

SOLOMON TRAITOR TO HIS CLASS

Senator McEnergy Exposes Corruption of American Capitalistic Regime

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11.—"This is the most corrupt government on the face of the earth except China and Russia," said Senator Samuel Douglas McEnergy of Louisiana, in tones so emphatic as to startle and attract the attention of all the passengers in a club car on the New Orleans south-bound express of the Southern railway on Sunday morning, March 7, as that train was speeding through the Carolinas. The senator did not make the statement hastily or without thought, but deliberately weighed his words and made no attempt to conceal his opinions from his fellow passengers.

Not a Spring Chicken

Senator McEnergy is not a spring chicken, either. Being seventy-two years of age, he is known a few things. As a lieutenant in the confederate army he learned much, as a lawyer, more; as a governor of Louisiana, still more; but most as a seasoned politician when he entered the United States senate. While acquiring his education he was a student at Spring Hill College, Mobile, Ala., the United States Naval Academy, at Annapolis, and the University of Virginia, where he graduated from the National Law School of Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Politically he was successful in being elected to the lieutenant governorship of Louisiana and to one term as governor. Twice he was elected for the latter office and in 1888 he was appointed to be an associate justice of the state supreme court, which he held for twelve years. He was elected to the United States senate in 1897, and has served continuously in this capacity since.

Is Senator of Standing

The standing of this veteran senator with the powers that be is best illustrated by his committee appointments in the senate, an unflattering barometer of the favors and pulls a member is able to procure, and it should be taken into consideration that McEnergy labors under the additional handicap of being a Democrat. Despite all this, he is a member of the senate "steering committee." Besides being chairman of the committee on the transportation of meat products, he also has appointments as a member of eight other committees, as follows: Census, fisheries, Mississippi river and the tributaries, naval affairs, private land claims, trade and commerce, quarantine, public lands and national banks.

Foresees Social Upheaval

It is significant when a conservative United States senator as Burrows of Michigan predicts early developments of a radical character in social and political life. He is quoted as having recently said: "We are moving slowly, perhaps, but surely, as I see it, toward a complete democracy. Naturally the demagogue finds the time most propitious for his business. He is shrewd and wears better clothes than he used to, and consequently he is a good deal more dangerous. As he always has a case of big game and character, he is unscrupulous and entirely selfish. Men skilled in the work of legislation and experienced in public matters—cautions, patriots and honest—are being displaced here and there by those who are without training and are actuated by no better motives than to get jobs from the government.

Kill Interstate Commission

One of the ways in which Taft is to enforce the law and the constitution is by the abolition of the interstate commerce commission. This body, which ceased to exist for some years for several years of the Roosevelt regime, is to be relieved of its tickling power and will become simply an advisory body with no executive powers whatsoever.

Department of Commerce and Labor

The department of commerce and labor, headed by Charles Nagel, for many years a Standard Oil attorney, is to have charge of the collecting of evidence and handling of complaints against the railroads. When these have been sifted down such cases as this department in its wisdom sees fit to hand over to the interstate commerce commission will be laid before the senate for its consideration, but which will have no power to enforce its sentence. It will be compelled to call any delinquency in this respect to the attention of the department of justice, which will be supposed to prosecute, but which will probably prove harmless, as the head of this department, Attorney General Wickham, is a New York corporation lawyer.

PREACHER STARTS RAIN WITH PRAYER; ENDS IT THE SAME

Bokehoma, Ok., March 15.—Like Moses of old, calling down judgments on the land of Pharaoh, Rev. Charles Ford, a Holiness preacher, publicly called down a plague on Bokehoma in the form of a drought. That was six months ago, and since then there has been a drop of rain has fallen here until Saturday, when the minister prayed for the drought to end. The remarkable prayer was made after Rev. Mr. Ford had denied a sum of money which he claimed as back pay from the Frisco Lumber company. During the drought business was paralyzed and hundreds of men moved their families in arduous way to other parts of the state. Mr. Ford's congregation at Bokehoma is small, and in addition to his clerical duties the minister worked at the mill of the Frisco Lumber company. Last September the pastor quit work at the mill, asserting that he had not received all the wages due him. He then denounced his irascible of asking the lord to withhold rain from this locality indefinitely.

POST'S POSTUM ROBBING COWS

Breakfast Near-Foods Cause Rise in Milk by Stealing Bossie's Dinner

At last the dread secret is out. The reason why the milk trust is forced to milk the American people as well as the cow is because the American people are robbing the cow of her breakfast by purchasing "Yell-out-loud," "Brain-o" and Sawdust-o" from Charles Post's Battle Creek emporium of antagonism to labor and the working-man.

Almost-Edibles to Blame

Listen to the delicious report of a dairymen from central Illinois, who deprecates the robbing of the cow in order that the American people become popular by means of sign boards. "The high prices of dairy products is due almost entirely to the increased cost of feed for cattle, and the increased cost of cattle feed is due to the fact that the American people are robbing the cow. Nearly every family is eating breakfast foods and other prepared foods every day which are made from cattle feed. For bran, middlings, corn, etc., in the form of breakfast foods, the people are paying from five to ten cents per pound, while we formerly paid one-half cent per pound for the same substances for cattle feed. Is it any wonder that farmers will not sell their grain for the prices of ten years ago when patent food concerns are willing to pay two or three times as much?"

Craze Raises Bran Price

"The craze for patent foods has created a new and additional market for grain at a price higher than the cattle raiser can afford to pay, and he has consequently been compelled to raise the price of his products. As long as the appetite of the American people continues to crave increasing degree patent grain foods, I see little reason for expecting that grains will sell at much lower figures than at present. It means that the price of milk, butter and cheese will not be materially lower."

DECLARES CITY SLIGHTS HEALTH

Dr. Evans Says Superannuated Policemen Get a Bigger Appropriation

The city of Chicago devotes twice as much of its annual taxes to the care of superannuated policemen as it does to the protection of the health of the municipality, declared Health Commissioner Evans in an address before the men's meeting at the Central Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon.

LABOR LEADER IS IMPROVED

PARIS MAY HAVE GENERAL STRIKE

Keymen Are Out; Government Is Drastic and Irrefutes Employes

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY SOCIALIST, Paris, March 14. The strike situation in this city, already threatening because of the strike of the Rhotypists, the railway workmen on the Nord Sud railway, the auto cab drivers, and the general workers, has become the fund more serious. A general strike of all postal and telegraph and telephone employes is now imminent, with the result that the mail, telegraph and telephone service of the city and country will be completely paralyzed.

City Completely Isolated

The local telegraph operators are already out. The city was completely isolated for four hours last Saturday in consequence, and the service rendered now by the military operators is only partial and very ineffective.

Every Assembly Called Riot

Every assembly of strikers is being called a riot and a mob, and reported through the capitalist press to the outside world. The strikers when they meet at all are compelled to meet in secret, and even these meetings are "rioters," when discovered by the detective force of M. Lereau. They also are broken up and leaders arrested.

Many Strikes in Other Lines

Co-incident with the strikes in Paris disquieting news comes from the provinces. The employes of the gas companies, the electricians and other Norman towns. At Brest three hundred cloth workers have walked out in protest against a twenty per cent cut in wages.

BOODLER IS TOO FAT FOR PRISON

Jefferson City, Mo., March 15.—Mett W. Hall, warden of the penitentiary, admits that he has a hard problem to discover some means of handling Louis Decker of St. Louis, former member of the house of delegates, who was prosecuted and convicted of hoodlumism and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years.

HARRIMAN STRONGER THAN EVER, SAYS GEORGE J. GOULD

New York, March 15.—E. H. Harriman is stronger than ever, according to George J. Gould, in an interview published here today. "I admit Mr. Harriman," declared the head of the Missouri Pacific system, "and I admire his courage. For four years the government devoted all its energies to attacking him and he stood his ground practically alone."

SHE DOES SEEM A TRIFLE BLIND, DOESN'T SHE?

COFFEE DELUGES UNITED STATES

Gamblers of the Trade Rush Imports to Save $39,000,000 in Duty

New York, March 15.—Nearly one-third of all the coffee in the world is in New York today. The vast warehouses that line the harbor's edge are jammed high with millions of bags—hundreds of thousands of tons. A dozen great steamers, coffee laden to the Pilsnail mark, are plowing their way northward through the 1,000 miles of dark ocean that stretches between the coffee coast of Brazil—away south of "the line" at the other side of the world—and Sandy Hook.

Steamers Loading in a Hurry

At Rio and Santos half a dozen more steamers are loading with coffee for New York. They are loading leisurely, as they generally do in those hot and humid harbors, whose chief exports are coffee and the yellow dye. All day long, under the brazen tropic sun, and all the night through, stevedores' whistles are shrilling and snipe cranes are creaking as they spin up from the piers and lighters alongside and drop into the gaping hatchways tons and tons of coffee. Other fleets of steamers are hurrying southward from New York for more. Never before has there been so much coffee stored here as now or so much loading and unloading at one time.

All this is because of the belief among the great coffee merchants and the great coffee gamblers of the world that the United States congress, which has decided upon a tariff of 40 cents a pound on coffee, has entered this country free of duty. The guesses as to the amount of this import vary. Some importers say that it will be 3 cents a pound, others assert that it will not be less than 5 cents.

Millions in Balance

Millions of dollars tremble in the balance on the outcome. There are nearly 5,000,000 bags of coffee in storage in New York and on the sea bound hither. If a duty of 4 cents a pound is decided upon, it is quite possible that the quantity will be increased to 7,500,000 bags. A bag of coffee weighs 132 pounds. Seven and a half million bags would weigh nearly a billion pounds—$60,000,000 to be exact, or $45,000,000. This would be enough to fill 22,500 freight cars, which is more rolling stock than any except a great railroad possesses. The saving in duty on this tremendous amount of coffee, if it were all landed here before the new tariff went into effect, would be $23,600,000.

90 PER CENT OF CHICAGO PEOPLE NEED MORE MONEY

is Pilgrim Congressional church Sunday the Rev. Frederick E. Hopkins said: "What 90 per cent of the people of Chicago need is more money. Most of them are entitled to it because they earn it. In the last ten years the expenses of living have increased 75 per cent and salaries about 15. This gap between expense and income is not fair, or just or right. All the ministers and evangelists in the world can never fill our churches until the churches bring their tremendous influence to bear in breaking up an cruel and unjust state of affairs which is the result of ignorance, indifference, ignorance or selfishness."

STABS HUSBAND FATALLY AS HE OFFERS HER A KISS

While attempting to kiss his wife, whom he believed to be asleep, James Gibbons was stabbed early today by a butcher knife thrust deep into his breast, he staggered downstairs to a flat below his apartment and aroused Mrs. Katherine Richey, who drew out the weapon. Then Gibbons fell unconscious. He was taken to the Alexian Brothers' hospital.

LOS ANGELES EX-MAYOR FLEES

District Attorney Calls Jury to Investigate Earl's Conduct in Case

Los Angeles, Cal., March 14.—Ex-Mayor Harper is reported to be in flight from the city in a large automobile and his to be counsel dumfounded at such a special grand jury to find out why E. T. Earl, editor of the Express, who exposed Harper, has failed to furnish the state with the necessary proof of Harper's official misconduct.

Special Jury to Investigate

After a consultation with the judge of the superior court, District Attorney Fredericks decided to call a special grand jury to investigate the "deal" by which Earl refrained from revealing what he knew about Harper on the consideration of Harper's resignation from the mayoralty. With Harper dethroned, Earl became a "reformer" boss of this city. Earl in the Express announced that he had directed the investigation which had forced Harper's resignation. Earl has not given the state this evidence, even failing to do so before the grand jury which though honoring Harper bitterly, failed to indict him. He has stated that he, promise, never to divulge it. "Commissioner" and chief of Police Broadbent resigned under the lash of the evidence which Earl declared he had gathered against them.

Compounding Felony Charged

Failure to give the state the information, District Attorney Fredericks says, is compounding a felony. The city council is also due tomorrow to appoint a mayor to fill Harper's unexpired term, whatever that may be determined to be. None of the candidates, except Alexander, the recall candidate, is willing to accept the place. It is to last only until the date of the next election, March 25. It is believed that whoever is appointed will be named "to fill the unexpired term," and then the fight will come in the election when the successful candidate tries to take office. The mayor will hold his seat until the matter is thrashed out through injunction suits, which will double the city business for a long time. Harper was reported last night to have fled northward, being seen passing through Santa Barbara in an automobile. His destination is unknown even to his legal advisers, who were dumfounded by his resignation.

200,000 OF N.Y. LABOR JOBLESS

Penury Grips Gotham; Savings of the Idle Fade as Their Woe Grows

New York, March 15.—At least 40 per cent of the members of the labor unions in New York City are unemployed at the present time, according to Herman Robinson, general organizer of the American Federation of Labor. The latest report of the state department of labor gives the membership of the labor unions in this city as 290,000. According to Robinson there then are at least 116,000 union men out of work in the city. Of the homeless men the above figures are, under ordinary conditions, about 30,000. From such meager facts as may be collected the total number of New York's unemployed is more than 200,000.

Business Depression Only Cause

That the cause of the astonishing number out of work at the end of 1908 is not due to strikes or sickness, but rather to a depression of business, is represented by the following table:

Astounding Number Seek Charity

The number of families applying for assistance to the Association for the improvement of the condition of the poor for the last six months is 50 per cent more than for the corresponding months of a year ago. In the three months, November, December, and January, 500 almsbodies men, willing and anxious for work, came to this society for aid. The year previous only nineteen such requests were received.

Savings Fade; Policies Lapse

The savings banks in the poorer sections of the city report extraordinary losses in recent months. The actuary of one of the largest insurance companies says: "As compared with the season of 1907, the losses for the season of 1908 have increased thus far over 75 per cent, while the number of lapsed policies has increased to more than 50 per cent. The above figures speak for themselves and prove conclusively that the holders of the smaller policies are gravely affected by the present hard times. This condition is general among the insurance companies.

New Worst in Twelve Years

In this connection one magistrate said today: "My experience is that there is more stress among the worthy poor now than at any time in the last twelve years. I have committed, chiefly at their own request, more decent men to the workhouse than I have before in any two years of my term as magistrate." Mrs. F. Dreier, president of the "Women's Trade Union League," said today: "This year the distress among the women workers has been greater than ever before. It is pitiful. The savings banks have been exhausted, and the relief fund is added a woman's constant dread of sickness. Manufacturers do not now lay in large stocks which will keep them through a busy season. They have been exhausted in a few days and then are dismissed. This is true in all branches of garment making. This high tension is making the women of New York physical and nervous wrecks. It is a deplorable condition of affairs."

IN WAR PACT WITH MEXICO

United States Agrees With Diaz to Gobble Up Central American Nations

NOW READY FOR ACTION

Renewal of Strife Gives Excuse to Carry Out Plan of Yankee Capitalists

"The overseers on the tobacco plantations of the Valle Nacional—a valley in the hot lands of the Mexican isthmus—told me that 'contract laborers' were not expected to live more than twelve months at the work, and that the price per head for these men and women had risen in the last two years, being now as high as $50 a head. It is to add to this diminishing supply of peons, or, to speak frankly, slave labor, that President Porfirio Diaz has at last made public his secret pact with certain United States officials to attempt a division of the Central American republics, annexing to Mexico Guatemala and Honduras and passing over to the United States Nicaragua and Salvador."

Keeps Patriots in Jail

"And all this makes plain why Diaz is so hot upon the trail of the Mexican patriots who fled for their lives to this country and are now either in prison or in hiding for fear of arrest on trumped-up charges made by Mexican government agents. The success of the proposed plans of Diaz to annex more slavery territory to southern Mexico and to increase his army upon the plea of war with Honduras and Guatemala all depends upon keeping in prison the Mexican patriots.

Palmer Brutally Frank

"In these articles Palmer, with most extraordinary frankness, stated: "I heard one old resident estimate that the execution of 30,000 men stood to Diaz's account. Such is his power that a score of malcontents may be shot without anybody except their neighbors being the wiser. Self interest makes every foreign resident a Diaz man. Every promoter of any great industry welcomes a single head rather than many heads to deal with. Thus all outsiders support the despotism. (Chicago Tribune, February 22.)

Hurts American Unionists

"To sum up the whole situation," concluded Mr. Murray, "the plans of Diaz and his foreign capitalist friends are to maintain and widen the zone of slave labor in Mexico and hold this cheapest of cheap labor as a club over all attempts on the part of organized labor in the United States to raise the standard of living."

Manila, P. I., March 15.—Local seismographs recorded serious earthquakes continuously from 1:25 to 9:40 o'clock this morning. It was estimated that the region of disturbance was 4300 miles distant.

"ERROR PREVAILS ON SHIP AS IT DODGES ON ICEBERG

Philadelphia, Pa., March 15.—"Tower" icebergs caused consternation on board the British steamship Tamaroa when the vessel was several hundred miles off the Grand Banks on March 3. The Tamaroa arrived from Shields. It was 200 miles northeast of Cape Race when the lookout reported icebergs ahead. From latitude 47.30 to 48 north and longitude 48 to 51 west the steamer picked its way through fifty icebergs.

STEEL TRUST IN GIANT CONTRACT

Plans Two-Million Dollar Enterprise in Mesaba Iron Ore Region

(SPECIAL TO THE DAILY SOCIALIST.) Duluth, March 15.—The United States steel trust has let contracts here which call for the cutting of more than $2,000,000 in the iron ore districts on the Mesaba range.

The program of the trust includes the removal of several million cubic yards of overburden from the Leonard, Chisholm, Clark, Glen, Monroe-Tener, and other properties between Hibbing and Chisholm. When the work is completed there will be an immense open pit extending from the Pillsbury mine to the Monroe-Tener, more than a mile long.

GAVE HIS LIFE FOR ROOSEVELT

Rome, March 15.—According to a statement telegraphed from Naples the mission of Joseph Petrosino, the New York detective killed Friday night at Palermo, was to protect ex-President Roosevelt from an intended attempt on his life during his forthcoming visit to Italy.

of Petrosino, who, he says, traveled in his company from Rome to Naples, when they had a confidential conversation. De Robertis says that Petrosino did not go to Sicily in connection with criminal emigration, but for the purpose of watching a batch of emigrants who recently returned from New York, some of them being escaped convicts, who it was suspected were aiming at Roosevelt's life either when he was in Naples or during his proposed short stay in Taormina.

GREAT MOVE ON FOR FREE SPEECH

Industrial Workers of the World Defy Street Injunction in Spokane

(DAILY SOCIALIST CORRESPONDENCE.) Spokane, Wash., March 15.—Following the arrest of about 50 members of the Industrial Workers of the World for holding street meetings, and the sentencing of six of them last Saturday to 90 days in jail and imposing a fine of $100 each, the central executive committee of that organization has issued a general appeal for support from the working class.

Constitutionality of Ordinance

Several hundred members of the Industrial Workers of the World, which is particularly strong in this section of the country, volunteered to test the constitutionality of the ordinance, and the city authorities weakened. The chief of police notified the executive officers of the Industrial Workers of the World that their propaganda meetings would not be interfered with.

Discharged Men in Demonstration

A crowd gathered in front of the employment office, and for a while contented itself with jeering. But soon the crowd became bolder. Some bricks were thrown through the windows of the office, and the police appealed to an organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World to assist in quieting the crowd, which he did. He succeeded in getting the crowd away from the place.

Organizations Defy Injunction

The Industrial Workers of the World, the Salvation Army and the Volunteers of America decided to defy the injunction of the police, and the next day Organizer Walsh of the Industrial Workers of the World and one officer of each of the two religious organizations were arrested and fined $100 in the police court. The Industrial Workers of the World kept up the fight, which resulted in 30 of their number being arrested.

Stockholders!

All stockholders of the Workers' Publishing society who have made partial payments on stock of this company, have failed to keep up their payments and have not made any payments since Jan. 1, 1909, are hereby requested to resume payments on or before March 31, 1909, or to donate the payments which they have made to the Daily Socialist.

Shoots at Men Looting Safe

RACKED WITH HUNGER, AGED MAN SEEKS POLICE AID

(SPECIAL TO THE DAILY SOCIALIST.) Ansonia, Mont., March 15.—Feeble from age and hardship, hungry and penniless, John Henley, 66 years old, sank into a chair at the Butte city jail and, with the story he told, opened wells of sympathy in the hearts of the case-hardened officers who are daily listening to tales of woe. But this was different, and the pity of his plight brought the venerable man bounty of which he had not dreamed.

RED HAMBURGER STEAK A DANGER

Health Officials Find Rotten Meat, Treated With Sulphite, to Be a Menace

Beware of the rich, red hamburger steak. The health department has found sulphites in it, and the purveyors of the succulent dish, when smothered in onions, may find other kind of fights in it, before the health department gets through with certain city butchers.

Things and Things in Hamburger

Hamburger is a very difficult thing for the health department to handle. The reason is that an analysis of the make-up of a hamburger steak is a thing to daunt the most scientific chemist.

Red Color Danger Signal

The food inspectors have again submitted numerous samples of hamburger steak to the laboratory for chemical examination, and practically in every instance, large quantities of sulphites were found. Why is it necessary to add sulphites to hamburger steak? It imparts to the meat a rich red color. Very frequently this color is so deep that it becomes at once suspicious. We infer that this chemical is added to preserve meats that are already partially decomposed for a few days longer or until they can be sold to the consumer.

HEINZE INDICTED; HAS TO GIVE BAIL FOR $50,000

New York, March 15.—Additional proceedings against F. Augustus Heinze, former copper king, have been commenced. It is said that the federal grand jury. It is the general belief that some of the evidence obtained during the trial of Charles W. Morse, convicted banker, was presented to the jury. Heinze was indicted about a year ago for the over-certification of a draft drawn by his brother, Otto C. Heinze, on the Mercantile National bank. The draft called for approximately $450,000. Heinze was released on $50,000 bail.

May Extradite New Yorker

BOSSSES TRY TO FORCE A STRIKE

Contractors Join Hands With Trades Lock Out

The capitalist papers of Chicago and a few contractors, it seems, are in a conspiracy to force a strike or a lock-out of the building trades unions, using the present strike of the layers as an excuse. The contractors are furnishing the lies to stir up public sympathy and some of the newspapers are publishing them.

Much Better to Strikers

It is stated by officials of the union that they consider it much better for the strikers that other trades remain at work in order that the strikers may have work after they conclude their fight with the contractors.

The repertoire is as follows: Monday and Saturday nights, "Hamlet"; Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights, "Richard III"; Friday night and Saturday night, "The Merry Wives of Windsor." In addition to Mr. Sothern's portrait gallery, it is said to show the actor in the "allness of his power. The role has long been Sothern and desired to play, as it was the first role he ever played in as a young actor in John W. Colburn's company. During Mr. Sothern's engagement the curtain will rise at 8 and 2 o'clock daily.

Ada Lewis, a character actress elevated to a stellar position in a new play by Edward W. Townsend and Frank Ward O'Malley, entitled "The Head of the House," made her debut in the Grand Opera house last night. While Messrs. Townsend and O'Malley are also newcomers in the dramatic field, Townsend has long been held in esteem as the author of "Chimble Fadden," and O'Malley's reputation is founded on much clever newspaper work. These authors are waiting upon the "Miss Lewis" use a "comedy of the kitchen," as they term it. The story has to do with a phase of New York politics and typical New York characters.

Beginning with a matinee yesterday, "The Heir to Hoorah," Paul Armstrong's popular comedy of western mining town life, will be the bill in the Great Northern, where it will remain for a week. Frank Burke occupies the role formerly played by Guy Bates Post as Joe Lacy, the mine owner. Malvina Morel, Florence Coventry, C. C. Quimby, and John A. Alexander are others in the cast.

"The Boy and the Girl," which is called a "song show without a plot," will come to the Whitney Opera house next Saturday night. It is Richard Carl's most recent output, and he has prepared it with the assistance of H. L. Hines, the "Broadway" dramatist. It was written for an amateur society in Boston, and played there for a week last winter. It is one of two plays of his own writing in which he did not devise a part for himself. The company will include Harry and Madeline Berger, Jeanne Towler, Georgia Harvey, Eddie Garvie, Le Kohlmar, Burrell Barabretto, Toby Lyons, George E. Mack, and Felix Pantua. Gus Solike has coached the company. Big Event in Theatricals

Of the new plays that come to Chicago this week the chief event in theatrical circles is the coming of E. H. Sothern to the Garrick tonight for a two weeks' season with a classic repertoire. Other new plays which open up here this week are "The Head of the House," in which Miss Ada Lewis is to be introduced as a star in the Grand Opera house and "The Boy and the Girl," to be given in the Whitney opera house next Saturday night.

Mr. Sothern's engagement in the Garrick, commencing tonight, will present that actor in plays connected with the classic history of the drama.

Mr. Sothern's engagement in the Garrick, commencing tonight, will present that actor in plays connected with the classic history of the drama. The repertoire is as follows: Monday and Saturday nights, "Hamlet"; Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights, "Richard III"; Friday night and Saturday night, "The Merry Wives of Windsor." In addition to Mr. Sothern's portrait gallery, it is said to show the actor in the "allness of his power. The role has long been Sothern and desired to play, as it was the first role he ever played in as a young actor in John W. Colburn's company. During Mr. Sothern's engagement the curtain will rise at 8 and 2 o'clock daily.

Ada Lewis, a character actress elevated to a stellar position in a new play by Edward W. Townsend and Frank Ward O'Malley, entitled "The Head of the House," made her debut in the Grand Opera house last night. While Messrs. Townsend and O'Malley are also newcomers in the dramatic field, Townsend has long been held in esteem as the author of "Chimble Fadden," and O'Malley's reputation is founded on much clever newspaper work. These authors are waiting upon the "Miss Lewis" use a "comedy of the kitchen," as they term it. The story has to do with a phase of New York politics and typical New York characters.

Beginning with a matinee yesterday, "The Heir to Hoorah," Paul Armstrong's popular comedy of western mining town life, will be the bill in the Great Northern, where it will remain for a week. Frank Burke occupies the role formerly played by Guy Bates Post as Joe Lacy, the mine owner. Malvina Morel, Florence Coventry, C. C. Quimby, and John A. Alexander are others in the cast.

After almost encircling the globe, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" returned to Chicago last night, opening a two weeks' engagement in McVicker's, the scene of its former triumph. Blanche Chapman will be seen as Mrs. Wiggs, and the role formerly played by Guy Bates Post as Joe Lacy, the mine owner. Malvina Morel, Florence Coventry, C. C. Quimby, and John A. Alexander are others in the cast.

"The Boy and the Girl," which is called a "song show without a plot," will come to the Whitney Opera house next Saturday night. It is Richard Carl's most recent output, and he has prepared it with the assistance of H. L. Hines, the "Broadway" dramatist. It was written for an amateur society in Boston, and played there for a week last winter. It is one of two plays of his own writing in which he did not devise a part for himself. The company will include Harry and Madeline Berger, Jeanne Towler, Georgia Harvey, Eddie Garvie, Le Kohlmar, Burrell Barabretto, Toby Lyons, George E. Mack, and Felix Pantua. Gus Solike has coached the company. The American Farmer

By A. M. Simons, Editor of the Chicago Daily Socialist. PRICE 50 CENTS. The economic position of the farmer is a subject which has thus far been neglected in our literature. In America this position is peculiarly American and any attempt to apply the European literature on the subject to American conditions must only lead to confusion. This volume, published in February, 1902, has met with the most unbounded praise by the highest critics in Europe and America and we have just issued a revised edition in which the author brings the book strictly up to date, using the latest statistics and thoroughly covering several new points which have been raised.

It is written in a style which appeals alike to the farmer and wage laborer and is a book which no student of economics should fail to read. A. M. Simons, the economist, has made the farmer and his problems the subject of his study for a long time, and, as a result, has given a discussion of them in "The American Farmer," which, in spite of its small size, is the largest contribution yet given to the agrarian literature of this country. The author's conclusions are based on a real understanding of the difficulties of his struggle with the soil, with railroads, trusts and foreign competitors.

A Confidence Man

Secured a workingman in New York as the latter was enquiring for Cuba; he arrived in our colony penniless, how he won a town lot and house, a one-acre suburban residence lot on the "Reserve" and a plantation. The April COMRADE BULLETIN will contain a picture of man and his city property. Query: Confidence has done better working for wages here? Handy OVERBOARD ON THE OAK PARK ELEVATED the other day: "Yes, said one of the ladies. Wise—don't have to work quite so hard now." "How is that?" asked her companion. "She invested in a western company and is now receiving monthly dividends—she's a per cent in a savings bank here. Would he tell any—has it ever eased your toil?" The above are true stories, and to prove our contention that wages of 5 per cent in a bank are NOT THE STEPPING STONE TO A BETTER CONDTION. There will be about 20 "STEPPING STONES" prepared in our March Comrade Bulletin—out March 20th or before. Send for free copy if you wish to reach out for help to better things. The Magic of Printers' Ink

Two billion dollars is a lot of money, isn't it? Yet the best authorities tell us that amount and more is spent each year in advertising in the United States.

The thing that makes the modern newspaper and magazine possible in their present form is their income from advertising. It is generally conceded that business success today (unless you have a monopoly on some staple article) depends on the large and judicious use of "printers' ink."

The Socialists point out that the greater part of the human energy now spent in advertising is wasted effort, and will finally be eliminated when production for use replaces production for profit.

But at present we are living under the capitalist system and cannot escape our environment.

THE DAILY SOCIALIST ALSO DEPENDS LARGELY UPON ADVERTISING TO PERPETUATE ITS EXISTENCE.

TO GET ADVERTISING WE MUST SHOW THAT IT WILL BE PROFITABLE FOR BUSINESS MEN TO ADVERTISE IN YOUR PAPER.

Now, you don't buy any automobiles or steam yachts, etc., but you do use clothes, groceries, tobacco and dozens of other staple commodities, which you can get to as good or better advantage from our advertisers than anywhere else.

If you would help your paper in the most effective way, make yourself acquainted with our advertisers. Patronize them where and whenever possible.

NEW ADVERTISERS.

The attention of women Socialists is called to the fact that Joseph Siegan, who manufactures cloaks, suits, skirts and waists, has joined our list of advertisers. His place of business is 510 South Malsted street. LADIES' TAILORING A SPECIALTY.

Charles Tyl, the popular west side tailor, 786 South Halsted street, offers to give 10 per cent of all purchases to the Daily Socialist if those who deal with him mention that his ad in the Daily is the reason for their patronage.

If you need anything from a drug store try the "Central Drug Company," corner State and Washington streets, which is one of the Daily's new advertisers.

DECLARES MANN FRAMED UP ALIBI

Charging that the alibi set up by Luman C. Mann, on trial before Judge Mead for the murder of Mrs. Frances Gilmore Thompson, is a "frame-up," and that it was originated by the defendant himself, Assistant State's Attorney Edward Day began early today to subject the young man to a dramatic cross-examination. It was predicted by the attorney that he would show that the alibi was manufactured by the defendant.

Detectives of the state's attorney's office have been at work on this theory several days. Reports made by them to the prosecutor convinced him that his view was correct.

Mr. Day said he thought that the many witnesses who took the stand in behalf of Mann were innocent victims of the schemes of the accused, that they had tried to be truthful in their testimony, but that Mann made it his business to be seen at various places at certain times immediately after the murder, with the specific object of concealing the alibi.

The first of Mann's cross-examination was the most severe heard in the Criminal court.

The defendant lost control of himself several times and shouted his answers to Mr. Day, despite the efforts of Charles E. Erbstein, his lawyer, to restrain him. Mann lost his temper and at times almost shrieked his answers.

ROLL OF HONOR AT THE GARRICK

Names Are Given of Those Who Gave Help to the Daily Socialist

These are the names with the amounts pledged and the amounts paid at the Garrick meeting last Sunday morning.

Still Another Chance

As no notice was given, except a day or two, of the special business of the meeting, many of the best friends of the Garrick meeting and the Daily Socialist have not come. It is not too late, however. Tomorrow morning all you need to do is to write your name and address on a blank envelope with the amount you pledge to give to this fund before the last Sunday in April. Then put the envelope in the collection box at the Garrick meeting and drop it in the collection box with your contribution to the collection. If you don't wish your name to appear in the paper, put the letters D. P. on your envelope and only the initials will be given.

Those who pledged last Sunday and can make a payment or further payment tomorrow are requested to put names outside the envelope and the most of the amount and the name will be given. As the Daily has some important obligations to meet it is hoped that as much money as possible will be forthcoming, to be available Monday morning.

The Roll of Honor

The list is as follows:

Table with columns: Name, Pledge, Paid. Lists names and amounts for the Roll of Honor.

DO YOU HOLD A MORTGAGE OR PLAIN NOTE of The Daily Socialist

The success of the plan for the refunding of the outstanding debt of the Daily Socialist depends upon the consent of all the mortgage and note holders to exchange their holdings for the new improvement and refunding bonds. A large majority have already sent in their mortgages or notes, and as soon as all have done so, the bond issue will become a first mortgage on the plant.

Is Your Name Here?

The following persons holding notes against the "Workers' Publishing Society" are requested to send their present postoffice address to the Chicago Daily Socialist at once, as the management is unable to reach them with information they should have.

Where To Go

All Socialist speakers are urged to emphasize the necessity of pushing the circulation of the Chicago Daily Socialist at all meetings where they can consistently do so.

The Daily Socialist gives news which is unapologetically suppressed by the capitalist press.

Financing the Daily

In every country, and at all times throughout the history of the Socialist movement, its press has been the first essential. No sacrifice has been considered too great to create and maintain a working-class press.

The story of the Socialist press has been a story of sacrifice, of imprisonment, and not infrequently of bloodshed, that the message of freedom might be carried to labor.

We in the United States have just reached the stage where a daily press is a condition of further progress. In the Daily Socialist we have the beginning of such a press. If we establish this paper firmly it will prove the foundation upon which many more papers can be built with far less of sacrifice, because of the work we are doing now.

What Must Be Done Today

The immediate pressing need which must be met if the Daily Socialist is to be placed upon a firm foundation is additional funds, such as have been provided for by the new bond issue. The placing of these bonds is absolutely essential to the immediate future. If they can be sold, and sold quickly, the paper can be placed on a permanently paying basis.

Because the enterprise is now an established business with valuable assets, money invested in these bonds is not donated. As soon as the outstanding indebtedness is taken up they will become a first mortgage bond, secured by all the assets of the paper. Backed by the enthusiastic support of thousands of Socialists, and building upon the results already achieved, this investment is certainly far safer than in any ordinary capitalist business.

The bonds are in denominations of $100, $50, $25 and $10. They bear 4 per cent interest. There are sufficient readers of this who could afford to purchase one or more bonds to place the entire issue tomorrow.

Take This Matter Up with Yourself

First consider if you have not some money that you can afford to invest for yourself, your family and your class.

If you have no money yourself that you can invest, visit some personal friend and see what he can do. Solicitation in Chicago among workmen sold more than a thousand dollars' worth in a single week.

Take the Matter Up in Your Union

The Daily Socialist is fighting the battles of organized labor. It has many times earned its entire cost by the work it has done for the cause of unionism. The unionization of the Corn Products Company of Chicago was alone worth more than all the money that has been invested in the paper.

of the local of the Socialist party to which you belong. Show them the necessity of building up a daily press. Until such a press is established we cannot compete with the capitalist parties in the political field. Tell them of the work done by the Daily in the Rudowitz case, in the fight for Hayward and Moyer, and in the hundred other places where it has furnished a service that no other paper could have furnished.

Select the Amount You Wish to Invest and, if you cannot pay in full, send in what you can, and the bond will be sent you as soon as you have finished paying for it.

It is important that action should be taken, and taken quick. Money will do no good after the paper has won the fight. Look this over. Think it over, and then see what you can do.

Labor's Fight Against Tuberculosis

No movement is at the present time more deeply stirring the ranks of organized labor throughout the United States than the campaign against tuberculosis.

Politics, strikes, boycotts and all other issues are being sidetracked to make way for the fight which is to save the lives of thousands of laboring men.

Meetings are being held and movements started in hundreds of cities for the purpose of stimulating the labor forces to activity in anti-tuberculosis work.

This uprising against the worst foe of the workingman is of such recent growth that in spite of its present magnitude and daily development, few people are aware of its significance and importance.

Several years ago some of the larger national and international labor unions, notably the printers and cigar makers, began an anti-tuberculosis movement among their members, which resulted in the establishment by the printers of a sanatorium in Colorado Springs.

Two years ago Mr. Paul Kennedy, of New York, spoke before the American Federation of Labor, and stirred many of the other unions to definite action against tuberculosis.

This movement ripened about a year ago, when in Albany, N. Y., the laboring men got together and built a pavilion, chiefly for the benefit of their afflicted members.

The members of the Central Federation of Labor of that city, numbering about 6,000, each pay five cents a month for the maintenance of this pavilion.

That tuberculosis is particularly fatal to the workingman may be clearly seen from the fact that at least one-third of the deaths during the chief working period of life are caused by pulmonary tuberculosis.

Dr. Lawrence F. Flick says: "Tuberculosis is peculiarly a disease of the wage workers, and this is so from the very good reason that one of the causes of the disease is overwork."

In this way hundreds of factories in almost all of the large cities of Connecticut have been organized, and a large number of sick workmen and their families are being cared for.

Several of the state federations of labor have also urged action against tuberculosis. The International Tuberculosis Exhibit, held in New York recently, stirred the workmen of that city and Brooklyn to a realization of danger and responsibility, and they, too, recently took definite action in the warfare against this disease.

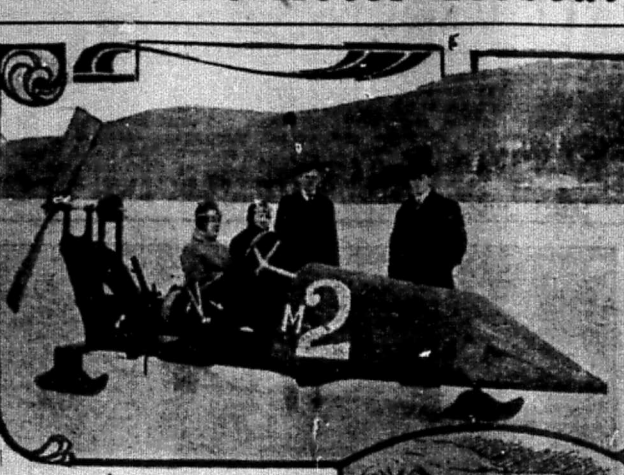

From here the movement has spread all over the United States, until almost every labor union of any importance in almost every trade is beginning to discuss tuberculosis at its meetings.

Mr. Gunshannon's plan is to interest each factory in an effort to care for its own workmen, and in almost every case the employer contributes a sum equal to the total contributed by his men.

These various factory units are so organized into a central body that the stronger ones are able to help the weaker. The money raised goes for the support of needy consumptive workmen in tuberculosis sanatoria.

In this way hundreds of factories in almost all of the large cities of Connecticut have been organized, and a large number of sick workmen and their families are being cared for.

Beauty Offered by Hardy Plants

It is surprising how many amateurs who possess a greenhouse will lavishly any amount of care and labor on some tender plant to coax even an inferior bloom from it, and yet ignore the many beautiful hardy plants that might easily be used for the embellishment of such a structure at a season when flowers are none too plentiful, says the Gardener.

It Shocked Them

"The Castle School" is a fashionable, select school for young ladies. It is situated in Tarrytown-on-Hudson—the summer home of New York's four hundred. The principal is Miss C. E. Mason, a broad-minded, cultured woman of expressed radical ideas.

If I am not mistaken, some well known Socialists have delivered lectures there, and not a week passes but that one or two woman suffrage meetings are held.

Last week Miss Mason posted a notice on the bulletin board, addressed to the graduating senior class. It was headed thus: "Opportunities for Women." It then went on to say that the American woman was made of sterner stuff than had been previously supposed, for she has distinctly shown that she is capable of many wonderful things.

She has speedily forged her way into many new industries and occupations that have been the object of the women's invasion, and so without further comment on my part we shall affix the list somewhat condensed. Sufficient to say that it shocked them quite strongly. The list ran thus:

Table listing various occupations and the number of employed persons, such as Occupation, No. Employed, Woodchoppers, 112, Farm laborers, 663,269, etc.

The bread line trails its clouded way into my sunny heart: Off the street in the cold midnight finds its way to me: Leaves the great rows of houses behind, leaves the noise of the city behind, Comes to me—in desire, in belief, in brave reaction from fear, comes to me; The vast long procession of the unfed comes to me for sustenance—drags its doubtful feet to my open doors;
