

RED SPECIAL ADVICE GIVEN

Press Agent for Debs Train Tells Socialists How to Use Newspapers

BY OTTO McFELY (Special Press Representative on the "Red Special.")

This article was prepared in collaboration with C. T. Hallinan, of the Chicago Evening Post and Fiction Board, managing editor of the Daily Socialist.

Socialist party workers must learn how to make use of capitalist newspapers in their locality. This is especially important during the trip of the "Red Special."

Kearney of Johnstown Refuses to Pay Fine and Is Thrust Into Cell

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY SOCIALIST. Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 26.—Found guilty before Mayor Alex Wilson on charges of disorderly conduct and obstructing the highways, Thomas Kearney, the local Socialist leader, who is fighting for the right of free speech, refused to pay the $10 fine imposed upon him and was returned to the central police station to undergo a 10-day sentence.

ASKS FOR BURDEN OF SIN; GIBL HANDS HIM HER BABY

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 26.—At the close of religious exercises in the Union mission, while John Hutchinson of East St. Louis, Ill., was pleading with an audience to come forward to the mourners' bench and seek forgiveness for their sins, a girl, 20 years old, went forward, laid her month-old baby on the altar, denounced the exhorter, and fled.

HOLLAND DEFIED BY VENEZUELA

The Hague, Aug. 26.—The Netherlands government yesterday received an unofficial copy of the so-called note sent by Joseph de Jesus, the foreign minister of Venezuela, in connection with the difficulty between the two states.

LEGLESS NEWSBOY QUARRELS WITH MOTHER; ENDS LIFE

New York, Aug. 26.—Despondent because he believed he and his mother would never again be friends, Clifford Savage, 23 years old, a legless newsboy, committed suicide early yesterday by inhaling illuminating gas in his home at 52 East Twenty-first street.

PASTOR ARRAYS THE CHURCH IN LETTER; THEN MAILS SELF

New York, Aug. 26.—By Albert H. Trick, a former Chicago Presbyterian minister, killed himself yesterday in the Mills hotel here. He left a remarkable letter addressed to Charles N. Dow, who had befriended him.

PASTOR ARRAYS THE CHURCH IN LETTER; THEN MAILS SELF

Part of the letter follows: "I have never been able to conquer an inborn contempt for the place money has in this world, though knowing as well how absolutely a fair amount of it is at least necessary to all of us."

I took deeply to heart the teachings of Jesus, and tried hard and long to square my soul by them. I found at last what a awful mistake I had made

LAST OF TROOPS LEAVE CAPITAL

Seventh Infantry of Chicago Quits Springfield; People Are Still Restless

Springfield, Aug. 26.—The Seventh infantry, the last Chicago regiment to leave this city after the recent riots entrained today for Chicago at 7:00 o'clock this morning.

People Still Restless

"The people are still restless," said the sheriff last night. "I have given out all the warnings I am going to give. If a mob gathers the local militia men are coming and are going to shoot. There won't be any monkey business. My deputies—I can muster 300 of them if necessary—will shoot too."

BOYCOTT NEGRO LABOR?

Negro labor in Springfield virtually threatened with a boycott. Apparently on good authority it was reported today that white men employed in construction work for the street railway had refused to work with a negro recently returned to Springfield.

is printed by a crude press in a dark cellar under a bakery in Halsted street in Chicago. These Socialists are interesting and worthy of mention. It is one of the rules of the order to let the hair grow to a ridiculous length (see portrait of Debs), and when assembled the comrades must carry red flags and hurl imprecations and stones at the police.

New York, Aug. 26.—The fall of swinging 1,500,000 shares of stock in two hours and getting safely out from under might have been accomplished if Hercules had been reincarnated and taken into the firm of A. O. Brown, but this didn't happen, and the firm went under yesterday.

BIG SLUMP IN EXPORTS SEEN

New York, Aug. 26.—The lawyers for Captain Peter Hains, 77, and his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, who are awaiting the action of the grand jury for the murder of William E. Annis, made it possible for an interview with one of the chief witnesses at the forthcoming trial.

HOW TO "BREAK INTO" THE MAGAZINES!

There are hundreds of persons with more or less human intelligence who would gladly write for the popular monthly magazines for $1.00 a word, if they only knew how to write and what to write about. Below is a simple article, which never fails to make a hit with the magazine editor. No knowledge of the subject is necessary—just secure cut and paper and write.

What I Don't Know About Socialism!

BY N.E. DUBB.

Hypnotism, spiritualism and somnambulism have had their day and followers, but now a new cult has arisen from the depths of the lower classes. It is called Socialism. But like every other fad, this seeming evil first sprang into being during the recent money crisis last fall, when some of our foremost citizens justly closed their manufacturing and business establishments, throwing scores out of work and causing the discontent which formulated this so-called Socialistic doctrine.

Eugene V. Debs, a Millionaire Socialist

MIDNIGHT IN OFFICE OF "APPEAL TO REASON"

EDITED BY KARL MARX, A DANGEROUS AGITATOR!

After the election of Mr. Taft next fall, when prosperity again spreads her prophetic wing over this glorious land of freedom, this strange cult will lose its followers. It is intimated that those who do not lose interest in this un-American organization will be forced to give up their naturalization papers, for it is learned that the new act is comprised entirely of foreigners, who, coming from lands of despotism, do not understand the freedom, patriotic sentiment, etc., that prevails in the land of the "free and the home of the brave."

SOCIALISM IS BRYAN'S THEME

Points to Remarkable Party Growth, Then Blames G. O. P.

GIVES HIS REMEDY

Would Restore Era of Free Competition and Save "Individualism"

(SPECIAL TO THE DAILY SOCIALIST.) Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 26.—William Jennings Bryan has discovered that America has a dangerous and growing Socialist movement, and he blames the Republican party for it.

"The world 'Socialistic' is hurled at the Democratic party and the Democratic platform. Now, as a matter of fact, it is Mr. Taft's party and not the Democratic party which has given encouragement to Socialism."

"The Republican party has gone almost as far as the Socialist party in the economic defense of the monopoly, but it permits the benefits of monopoly to be enjoyed by comparatively few men who have secured a dominant influence in the government."

"I beg to call Mr. Taft's attention to the fact that the Republican party has stimulated the growth of Socialism in two ways: First, by the endorsement it has given to the theory that trusts are a natural and necessary outgrowth of our economic conditions, and second, by permitting the development of abuses which have been charged against individualism."

Says Socialist Vote Grows

"If he will examine the vote published in the World Almanac he will find in 1900 the Republicans polled 7,203,244 votes and that the Socialists polled but 28,840. In the same Almanac he will find that in 1904 the Republicans cast 7,625,489 votes and the Socialists 402,256. Notwithstanding the fact that the Republicans boasted of their last national electoral victory, the Socialist vote in 1904 was more than four times that of the Republican portion of the population, while the total vote increased more than 300 per cent, and the increase in votes was almost as great as the increase in Republican votes."

Republicans Indifferent

Having made these points, Bryan asserts his remedy, which is to abolish the Democratic party, believing that a free competition of past industrial stages.

"The Republican leaders have been in the habit of sneering at the Socialist, who is blind, and although a large number have contributed to the growth of Socialism. The Democrats recognize that Socialists are honestly seeking a remedy for the 'known abuses' admitted by Secretary Taft."

Wants Socialists' Aid

"Democrats dissent from the remedy proposed by the Socialists, believing that Socialists are mistaken and that the Democratic remedy is better, but it is time for the thoughtful people to recognize that individualism is only to be retained and defended by remedial legislation which will remove the abuses which have been allowed to fasten themselves upon the country."

Reassures Corporations

Having said all this, Bryan proceeds to assure the big corporations that he can root Socialism without hurting them.

"Let the issue be made plain," he says; "let the distinction be accurately drawn; let the respective positions be made plain; let the people be fully understood. The Democratic party does not oppose all corporations; on the contrary, it recognizes the value of the corporation."

LET 'ER GO, AS E. V. DEBS SAYS

Meaning of Phrase to Be Demonstrated at Socialist Picnic Sunday

'Let 'er go!' These words will be heard at the picnic grounds, and they will be uttered by Eugene V. Debs from the rear coach of the 'Red Special'.

Will Be Cheered by Thousands The engineer of the 'Red Special' will pull the bell cord, the whistle will give a shrill blast, Debs will have his arm, and the wheels will begin to revolve.

Never before in the history of the Socialist party have the Cook county Socialists had an opportunity to participate in such an important undertaking.

Debs will be preceded on the speakers' platform by A. M. Simon, who will talk on the 'Socialist Press'; James Brower, candidate for governor of Illinois.

Parents Are Too Poor We find that our doctors are well rewarded. But there are people whose children are allowed to go about the house with a little regard for sanitation as chickens have.

Must Not Miss It It is almost impossible to figure out how any Socialist can afford to miss the picnic, especially when the admission to the park, including the railroad fare, is only fifty cents.

KEEP THAT CRISIS AWAY

That Special Labor Day Edition is coming along almost as good as could be expected, but we won't argue that point now, for there is a more serious proposition to be brought to the attention of you Hustlers. Here it is:

The Hustlers do not work with any degree of uniformity. You get all wrought up over one thing, and consequently other affairs, which are equally as important, are neglected.

Such should not be the case. During the rush to boost that Labor Day Special the subscriptions have lagged behind. That $172.50, worth of Socialist books which are to be given away to the leading Hustlers should have called forth renewed energy on the part of the Hustlers, but it did not, and $18 represents the most money turned in by one Hustler for embs. during the month.

Will you do your part? When? The Hustler Editor is with you and does not want to dictate, but is trying to direct things in a way that will lift the Daily from the abyss of threatened suspension.

HERE IS THE NEW PLAN You want a bunch of the Labor Day Specials to distribute in your locality. There are several others who have the same wish. You do not feel able to buy a thousand, but would gladly 'chip in' to help get that number.

CUT OUT AND USE THIS We, the undersigned, contribute the amounts set down opposite our names to buy copies of the Chicago Daily Socialist's LABOR DAY SPECIAL for distribution in our community.

One Error to Me The Hustler Editor has erred. Think of it! James M. Finch of Rindelwood, Wis., sent in $1 for subs. and the H. E. got excited and credited it to me by the name of H. T. Cease. I guess I'll have to 'cease' this.

Nothing Doing

Nearly two weeks ago the following letter was sent to George Von L. Meyer, postmaster general of the United States:

Dear Sir: I wish to call your attention to an issue of the Free Lance of Birmingham, Ala., of August 10th, 1908, a part of whose headlines reads as follows:

"Deport El Hassassin and His Henchmen! "Death to the Guerrillas and Dynamiters Who Defy the State and Assassinate Citizens and Soldiers!"

The body of the article explains that the man who is to be deported is W. H. Fairley, a member of the national board of the United Mine Workers and that those who are to be killed are members of that organization. In view of a number of attempts of your department to discover alleged incitement to violence on the part of labor and Socialist papers I wish to ask if you propose to take any action with regard to a direct incitement to murder and violence, when the same is published in a paper maintained to defend the interests of the employing class?

Awaiting your reply, I am, yours very truly, A. M. SIMONS, Editor Chicago Daily Socialist.

Ample time has now elapsed for a reply, but none has been received. Nor is it probable that any ever will be received.

George von L. Meyer is too busy just at present asking workmen to vote for "Injunction Bill" to take any interest in an attack upon workingmen. During these speeches he will have much to say in criticism of the Democratic party. But he will say nothing about conditions in Alabama. Not even for the sake of taking votes from the Democrats will he prosecute the violations of the law by Democrats or even tell of their attempts to bring about the murder of union men.

The reason for this silence is found in the fact that BOTH THE REPUBLICAN AND THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY ARE ALLIED AGAINST THE WORKING CLASS.

"Friends"

The primaries recently held in Illinois, which were the first test of the "reward-and-punish" policy, developed some interesting features to which the trade unionists who took part do not "point with pride."

In all wards of the city there was a "regular organization ballot," backed by the machines of the old political parties. A study of the one issued by the Democratic party machine ought to show the workingmen of Chicago where their "friends" are NOT located.

There were a number of bona fide trade unionists on the Democratic primary ticket, men whom there is every reason to believe are sincere in their desire to work for organized labor. Many these have held union positions and have proven their devotion to union principles, so far as economic action is concerned. Such men were Stephen Sumner, John C. Harding, George J. Thompson, Daniel Cruise and several others.

NOT ONE GENUINE UNION MAN RECEIVED THE INDORSEMENT OF THE ORGANIZATION.

It is needless to say that the organization ticket was much more successful at the primaries than the one indorsed by the trade unions. Furthermore, what is true of the Democratic party is perhaps even more true of the Republican, in that every effort was made by the machine to defeat all men who seemed to be in any way entitled to be considered as genuine trade unionists.

THE SAME MACHINE WHICH SOUGHT TO DEFEAT UNION MEN AT THE PRIMARIES IS NOW BEING INDORSED BY UNION MEN AS THEIR "FRIEND."

Union men are asked to work for the success at the polls of the party which is controlled by a machine that succeeded in defeating nearly every real union man who was nominated.

Well might the union man exclaim, "Heaven save me from my friends, I can take care of my enemies myself."

Not This Year

An industrial crisis has always been looked upon in American politics as a bonanza for the party that was lucky enough to be out of power when it took place. Many a political campaign has been fought and won on the charge that the party in power caused the panic.

This argument was found in every Republican campaign book for years. It was the panic of 1894 that elected McKinley in 1896. It was the promise of the "full dinner pail," backed with descriptions of its empty character in 1894, that carried Roosevelt to victory in 1904.

When the crisis of 1908, that now bids fair to prove the worst that has ever been known, occurred, it was thought by many that this would be the "issue" of the coming presidential campaign. At first the Democrats seemed inclined to make much of the first "Republican panic." Then all discussion of the subject disappeared from campaign literature, and today, in the very heat of the political struggle, scarcely a word is heard concerning this subject.

Both Republicans and Democrats saw that the fact that crises took place under either of these parties proved that the cause was something BEYOND POLITICAL QUARRELS.

Moreover, there has grown up a gigantic Socialist literature explaining the true cause of crises. The Socialist had pointed out that crises took place not only under Democrats as well as Republicans, but under kings as well as under emperors or presidents; that in fact they ALWAYS CAME WITH REGULAR RECURRENCE UNDER CAPITALISM.

To speak of crises in this campaign, therefore, was but to call attention to the only party that offered any intelligent explanation of their coming and going.

Neither political party can afford to make an "issue" out of the crisis question again.

Considerate Guest—"I see you have counted up my bill wrongly—fourteen marks, instead of thirteen." "Walter! Well, I thought perhaps you might be superstitious," Meggendorfer blurted. "You'll contribute to the campaign fund, of course?" "Not this year," replied the insurance magnate. "You see, the only money I have at command now is my own."—Philadelphia Ledger.

NOT A RAY OF SUNSHINE

BY R. H.

It had been an imperfect year for Mr. Smyth, but it would be a hard year indeed that frowned continuously, and at Sunshine, for the first time, the sun had finally shone upon him. The shine had revealed itself, singularly enough, in a railway tragedy—the very worst Victorian smash. Mr. Smyth was not smashed, but he was shocked and bruised, and that, to a man of enterprise and resource, with little to do but catch flies in his city office, was better than nothing. Mr. Smyth had duly notified the commissioners, and now, well wrapped up and his face touched with artistic white, sat in his flat and awaited the arrival of the commissioners' representative.

"Where am I?" he asked. "Where was I?" "You were supposed, sir?" "Ah, yes, I suppose it will be necessary to give some idea of my income during the last three or four years?" "That's just what I want, to get at," said the visitor, taking out his pocket-book and blinking as the smoke came into his eyes. "Roughly speaking," said Mr. Smyth, in a weak voice, "I've been making three thousand a year—perhaps more." "Perhaps less?" "No less," said the invalid, with sudden vehemence, "not a penny less."

"Very well," said the little man, cheerfully, making an entry in his pocket-book; "not a penny less, then." "Besides that, there have been various odd affairs that have brought in money. Suppose you say four thousand?" "Four thousand," repeated the visitor, as he made the correction. "I've often had money left me at various times," went on Mr. Smyth, with fine exaggeration, "running into, say, about five or six thousand a year. Suppose we say five thousand in all?" "By all manner of means, sir."

"My name," said the jovial man, in a forced whisper, "is Marsden. I've called at the commissioner's direction, to make some inquiries." "I know," said Mr. Smyth, feebly, "this is a terrible thing; this accident." "Most deplorable, sir." "Personally," said Mr. Smyth, speaking with a great effort, "I'm—I'm a physical wreck. Mentally, I'm an extinct volcano."

"Dear, dear, dear!" said the breezy man, clicking his tongue, "is it so bad as that?" "It's worse," sighed Mr. Smyth. "And what compensation, sir, did you think of asking, I wonder?" "Take a cigar," said Mr. Smyth, desolately. "I shall never smoke again; you'd better take both of them."

"MARY AND HER LITTLE LAMB"

THE MAN WITH THE RED TIE

BY FLOYD DELL

"Why do you wear that red necktie?" "Because that's a habit of mine—wearing red ties," I replied. "It gives you a shock to see me wear it? Good! That is the very reason why I am doing it. I believe it is good for you to be shocked a little sometimes, otherwise you would stagnate and perish. The red tie is a symbol, you understand. It means revolt. You say people mustn't wear such things; so I go and do it."

Interesting. When we learn that he collects butterflies or writes poetry, we are little reconciled. We feel sure that his brain is as dead as his butterflies and that his poetry would put us to sleep. A man who does not believe anything cannot do anything. But he who wears red ties from the pure joy of it can conquer the world. The others look anxiously about for some new pleasure. He forgets how hard pleasure is to get, and has the best fun in the world. They eat, drink and are cynical for tomorrow they die. He works, swears, and laughs at failure, for tomorrow is the co-operative commonwealth.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

An Annotated Poem

Lowell's "The Coming Crisis" BY AGNES H. DOWNING

It is profitable to pause and consider the influence of any work that makes for the freedom of men. Working for liberty is setting in motion a new force in the universe. However small it may appear, however restricted the sense in which it is applied, it has within itself the dynamism that makes it a world force.

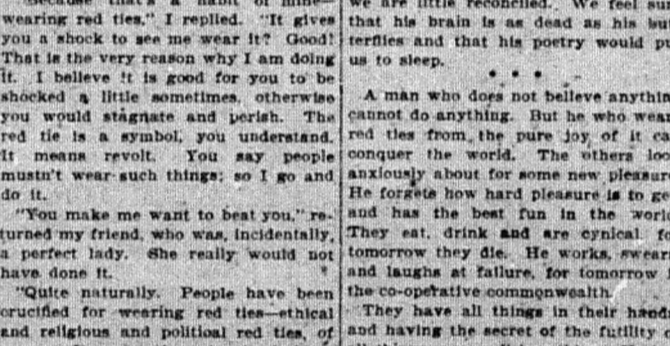

err. They mistake magnitude for power. The tiny, purring, running brook has more potency for good than the broad waters of the Dead Sea, for this sea is stagnant and holds in its depths decayed organisms.

Blueberry Jam A novel preserve is made by washing, weighing and thoroughly draining fresh ripe blueberries, adding to every pound of berries half a pound of sugar and half a navel orange sliced thin, skin and all. Cook till it is a thick jam, stirring constantly to prevent burning.

Socialist Cook Book Butter-milk Cake Two-thirds of a cup of butter, two cups of sugar, yolks of three eggs, one cup of sour buttermilk, whites of three eggs, three cups of flour, containing three-quarters of a teaspoon of soda. Mix in the order given.

For Home Dressmakers

LADIES' SIXTEEN-GORED SKIRT. PA 18 PATTERN NO. 284. ALL SEAMS ALLOWED.

Attend This Meeting All women interested in the work being done by the Socialist women of Chicago should attend the meeting to be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at 189 Washington street.

Attend This Meeting CARRIE JOHNSON TRILLER, Local secretary for the National Socialist Womens' Committee.

Attend This Meeting The choice given us is always an opportunity; each generation has one great work to do. That is its use in the economy of time. Alexander was not the only youth who would stay the hand of his father that possibilities might be left for himself.
