campaign that will put the Socialist Party organization on trial. If it rises big enough to meet the occasion it will put enough representatives of the working class in the next Congress to make it impossible to sneak any legislation through without the KNOWLEDGE OF THE WORKING CLASS.

But fundamentally this campaign will tell whether the Socialist Party is capable of expressing and utilizing the tremendous wave of Socialist thought that the agitation of a generation of Socialists and the action of a generation of industrial evolution has created.

There are others who are watching that wave of Socialist thought. There are rich rewards for those who can either utilize it to their own benefit or can turn it aside and protect and preserve capitalism against its assaults.

The only thing that can prevent this is ORGANIZATION OF THE SOCIALIST PARTY. Nor must this work be delayed. The time is now all too short for the needed action.

During the next few months every energy should be concentrated upon the work of building up the organization, in increasing the membership and educating and training it for the work that is before us.

The national office has already taken up this work and is reporting excellent results. Every state and local organization should follow suit. It is an excellent plan to hold mass meetings for this special purpose, having first prepared the ground by a careful circulation of literature pointing out the necessity and value of organized work.

If this is done and an organization of 100,000 members sends its delegates to the next national convention of the Socialist Party and goes into the campaign thoroughly trained and ready for action there will be a million and more really Socialist votes cast next year and the United States will take its place well up in the foremost ranks of the International Socialist army.

TWO SOCIALIST SPEAKERS

John Zisulip was born in the small country town of Neskeak in the year 1886. Many of his childhood days were spent among the farmyard animals and fowls.

He was soon tired of this. He was no longer satisfied with farm life, but longed to see the big city of Ekekuawim. So, after finishing school, he bid his parents farewell and went to Ekekuawim.

THE WORKERS' NEED, THE SOCIALISTS' DEMAND

BY EUGENE V. DEHS.

Consider the barren prospect of the average boy who faces the world today. If he is the son of a workman his father is able to do little in the way of giving him a start.

Just a hand! A human factory hand! Think of a hand with a soul in it! In the capitalist system the soul has no business. It cannot produce profit by any process of capitalist calculation.

WHEN I LOOK

When I look back over the years of my life And see all its error and sin, When I think of the failures I've made in the strife.

When I look down into the depths of my heart And see the wild turmoil there, When I see the passions that rend my resolve apart.

HOW I FOUND THREE SOCIALISTS. One Sunday morning during the recent campaign against the charter, while riding on my wheel delivering campaign literature to our active members for distribution.

The trust busters in their attack upon Rockefeller would kill the fatted calf of capitalism in order to tempt the prodigal sons of toil and draw them back from Socialism to competition.

When I know the temptations that wait me today, When I feel how weak is my hold, When I see how easy my feet could stray.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Edited by Marie Jayne

Pastimes for Children

Sydney Smith has said that "If you will make children happy now, you will make them happy twenty years hence by the memory of it."

Sleeping Beauty

There is, I have heard, a Sleeping Beauty in every woman, but overworked, unhealthy surroundings, care, pain, ill-health surround her.

What Little Folks Wear

Eugene Field touched close to nature when he wrote: "It makes us all feel good to have a baby on the place."

An Educational Pre-tender

That the National Educational Association is in fact a close corporation and not the representative body it pretends to be, has been a growing suspicion for a considerable time.

Single Tax vs. Socialism

You ask readers to discuss the question asked by a correspondent, Single Tax vs. Socialism.

ON THE SIDE OF RELIGION.

I am truly glad that Comrade Hastings is a Socialist. He is not alone.

THE ART OF LECTURING

BY ARTHUR MORROW LEWIS.

The close of a lecture is called the peroration—the word oration prefixed by the Latin preposition "per."

The speaker who has failed to observe the previous rules about "beginning easy" and "speaking deliberately" will pay the penalty here.

The manner of the peroration has two essentials, an increase of speed, and a raising of the voice. These two things go naturally together.

The peroration has the nature of a triumph. The question has been fought out in the main body of the lecture, the opposing positions have been overthrown, and now the main conclusion is victoriously proclaimed and driven home.

Even if an element of pathos enters into the peroration, it is a mistake to allow the voice to weaken. If it takes

AN INDUSTRIAL TYPE

There is one subject akin to the labor problem which is stirring the minds of the American people as never before.

Standing the other day near the speakers' platform at the Falconer centennial, the writer watched a little woman who had crowded herself to the front and stood curiously eyeing the people and apparently listening to the speakers.

Her face was that of one grown old before her time. The cheeks were not rosy, but of a brownish, leathery color, clearly denoting a lack of vitality.
