Europe Startled by Solidarity of Workers—Farmers Join City Laborers in Political Uprising

Budapest, Oct. 11.—The general strike and demonstration by the working class of Hungary is on. All the crowned heads of Europe are perplexed at this outbreak from a nation whose workers long have been the most oppressed in the world.

"BILLY" CREECH SINGS NO MORE

Tribute to Socialist Whose Stormy Musical Career Is Ended

BY THOMAS J. MORGAN. Billy Creech is dead. I attended his funeral Wednesday. Bill was a molder in the foundry of the Illinois Central Car Works at twenty-seventh street and I was a machinist in the same works, and were close neighbors in the old Fifth ward, which included the stockyard district in 1879.

MEETS ROAD WITH SHOTGUN

Washburn, Wis., Oct. 11.—Northern Wisconsin has developed a man who insists upon upholding what he deems his rights by shotgun methods. He is Arnt Hanson, a farmer and owner of forty acres of land, who thinks a road that was constructed through his land was illegally imposed upon him. His experience with railroads is such that he has been driven to desperate acts.

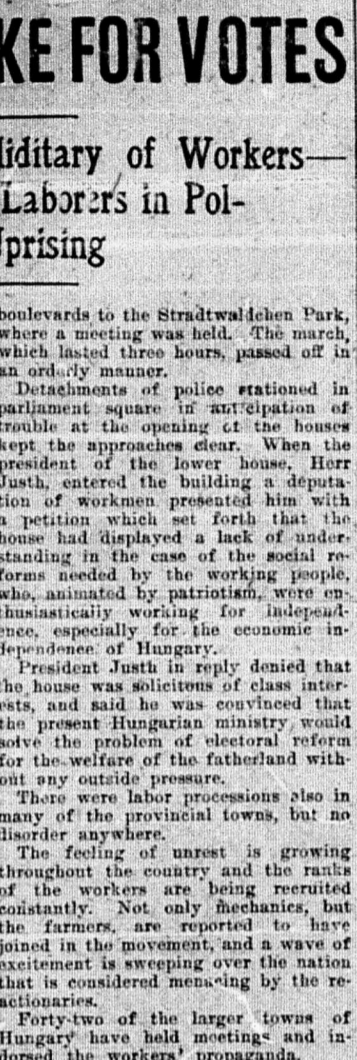

DAUGHTER IS UP FOR SALE

The most frightful story ever told in Chicago is this: It is true. Mrs. E. M. Schloesser, keeper of a disorderly house at 1828 Wabash avenue, is under arrest, charged with a deliberate attempt to sell her daughter Gertrude, aged 14, to a house of ill repute. The girl was rescued by police this morning from the house conducted by her mother. The latter was also arrested and with her Edgar Parrish, a musician.

PRETTIEST WOMAN IN WORLD COMING HOME

Miss Marjorie Burns, said by artistic experts to be the most beautiful woman alive, who is to marry Sidney C. Love, the Chicago broker, will reach Chicago from New York in a few hours and will start at once on arrangements for a wedding, which promises to be one of the most interesting events of the character in Chicago.

Occasion for Alarm!

HAVE MILLIONS; HARD TO KEEP THEM

The life of the millionaire, it reports are, is like that of the policeman certainly not a happy one. There is little doubt that a certain class of criminals regard millionaires as legitimate prey, and the millionaires, knowing this, are compelled to contrive schemes to thwart their cunning. The modern method of doing business by check has to a large extent provided the forger with opportunities for the exhibition of his workmanship.

LED TO TRUTH BY THE DAILY

J. Mandel and B. Schiff, two striking bondholders, took advantage of their vacation to pay the Chicago Daily Socialist a visit today. Both men have joined the union since the strike. Prior to the walkout they belonged to no organization and, with others, were content upon to remain out of the union and help break the strike.

INTERESTING "MIX UP"

It has a N. Y., Oct. 11.—The local tailors' strike became serious Wednesday when a party of merchants and strikers had a free fight at the Lehigh street. The merchants were waiting for a party of strike breakers when Michael Lettes, a union man, tackled Matthew Sheitz, a merchant, around the knees. Sheitz hit him and the pair rolled on the floor. Other tailors and strikers mixed in and there was a lively scap.

DR. HOY TALKS TO IDLE OPERATORS

Dr. W. H. Hoy of Wellston, O., president of the American Railway Surgeons, addressed the meeting of the Citizens' Protective Association, an organization organized for the purpose of controlling working people. As soon as the association began its warfare upon organized labor, the unions of Waycross combined to defend themselves and soon had the "protectionists" routed.

PROTECTED SELF; RESULT, A FINE

M. A. Schmidt, business agent of the Wood Workers' Council, was fined $5 for "disorderly" conduct in Judge Fike's court Thursday. A month ago when the strike at the Kiebs barber supply factory began, Schmidt, in pursuance of his duties, visited the scene of the trouble. He saw a young man leaving the plant and correctly assuming that he was to become a strike breaker engaged him in conversation.

POPE LETS PRINCE WED

Rome, Oct. 10.—The pope has granted a dispensation permitting the marriage of Princess Marie Bonaparte, who is a Catholic, to Prince George of Greece, a member of the orthodox Greek church, on the condition, which is to be set forth in a signed document, that children resulting from the union shall be brought up as Catholics.

KARL LIEBKNECHT IS ROYAL BILL'S LATEST WHITE ELEPHANT

Berlin, Oct. 9.—The trial of Dr. Karl Liebknecht for high treason was called yesterday in the Imperial Supreme Court at Leipzig. The Liebknecht is the son of William Liebknecht, one of the best known members of the German Social Democracy. The particular crime with which young Liebknecht is charged is the publication of a pamphlet on "Militarism and Anti-Militarism," in which he denounced the German military system, showed how it was corrupting the whole German society, sapping its life-blood financially, and closing by calling upon the workers to fight militarism in all its forms.

KYBOSH ON CITIZENS' MOVE

Man and Wife in Jail for "Contempt" in Queer Legal Game

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 11.—It is reported that the Bell Telephone Company has filed a lien against the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, and its members, to pay the costs in the case just decided against it in injunctive proceedings in the Federal court. The costs appear to be $49 and the Brotherhood is to secure the payment of these costs from the union members. Seven of the members owned their own homes, and this would take their homes, if necessary, to secure the payment of the costs.

"UNCLE" JOE "AGONIZES"

Moline, Ill., Oct. 11.—"Uncle" Cannon was in his element last night. He was addressing the Illinois Bankers' association and was sure that his audience was with him. So he talked into everything that he thought was "uncle" and in the applause his attacks brought forth. "Sometimes rich people get cranky," he lamented, "though not often where they made the money themselves. But once in a while we all get cranky, especially where money is involved. The man who has an independent subsistence gets to talking and he talks of reform. He gets queer notions. I have several in my mind's eye now that amuse themselves as Socialists and reformers and are going to turn the world upside down."

SAENGERBUND'S ANNUAL CONCERT

Germany, famous for musical culture in their own country, have done much to elevate the taste for music in America and one of the pronounced influences for good music in Chicago has been for twenty years the Socialist Saengerbund. This historic society is planning to give a concert and ball October 20 at Brand's Hall. The event is looked forward to by music lovers in the working class and by the young dancing set.

Washington, Pa., Oct. 10.—Peter Murray of Pampa Vista, at the age of 57, has gone to college. He is a student of Jefferson academy and the teachers say he is one of their most diligent pupils. In his youth Murray had to work for his living and sacrifice. His school life has accumulated money, and his large business interests demand that he be better educated.

ENCO OF MINE OWNER CRIME

(Mail Correspondence.) Denver, Oct. 8.—The Cripple Creek mining war, transported to the United States circuit court, was fought over here.

The case argued before Judge Lewis was that of the Interstate Mercantile company against Albert E. Cram, and fifty other men accused of having conspired to loot the store at Cripple Creek supposed to have been owned by the Western Federation of Miners, August 25, 1904.

The hearing was on the motion of the plaintiffs to strike out certain portions of the defendants' answer and to make other portions more definite and certain. Judge Lewis ordered some changes in the answer.

Three years ago, during the labor troubles at Cripple Creek, a store ostensibly operated by the Interstate Mercantile company, but supposed to be really controlled by the Western Federation of Miners, was looted by a mob of business men and professional thugs.

Various accusations were made and it was charged that the outrage had been planned by the mine owners.

Finally a suit was brought by the Interstate Mercantile company for $15,000 damages for the loss suffered. It was in connection with this suit that the hearing was held.

It is alleged in the complaint that the stock carried in the store at the time of the raid was valued at about $5,000. The plaintiffs charge that the mob drove the clerks from the store, looted the cash register and scattered stock promiscuously.

The defendants, on their side, deny all accusations in the complaint. They claim some of them were in New York at the time the raid was made and that others were not on the streets of Cripple Creek at the time.

President Fitzpatrick of the Chicago Federation of Labor has announced that within a few days he would appoint a committee to investigate the matter.

The Chicago Tribune this morning says an investigation was "demanded" by delegates to the Chicago Federation of Labor. This is wholly false.

It was at the personal request of President Fitzpatrick that such a committee be appointed. In order to make the motion he called Vice-President McCracken to the chair while Fitzpatrick took the floor as a delegate and made the motion in the regular way.

It ought to be. 10.00 buys of me an all wool "Black Thibet" Suit, Top Coat and "Cravenette" and all Venetian lined. TOM sells clothing at 10.00 up to 25.00 and buys from the best makers in America. "Look for that Label." TOM is not afraid of being stuck selling "smart" clothes. Matters not if you pay 10.00 or 20.00—they are "snappy" clothes.

Progress of Wireless Marked on Atlantic Coast and to Europe

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 10.—Wireless telegraphic and telephonic communication between Washington, D. C., New York, N. Y., and New York City has been established. The new government station at League Island navy yard is in service and messages are sent between the three stations regularly.

Already Portsmouth, N. H.; Charleston, Mass.; New York City; Washington, Savannah, Ga.; Charleston, S. C.; Pensacola and Key West, Fla., have been equipped with wireless apparatus. Within a short time it is proposed to place a station on the northern coast of Cuba.

Along the eastern coast of the South Atlantic coast the eighty stations will be in operation when the whole system has been completed. None of these stations has been established, but the locations have been selected and the work will be begun soon.

While the tests have been under way at the navy yard E. R. Cram of the battleship U. S. S. Albatross, now anchored there, has been taking an active interest in the work. He is credited with having made the first discovery of the wireless telephonic system.

He was at work in the laboratory making a test for wireless telegraphy. An employe of the shop was operating one end of the apparatus. Receiving a shock, he jumped back from the instrument and exclaimed, "Damn that thing!"

Cram heard the words plainly at the other end of the miniature contrivance and began to work out his theory. He is now in charge of the Kansas battleship apparatus.

WIRELESS PAID BIG AS TUB

Alleged That the Business Head of the School Board Indulged Low Spite

Springfield, Mass., Oct. 10.—Labor union methods have been adopted by the boarding house keepers of West Springfield.

They have organized and demanded more pay. There were two dozen at a meeting for organization last night and an equal number promised to stand by the new organization.

The union decided to raise the price of board from $5 to $6 a week at once. One of the chief causes of dissatisfaction was the fall dinner party.

It was explained that the medium-sized pails held two quarts of coffee, eight or nine sandwiches, half a pound of butter and six doughnuts, and that failure to include these two dollars was considered justification for prolonged grumbling.

At a meeting of the board of education last night Dr. John Guerin, backed by Trustee Trumbull, deliberately charged President Schneider with "jobbery" and the president saved himself from censure by the use of his own vote.

It was charged that Barn Superintendent Michael Naughton, an old man of 55 years, had been deliberately "jobbed" out of the position that he had held for eighteen years.

Last May, Naughton says, he had trouble with L. E. Hesse, a bookkeeper in the supply department, and was called vile names and beaten by Hesse.

Though Hesse was arrested and fined $50 for this assault, Schneider had Naughton suspended and Naughton demanded a civil service trial, which was promised.

Finally, two weeks ago Schneider, it is alleged, managed to get a recommendation through abolishing the position formerly held by Naughton.

Dr. Guerin said this would not be the last of the matter.

When the Commercial National Bank moves into its new building at Clark and Adams streets next Monday it will have as tenants corporations with an estimated joint capitalization of more than $2,000,000.

The list includes: U. S. Steel corporation, $68,442,000; Standard Oil company, $71,653,000; American Bridge company, $11,000,000; Carnegie Steel company, $11,000,000; Am. PRESIDENT SEES BIG DOG FIGHT

Stamboul, La., Oct. 10.—The president's hunt has metamorphosed into a first-class dog fight.

Forty-five dogs are with the party, and owing to racial prejudices the animals have been scrapping, growling and chewing for several hours, scaring all the bears in the neighborhood.

Metcalfe brothers, famous hunters, brought in a batch of dogs and as soon as John M. Parker, the president's host, turned his dogs loose there was an immediate clinch. The hounds have nearly chewed each other to pieces, and if a bear should be scared up it is doubtful if there are dogs in the party able to take up the chase.

DENEEN HOLD ALLEN DOWN

Grave Charges Against Famous "Statesman" Used as Weapons

Political circles in Chicago and down state have a choice bit of gossip in their mouths.

Charles Allen, former speaker of the general assembly and a representative now, is the subject of the gossip. Governor Deneen is the hero of the situation. Of course, the entire story is told of publication, but it can be stated on good authority that Allen is down and out and will not dare oppose Governor Deneen in anything.

Deneen has an "influence" over Allen that forces the well-known political sharp to play dead, roll over and beg whenever Deneen gives the command. Just what it is that Deneen knows over Allen is known among those on the inside, but it cannot be published at this time.

Allen has been speculating in zinc and lead mines for some time and the ventures were not as profitable as banking and politics. Allen is short of money and this is said to have opened the way for some of his political enemies to start a very horrid story about him.

MADE METER RUN BACKWARD

New York, Oct. 10.—In view of the fact that it has been proven by an official investigation that August Belmont, Thomas F. Ryan, and J. P. Morgan have participated in monumental crimes and stolen tractions, light and other public utility deals, interest is attached to a case in the police court of Justice Olmstead.

The case concerns a young man who invented a contrivance to make electric meters run backward and cheated the electric light monopoly out of part of its charges.

Of course, he was arrested and thrown into jail, entirely unlike the thieves who own the light monopoly and not only rob the public but one another.

Herman Barth is the name of the young genius. He pleaded not guilty to a charge of falsifying the readings of one of the meters of the Edison Electric Light company, and changed his plea to guilty yesterday afternoon in Special Session.

Presiding Justice Olmstead remanded him for sentence tomorrow. Barth invented a machine which, attached to an electric meter, caused the meter to run backward. In this way the Edison company was defrauded of part of its high charges.

After remanding the prisoner Justice Olmstead called upon Prof. Sever of Columbia University to explain the invention. Prof. Sever declared the machine to be remarkably ingenious. Justice Olmstead said that he would look into Barth's previous record before pronouncing sentence.

The responses to the last call are pouring in in a most encouraging manner. Socialists seem to be at last waking up to a realization that when the battle is nearly won, when the first year, with its heart-breaking struggle, is almost at an end, it is the worst of all times to relax the efforts. The Sustainers' fund scheme is meeting with a hearty response. All are willing to help if they can, but be sure that others have hold of the same line and that all are pulling together.

Scandinavian local No. 194 of the Painters, Paperhangers and Decorators of America have just sent in word that at their last meeting they voted unanimously to take ten more shares in the Workers' Publishing Society. This local has been one of the steadfast friends of the Daily from the beginning and is one of the most progressive in Chicago.

Was Friend of Mrs. Hollister Murdered by Richard Ivens; Unsettled Her Mind

Miss Jennie L. Stevens, for seven years organist of the choir of Wesley M. E. church, of which Mrs. Bessie Hollister also was a member, and was slain by Richard Ivens, has probably met a similar fate in some respects. The body of the woman found in the muck of a efferdram in the Chicago river was Miss Stevens' and that she was strangled to death, and thrown into the dam by her murderer appears a self-evident conclusion.

Miss Stevens had been affected deeply by the murder of beautiful Mrs. Hollister, and for a long period the fact that her friend had met such a sad fate preyed upon her mind and drove her almost to the verge of insanity.

The fact that the woman had not been criminally assaulted as first suspected makes the case all the more mysterious.

A bartender, Henry Keim, voluntarily appeared at police headquarters last night and stated that he was the man who put the woman on the car Wednesday night, and telephoned her mother at her request, that she was coming. He came forward of his own volition and on account of this fact was not held.

W. U. STOCK GOES DOWN

Someone seems to be hammering Western Union Telegraph stock. It closed yesterday at 73 1/2, and fell three points between the opening and 11 o'clock this morning.

The statement for the fiscal year ending June 30, last, was just made public yesterday, and it shows a net decrease in profits of $148,372 over last year.

President Clowry said it was caused by the increased cost of material and the 10 per cent increase given the telegraph operators last March. Expenses increased more than revenue.

This period covers a strike at Houston, Texas, and part of the San Francisco strike.

The statement follows: Western Union Telegraph company reports for the fiscal year ended June 30, last:

Total revenues	$22,856,496	$22,180,752
Total expenses	26,532,196	2,827,124
Net	6,324,210	7,746,872
Expenses	16,884,781	20,653

Bart's LITTLE CLOTHES SHOP

I am not the original give-away man, but you'll think so when you see those hand-tailored suits I'm parting with for 15 silver pictures of the Goddess of Liberty.

They've got more snap, style, originality and goodness in their make-up than you can find in any $20 or $25 suit you've seen this season. They are made to associate with the rain and sun without shrinking or changing color.

If you want to dig a little deeper, say $20 or $25, I'll show you a line of bench-made clothes that will make a beauty doctor will want to crawl to the tall and stout. They are good enough to be on intimate terms with the $75 merchant tailor kind.

HUNGARIANS TO BE ORGANIZED

The movement to organize the Hungarians of Chicago and vicinity, to teach Socialism, and familiarize them with ways and methods, by which shrewd politicians and labor bosses exploit them as strike breakers, etc., is gaining ground.

Following the decision of the Chicago Central Board and Petition conference to aid the movement, and an appeal published in the Daily Socialist yesterday, many have rallied to a fund that will be applied to this purpose exclusively.

The twenty-fifth ward branch of the Scandinavian Socialists is also assisting, besides the Ninth ward Jewish branch, the Ladies' branch of the Socialist party and others.

The following contributions have been acknowledged by the organizer:

MITCHELL NOT A CANDIDATE

John Mitchell is to retire April 1. For the first time he has definitely announced his determination to give up the office of president of the United Mineworkers of America. For several years it has been the wish for interested persons to announce Mitchell's retirement at the next convention, but the executive committee has declared the reports had no foundation in fact.

In this week's issue of the United Mineworkers' Journal, the official organ of the union, Mitchell announces that he will not be a candidate for reelection, giving ill health as the reason.

A few months ago Mitchell underwent an operation for a strangulated hernia and it is believed that no other operation will be necessary. Mitchell writes as follows:

"To the Officers and Members of the U. M. W. of A. Greeting: Calling for nominations are being sent out from the office of the secretary, and in order that all local unions and members thereof may be in position to express their choice for the office of president, I herewith announce that I shall not be a candidate for the presidency of your organization.

"I am prompted to arrive at this decision because I believe that I no longer believe well enough to give your interests the consideration their importance demands.

"I shall explain in greater detail in my annual report to our coming convention, but the reasons which impel me to give up the high office to which you have elected me for so many years.

"I thank you for the confidence you have reposed in me and I beg you to believe that the strongest of my efforts has been my highest ambition."

Mitchell's successor will probably be W. B. Wilson, secretary-treasurer of the organization. Last November Wilson was elected to congress and will take his seat at the coming session.

Mitchell has held the office of president of the United Mineworkers since 1898. His great popularity among the miners is a great credit to his due to his extreme democracy. To his associates and intimate friends he is known as "Jack."

Blue Island fans refused to be cut off from the ball scores by the telegraph strike so they resorted to carrier pigeons to carry the news of the game by innings.

On account of the strike by telegraphers Blue Island citizens were dependent on the wires to carry the glad tidings of the victory of the Cubs. Robert Krueger is a pigeon fancier and owns a number of birds. Accompanied by Mayor Gebert, City Clerk Homan, Alderman Harry Rohrbach and a number of friends, he took forty pigeons to the ball grounds yesterday and turned them loose at intervals of ten minutes to carry the news of the game to the waiting fans in Blue Island.

George England welcomed the birds on their arrival at the cote and read the return to the waiting crowd.

ROGERS IS WELL AGAIN

New York, Oct. 10.—H. H. Rogers, had of the Standard Oil company, who has been sojourning at his summer home in Fair Haven, Mass., most of the summer, and is expected in New York late today.

Dispatches from Fair Haven say that Rogers boarded his steam yacht Kanawka yesterday at noon and hurriedly sailed for New York, judging from the speed of his yacht, which was much greater than usual, it was inferred that Fair Haven that Rogers had been hurriedly summoned to New York for a consultation with the other Standard Oil officials, possibly in regard to the Kellogg investigation that is in progress here.

CONFERENCE MEETS

The regular session of the Moyer defense conference was well attended last evening.

Delegates from the United Garment Workers' Local No. 61 and the Thirty-fourth Ward Branch, Socialist Party, were seated. With the coming of the trials of the indicted members of the Western Federation of Miners renewed interest is shown. Many organizations are beginning to contribute money as they did when Haywood was on trial.

Reports and communications from all sections of the country showed a united front on the part of labor.

The conference is of the opinion that George Pettibone will be set free, but that the Western Mine Owners' association will try to hang Steve Adams.

Before the next meeting of the conference it is expected definite information as to the date for the Adams trial will be available. The conference then will dispatch a man to the west to report the case.

SCHOOL DAYS

Y. M. C. A. VS. MCKINLEY HIGH. The Y. M. C. A. of Oak Park will play an indoor baseball game with McKinley high this evening at 8 p. m. at the Y. M. C. A. Lake street and Oak Park avenue. There are promises of an interesting and exciting game.

Professor Ashley of the psychology department of the "Schoolmarm's Seminary" informed the students that he would mark them absent if he found them asleep during the recitation period. He says that they might be present bodily, but that they are certainly absent in spirit. "Perhaps (a word very frequently used by the honorable professor) the students would keep awake if Professor Ashley could accelerate his speech somewhat," said a sleepy pupil today.

The Chicago workers are catching hold for the "Lift Over the Turn" in good shape. All report their readiness to do something and a little more makes a large sum. Ed Peterson, Oak Park, sends a list with $150; Rudolf Rothman one with 90 cents; and Andrew Brown another with $1.

A DETENTION ROOM.

Well, here's something new. Lake has a detention room. Do you know what that is? It is not a dark and dreary dungeon that you read of in story books, but an ordinary classroom, room 27.

If any of the students are out the night before and come in without their home work, or try to have a little "honey" about the school, they are playing ball or orating in the recitation room, the teacher hands them a slip which entitles them to free lodging in hotel B 27 for a period ranging from fifteen minutes to one and a half hours after school.

The teachers take turns in the position of executioner. Of course they like the new system, since, as Miss Watson of the physical geography department expresses it, "instead of being forced to stay here every evening with a few delinquents, now we only stay one day a week after school."

Even the "cutting gym work," if there are any of the latter, are victims of this innovation. The "unfortunates" do the home work they are behind in and "then come" to keep them busy until they serve their time.

Among the instructors who have acquired a reputation as efficient jailers is Miss O'Neil. In fact, there is a movement on foot to petition the city council in regard to giving her a position at Sheriff Strassheim's "beautery" on the north side. The "jailbirds" promise that she will stop all this talk about the loose system at the county jail. Naturally, they'll breathe a trifle easier after she gets her new job.

It seems as if the "Jungle high school" had had its share of this kindergarten method of education, and they are organizing in an attempt to overthrow this regime. They are keeping their plans in the dark until the psychological moment.

Watch for some "big" doings.

CASSIE PASSES ON TO OTHER SHORES

Columbus, O., Oct. 11.—Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, the Cleveland, O., woman who was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment for bank wrecking, died at the Ohio penitentiary at 10:15 o'clock last night.

Mrs. Chadwick's last illness dated back three weeks, when she suddenly collapsed during an interview with her son, Emil Hoover. She was confined to a cot in the hospital of the women's ward from that time until her death. The physicians declared she was the victim of a total nervous collapse, described as neurasthenia.

By her high financing she secured over $1,000,000 from banks and relatives.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION MEETS.

Last evening school spirit ran high in Lake View. The athletic association met and elected managers for the different teams.

Devil, after being elected manager of the indoor baseball team, made a stirring speech to the effect of which the roster club almost raised the roof. He was followed by Kraus and Greenleaf.

The "red shirts" feel confident that their school will carry off the honors in basketball ball this year.

After the meeting enthusiasm was so great that it developed into which class could show it the most. The Juniors were the strongest in this particular, and as a result carried their colors to the front.

LAKE VIEW IS PLEASED.

All the students at Lake View High are pleased to see that the modest rural persons who attend that temple of learning—Jefferson High—are "boasting" the strongest in this particular, is that Jefferson is entitled to considerable boasting and should hand itself a bouquet at every opportunity. The debaters at Lake View are almost sorry they defeated the Jeffs last year.

All are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served. The following speakers are on the program: Prof. John R. Commons of the University of Wisconsin; Miss Margaret Haley, Teachers' Federation; Edward H. Goltz, National President Post Office Clerks. # LOVE OF INDIAN WADEN WOUNDED

Had Been Clandestinely Wedded When a Bullet Zipped Through His Arm

Denton, Tex., Oct. 10.—An elopement and marriage on horseback in the middle of the Red River, directly followed by a gunshot from ambush which wounded the bridegroom, was the experience of Joseph Anse, a Texas ranger, and Miss Annie Buntz, a Choctaw Indian girl. The bullet shattered Anse's left arm.

Anse had carried the Indian maiden for six months. Clandestine meetings followed the objection of her father to Anse. He did not want her to marry outside of her own race.

Anse and the girl fled on horseback at the junction of the Red and Kimitia rivers, performed the ceremony in mid-stream. The party wheeled their horses to continue on their way, when a rifle shot rang out and a bullet struck by the bridegroom's face and pierced Anse's arm. The rifle was fired from the woods on the river bank.

Quick as a flash the ranger whipped his revolver from its holster and fired into the woods near the spot where the flash was seen. Fearful lest the would-be assassin might be one of her tribesmen, the bride tugged at her husband's sleeve until he consented to gallop away to the nearest village, where Anse received surgical attention.

PANIC ON SHIP

New York, Oct. 10.—The Austrian steamer, Giulia, which arrived today from Trieste, had a panic among the passengers, had a narrow escape from destruction by fire in midocean during a violent storm on Oct. 3. The crew fought the flames all day before they were extinguished, while the panic-stricken passengers prayed for help.

Socialist News

The Socialists of Martins Ferry, O., held an enthusiastic convention, few in number, and nominated a full city ticket. George Harris was chosen as chairman of the meeting and William Rowlands acted as secretary. A committee composed of John Patterson, William Jenkins, George H. Harris and John Jones, met at large. Ed Parsons, Charles Feeterer, Ed Baehner, ward council, First, W. H. Harris; Second, Thomas Craig; Third, John Feederer; Fourth, Edwin Gowan; board of education, William Rowlands, Howard Jones and Newton W. Koff; assessors, Second ward, Fred Essler, Fourth, Mathias Hunker.

It is announced that the Socialists of Texarkana, Tex., will establish a weekly newspaper to be devoted to the interests of the Socialists of Texas, Arkansas and Oklahoma. The first issue will appear next week. The editor and publisher, Clark of Grand Saline, Tex., who will move there shortly. There will be several associate editors, among the number being J. C. Thompson, Texarkana; Mrs. Laura B. Cable, Fort Worth; and Mrs. Luella R. Cable, of Kansas.

The Twelfth ward branch of Chicago rises to object to the statement that the Twentieth ward is the largest in the city, and points to the fact that with forty-two members it has raised over $200 for the Daily, and at their last meeting they increased this by another $10 and secured an individual donation of $1 and pledges of $1.60 a month to the Sustainers' Fund. The Hustler editor absolutely refuses to be further implicated by expressing an opinion. If the paper is given space to explain where they are ahead, and a chance to even up any differences by additional hustling.

Who Pays for the Trust Conference

It has just been discovered that the Civic Federation junket to England for the purpose of "investigating" Municipal Ownership was paid for to a large extent by the Metropolitan Securities Company, commonly known as the "Traction Trust."

Not only was this money contributed by this company, but it was contributed in the same illegal manner as similar funds were furnished for the "yellow dog fund" by the great life insurance corporations.

This throws a bright light on the whole system of "investigations" by the Civic Federation. The principle that the purse controls will hold good here as everywhere else, and the fact that a few sincere "investigators" can be roped into lending their name to the unsavory mess only makes the matter worse.

The whole tenor of the report which was presented by the "Investigating Committee," in spite of the efforts of those members who were guided only by a desire to discover and publish the truth, was distinctly against municipal ownership.

All this raises another interesting question. There is to be a great "Trust Conference" in Chicago in a few weeks held under the auspices of this same Civic Federation.

WHO IS GOING TO PAY ITS EXPENSES? Will we find at some future day that this was financed by the Standard Oil Company, so many of whose officials are at present connected with the Civic Federation?

They may instruct their statement to investigate your woes. They'll tell you that each desert spot now blossoms like the rose. They'll tell you that we send abroad more goods than we receive. What honest statement tell you, of course you must believe.

Just what that master wishes it to do this time will probably become evident during the course of the "Conference."

The only thing that makes these actions of the Civic Federation of any effect is that it is always able to get a few sincere men of undoubted integrity, and a few labor leaders who have the confidence of the workers, and use these as a sort of shield of respectability behind which to carry on their work.

The First Year

On the 24th of this month the Chicago Daily Socialist will have completed its first year. Started only as a temporary experiment, without money, plant, organization, or subscribers, it has grown in these twelve months into the most powerful Socialist organ in the English language.

There have not been imprisonments or torture such as have been suffered by the workers of other lands. But there have been those who have given, and given again, of their necessities that this paper might be.

THE PAPER IS NOW HERE. THERE CAN NEVER BE ANOTHER YEAR CALLING FOR ANY SUCH EFFORT AS THE ONE THAT HAS JUST PAST.

There is a tremendous responsibility resting upon those to whom the thousands of owners all over the United States have entrusted their property. We have tried to be faithful to that trust.

Today it seems to us here that the battle is almost won. With but a few cents from each reader yearly, or but a few dollars from each stockholder, the magnificent investment will be saved and made more valuable with each passing month.

If the effort is not made at this time there will be nothing left for the annual meeting of the stockholders, on the 27th of this month, but to decide that the paper must stop.

The last few days have been filled with encouragement. The job plant will almost meet the deficit this week—to be sure, because of some exceptional work, but such work will soon become regular.

From every state in the union have come words of cheer and solid support. Yet there are thousands who will read this, who wish to see a Socialist daily, who are willing to help, who are able to do something, but have not yet responded to the call.

These few remaining days of the first year are for these to say what they wish to do. If they will come forward with even a very small contribution each, and a promise of something during the coming year, then the stockholders will have before them the assurance necessary to secure the continuance of the Daily.

What will be the response? The next two weeks will tell the story.

LET US GET THE DAILY ON A FIRM FOUNDATION THIS WINTER AND BE READY TO TURN OUR ENERGIES, MIGHTILY MULTIPLIED BY THAT SAME DAILY, INTO THE GREAT PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN OF NEXT YEAR.

ROCKEFELLER'S FINE. A short time ago Judge Landis of Chicago fined John D. Rockefeller $25,000 for accepting rebates on shipments of oil.

It is peculiar in every business transaction in the game of competition Rockefeller has simply won the prize, and those who are relying on that big fine have been and are still in the game with him and other successful competitors and they are merely beginning to realize that if something is not done, and quickly the "big fish will soon eat up the little ones."

These tiny hammocks and benches around the wall constitute the chief furniture of the living room. The benches are used to sit on, and are usually made wide enough for sleeping purposes, as in many instances they are all the bed the family has.

Ab important piece of furniture in every Doukhobor home, is the long table around which the family sit to eat, except when there are guests, when the "foreign visitor" dine before the family. The tablecloths are woven by the women, for the Doukhobors grow fine flax and cultivate sheep for domestic purposes. This enables them to do an excellent quality of weaving.

MUTTERINGS OF A MILLIONAIRE

By P. FINSTERBACH

We'll have our brokers in the pit, and on the curb as well. The pit, which some good people say, resembles that in hell.

We'll sell 'er long and sell 'er short, and sell 'er anyway. And sell 'er just to make a point, and lead some fools astray.

We'll hedge to make ourselves secure; about buy and sell on call. So when the prices take a slump, we're ready for the fall.

For the bucket shop and plunger, the scalper, bull and bear, will keep the prices up, now down, so's just to split a hair.

If some shall buck against our plan, nor recognize our coup; We'll let them in the header, and be tumbled in the soup.

Lo, we'll be sailing out of sight and things will come our way. We'll about buy to beat the band, that trusts have come to stay.

You may talk of drastic measures, to come from halls of state. Yet when the legislature meets, you'll find we've fixed the state.

It may appoint committees; a junket they may take. And land in Maine or Florida, and say, "It's all a fake."

They may instruct their statement to investigate your woes. They'll tell you that each desert spot now blossoms like the rose.

They'll tell you that we send abroad more goods than we receive. What honest statement tell you, of course you must believe.

And they have told you o'er and o'er, deny it if you can; That here you have as good a chance as any other man.

So what you workers need to do is follow my example, in public, preach the rights of man; in private justice trample.

THE OLD AND THE NEW. Little Johnny's father is a physician and his mother is a Christian Scientist. Recently the little boy was threatened with appendicitis.

"Father and mother won't let me talk slang, but when I told mother how sick I was she said, 'Forget it, and when I told father he said, 'Cut it out!'"

ADVERTISING PAYS. A Kansas man is convinced that advertising pays. He advertised for a lost $5 bill and a stranger who had picked one up in the streets read the advertisement and restored the bill to the advertiser.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN Edited by Marie Jayne

Home Life of Doukhobor Women turns in using them much as they might a face towel.

The women make all of the clothes and weave much of the cloth. Typical dress of the men consists of a shirt, jeans pants, and a cloth coat made like a blouse, with a full around when it is belted in.

The women dress as they did in Russia, and are slow to adopt modern customs. A white cotton garment, sometimes like a nightgown, serves for chemise and petticoat, and over this they put a plaid skirt which is hand-woven.

Few people pay more deference to the aged than the Doukhobors. The old men are consulted on all important matters of village life, and every respect is paid those who are too old to work.

The Baby By H. G. Creel. Well, howdy, stranger, howdy do? I low we're glad ter welcome you into this little home of ours.

Now, quit yer laughin', can't yer see I'm downright serious? You see me Air gold ter be ther best o' chums, Ther's joss ter livin' besides what some's A-tryin' ter prove, it ain't no drudge, Ner livin' in an endless smudge.

DREAM I OF THINGS

By ROSE PASTOR STOKES.

Here mid the numberless lakes, Here in the wild Adirondacks, Dream I of things that come To my soul as breath to my body;

Of the toiling men in the city, Who cover may see the sun As I see it, now, in its setting; Who never may beauty drink That is drawn from the hills at sunset;

Here mid the numberless lakes, Here in the wild Adirondacks, Dream I again of things, That is light and life to my spirit.

Of the toiling men in the city, Who cover may see the sun As I see it, now, in its setting; Who never may beauty drink That is drawn from the hills at sunset;

Here mid the numberless lakes, Here in the wild Adirondacks, Dream I of things to be In the not far distant future;

Why Not Tackle Socialism

It has been evident for some time that the ghost of Socialism is troubling the dreams of President Roosevelt.

If it is a menace, it is certainly an impending one. It is the belief of more people than any other political belief ever held by human kind. It has invaded the parliaments of the world to a greater extent than any other single political policy.

Surely here is something worthy the attention of the strenuous one. It is certainly of more importance than nature fakers, or race suicide, or any one of the half dozen subjects which he has settled off-hand during the past few years.

Moreover, if he can successfully refute the Socialist philosophy he will have accomplished a task that will place his name higher in the ranks of fame than any of his predecessors have been able to write theirs.

Roosevelt is a student, a man bred to books. He evidently believes the Socialist philosophy to be false, its program a menace to society. Why does he not refute that philosophy and show up the futility or foolishness of the program?

THE MONKEY HOUSE BY HENRY DVORSCHACK.

Manhattan Beach is a swell summer resort on the Long Island coast, not far from Coney Island, but far enough from the crowd, noise, and bustle of the latter well-known resort for the New York masses.

Manhattan Beach consists only of a very large and fine hotel, a bath house, and a summer theater. The prices are high, to permit none but the very wealthy to visit and stay at this place.

So only the exclusive set of New York patronize Manhattan Beach. As a precaution that no stray pebbles may break into their ranks, a gordon of Pinkertons guard the avenues leading to the hotel and beach.

TO MUCH FOR HIM

"I say," he said, speaking with much effort, "that I can't find any dress in the key of your pocket."

"Oh, William," she groaned, "have you been drinking?" He looked at her fixedly.

"I tell you I can't find any pocket in the dress of your key," he whispered. She began to shake him.

"What's the matter? What's the matter?" she asked in alarm. The shaking seemed to do him good, and he rubbed his eyes as if he were regaining consciousness.

"Wait a minute, he said, very slowly indeed. "Wait a minute. I can't find any dress in--no, I can't find any key in the dress of--no, that's not it--any--any pocket. There, there's it." A flood of light came into his face.

"Confound it, I couldn't find any pocket." Then he sat down and laughed hysterically, and his wife, wondering why in the name of goodness men raise such a row over finding the pocket in a woman's dress, went upstairs and came back with the key in two minutes.

SOCIALIST HOME BOOK TOMATO SOUP (CREAM). The juices from one can of tomatoes, three pints of milk, salt and pepper to taste.

STEWED CHICKEN. Take an old hen, cut it up and dip in egg and flour and fry until a light brown. Then put it into a cooking crock, cover with sweet milk to which a tiny pinch of soda has been added, cook until tender; season with salt and spices to taste.

For Home Dressmakers. This is a particularly smart little dress, and would look well in blue-and-white checked gingham with shield of contrasting material. It is also suitable for mohair or light-weight serge.

THE LAW OF FINANCIAL SUCCESS BY EDWARD E. BEALS. THE FIDUCIARY PRESS, CHICAGO, 103 PAGES, PRICE 2.00.

This book has sixteen chapters. Chapter one is devoted to "Money," and chapter sixteen to "Making Money." Between money and making money is a row of "Mental Attitudes," faith, ambition, will power, harmony, creativity, etc., etc., but not one word to show the real truth, viz. that there is but one way to "make money" and that is to get the power "to take" wealth that somebody else created.

Chapter fifteen, page ninety-one, says: "That which you need, and for which you are hungry, exists for you. Get it, and you are not robbing others when you seek for it and draw it to you." If every workman would get hold of this idea from a Socialist instead of a capitalist viewpoint, there would soon be something doing that was worth while.

In the last chapter the author gives away the whole scheme. He quotes a gentleman of middle age as follows: "I can never amount to anything or become real wealthy by merely working with my hands. The only way to make money is to compel money to work for me."

If one would get an accurate picture of how this deal, old system proposes to perpetuate itself, then order a copy of "The Law of Financial Success." If every Socialist would read it through he would have his energetic, creative, new and original, a crusade that would end the cruel waste of good printer's ink in printing such empty subtleties as the above book.

CHARLES BRECKON. SO IT SEEMS. The profound truth that tomorrow never comes and yesterday, although it is always passing, has never been with us, has led a correspondent to throw off this effort:

"Although yesterday today was tomorrow, and tomorrow today was yesterday, nevertheless yesterday tomorrow would be day after tomorrow, because today would be tomorrow yesterday, and tomorrow will be today tomorrow, or would have been the day after tomorrow yesterday." The Philgrim.
