DAWES' PLAN BLOWS BEGIN

German Workers to Be Used to Scab on Us

(Special to the Daily Worker)
NEW YORK CITY, Jan. 29.—Almost simultaneously with the report of the dropping of many thousands of workers from the plants of the General Electric Company in Schenectady, comes the announcement of the offer of $10,000,000 worth of bonds of the Siemens & Halske and Allgemeine Elektrizitaet Gesellschaft of Germany on the American bond market.

In this announcement there are two items of advertisement to the "scab" electrical bond. They are said to employ 15,000 operatives in 28 factories. Furthermore it is significantly stated that "forty per cent of the production is exported."

More Unemployment Certain.

The unemployed electrical workers of Schenectady will do well to study and consider this new item of scab made by a group of the leading bankers in the United States. The firms mentioned are the makers of nearly every article manufactured by local electrical firms: electrical machinery and appliances for lighting, power, traction and other electrical purposes, dynamos, turbines, wires and cables, automatic and manual telephones, telegraph, signaling and electric railway apparatus, and other electrical apparatus. The workers in these firms are paid a miserable wage and work less than 20 hours per day long as the American workers. Under this low labor cost the interests which now control the German firm, and which are unquestionably the same as those behind the General Electric Company and the largest electrical company in this country, can well afford to bid down their American workers and sell at a greater profit the products of the German plants.

A Lesson in Capitalism.

There is, as is to be expected, a distinct link to the workers of Schenectady, who probably patriotically supported the war against Germany and voted for Dawes and Coolidge. Perhaps they will open their eyes to the fact that capitalism knows no national boundaries or patriotism in its ruthless exploitation of the workers. The workers of America must fight shoulder to shoulder with the workers of Germany and the rest of the world against the Dawes plan, but also against international capitalism as well.

His pulse was 108 and his temperature almost normal. The patient was announced as free from pain and taking nourishment. The surgical wound was reported "progressing satisfactorily."

GRABOVER RAIL LOSS BY GOVT. IN WAR TIME

See Communist Failure in Capitalist Graft

(Special to the Daily Worker)
NEW YORK CITY, Jan. 29.—The New York press and capitalist propagandists are now busy foisting upon the people the idea that Communism controls and operation of industry is doomed to failure and cite as example the loss to the railroads under government management during the war, as reported by James C. Davis in his final summary of the transportation mess that began with this war program and is not showing any signs of disentanglement even after the official statement has been made.

They Hang Onto a Straw.

The report of Davis is harped on an indelible Holbrooke harps upon the daily downfall of the Bolshevik government and with as much haste in fact.

Claiming that private ownership is the only method of securing efficient operation the propagandists are taking the report upon a constant stream of about $1,747,000,000, as conclusive evidence that an economic scheme that has the least in common with Communism must result in loss to the people.

The Communists have been active pointing out that managers of public utilities who hate Communism and who are staunch defenders of private ownership bark and snarl as they make any public utility run by the capitalist government a complete failure. And not only that; these barking dogs are given much support by the big interests, not actually laborers, so that it will appear that public ownership cannot succeed.

It is a classic Communist Example.

As an example to the contrary the Communists point to Russia, where all the large public utilities are in the hands of the workers' government and where all who have anything to do with the management of industry are in accord with the principles of Communism, resulting in the greatest improvement and development such as cannot be found in capitalist countries.

When the defenders of private ownership bob up among the workers the Communists are quick to give them facts that show how foolish it would be for a capitalist, who has reported that Russia bought 15,000 barrels of flour in Minneapolis.

It is not only that the Lake Shore Drive hotel, it is said, to have made $1,000,000 speculating in wheat.

Famine in Ireland.

European experts in the price of wheat will continue to rise until Russia stops buying. The potato crop of West Ireland has failed, causing the loss of the best of the year's crop, leaving the benchmark of big capital weak and despair as a result of attempted attacks on the workers and their interests.

WILLING FOR HERRIOT TO BE CAPITALIST, BUT NOT PINGARIST

(Special to the Daily Worker)
PARIS, Jan. 29.—Discussion of the Franco-American and other debate in the chamber of deputies this afternoon brought from Premier Herriot the declaration that he would resign if socialist deputies refused to vote for the placing on public buildings of his speech of yesterday on the deflation.

A special meeting was called to persuade Herriot not to resign.

The socialists objected to Herriot's speech on the grounds that it was "too nationalist." They met in an ante-room and voted, 27 to 24 not to vote for the placing of the speech.

The chamber voted for the placing of 841 against 82. This was considered equivalent to a vote of confidence in the government.

The threat of Herriot to resign was quickly followed by a second meeting of the socialists. At this meeting they voted 80 against 15 in favor of the placing.

Actors Fight the Radio As the Printers Once Fought the Linotype

By J. LEVY ENDDAHL

TODAY, there is quite a panic among theatrical employers and theater owners over the possibilities of the radio. The workers fear for their jobs and the owners for their profits. The immediate result is an alliance, a sort of class-collaboration between workers and exploiters, against this new device that reaches millions.

The fear of the theater workers only repeats the alarm of labor every time some new invention appears. The backward workers has always been the enemy of the developing machine age. The classic example is always pointed out of the hostility to the introduction of the linotype. The terror of the printer arose from the fear that the introduction of this labor saving device would rob him of a chance to work.

To be sure, there is unemployment among the printing trades workers today. But the number of printers employed is greater than ever. The sagacious to read permeates the masses more and more, a spite of the numerous rawbacks under capitalism, and the need of the printed word grows steadily.

Profit rule in the printing industry, however, still holds to the long workday. It introduces child labor wherever it can. The struggle, however, between the owners and the workers has resulted in the building of strong labor unions in this industry, and the fight goes on.

JUDGE PLAYS DAUGHTER KEEP ON DRAFT

Harry Cannot Recommend His Partner

(Special to the Daily Worker)
NEW YORK CITY, Jan. 29.—Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney-general of the United States in the Harding administration, who was asked to resign by Coolidge after an investigation of the department of justice by a senate committee, was prevented from telling some truths in the federal court here.

He said "It is time to tell the truth about some things that ought to be told" but Judge Lindley refused to let him, declaring his testimony extraneous to the facts of the case.

Judge Shields afterwards.

Daugherty was called as a witness in the defense on the trial of C. Thomas Casper, who was charged with Messrs. on an indictment alleging conspiracy to obstruct justice. The charge developed out of the Federal grand jury's investigation of the case, a stock-selling concern for a glass market company. It is contended by the government that a group of the defendants had conspired to raise a $45,000 pool to prevent federal indictments.

Frank P. Walsh, directing the defense, asked Daugherty: "Did you ever say to Messrs. General that $45,000 was too little to collect from the defendants, that it ought to be $100,000?"

But Judge Lindley insisted on the objection of Etham G. Todd, special prosecutor, and Daugherty did not answer.

Mr. Walsh asked Daugherty if he knew Col. Feltner as a man of general good reputation for honesty and integrity.

Cannot Recommend Partner.

Walsh tried hard to get something out of Daugherty but the government prosecutor's objections were sustained. At one time Daugherty said: "I should be very glad to testify in any case, if I had had public notice that the facts might be known for the general good of the public at large." For, considering this period we were going through, it was not surprising to see this man in Washington, and in one case certain people were held bound, it is time that the truth about some things ought to be told.

"Considering what we have seen through in this country, and in three or four years especially, I could not testify to the reputation for integrity and honesty of hardly any man, especially if he had had public notice, because the higher and more efficient he is, probably, the more he is subject to attack, and I could not testify that I would have anything but a good reputation when I get home the day after tomorrow, until I read the newspapers in the morning, at my rate."

UNION OFFICERS GET INJUNCTION AGAINST MEMBER

Detroit Carpenters Repudiate Act

(Special to the Daily Worker)
DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 29.—The law remaining supporters of Hutchison and the reactionaries in Carpenters' Local 19 were driven to the conclusion of action to take against the expulsion policy by the injunction forbidding a member, Wm. Reynolds, from attending the meetings held by Reynolds, the expelled member from No. 2140, are forced by the attitude of the reactionaries to take part in the struggle to maintain their constitutional rights and to carry on the traditional fight of the American Federation of Labor against the injunction.

Local Carpenters Injunction Gotten.

A special meeting of Local Union No. 19 voted unanimously to ensure these responsible for the injunction and to demand its immediate withdrawal. A former apprentice of Hutchison, Fred. Shipps, running for business agent, was defeated by the candidate supported by the left wing by a vote of 88 to 21.

It was learned today that the action of Local Union No. 2140 in sustaining Reynolds in his membership and as president was refused recognition by the Detroit council, and as a result was taken from his decision, but President Ball ruled the appeal out of the court of law and the case adjourned. The meeting broke up in confusion.

District Council Officers Get Injunction

It was learned today that President Sharrock and Secretary Fish of the Detroit council, and stool pigeon Botterill representing Hutchison, signed the bill of complaint to secure the injunction. Sharrock and Fish signed the bill of complaint as individuals, but it is just to show that they are themselves far from love of it as well as for.

WHEAT GAMBLERS WITHDRAW FROM ANY BIG DEALS

Public Is Expected to Get "Stung"

May wheat sold at a new high mark of 2.05 1/2 a bushel yesterday, reaching the highest price on record for peace times. Reasons given for the jump in wheat prices are the speculative buying of the crop of bread grains, which includes rye as well as wheat, and rumors of a corner in wheat.

Speculation by the public being carried on mainly by the public. The big wheat gamblers, including Arthur Cutten and James A. Fatten, have withdrawn from the speculative market and are confining their activities principally to marketing a heavy line of cash grain. The professional gamblers are withdrawing from the wheat futures buying.

Russia Buys Flour.

The wheat crop has now been sold over six times, showing the extent of the speculation in wheat. It is now learned that the Argentine wheat crop is much larger than was expected, and this fact, which is expected to lower the price of wheat. The big wheat gamblers, having withdrawn from the market with their millions in profits, will not be troubling the public with a dealing in wheat will get "stung."

Russia, usually a wheat exporting country, is importing some wheat this year, and it is reported that Russia bought 15,000 barrels of flour in Minneapolis.

It is not only that the Lake Shore Drive hotel, it is said, to have made $1,000,000 speculating in wheat.

Famine in Ireland.

European experts in the price of wheat will continue to rise until Russia stops buying. # Common Labor Works Uncommonly Hard

Uncommonly Low Pay

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The highest point in the wages of common labor was reached in 1920 when the average hourly rate was 48 cents. As a result of the depression the rate has fallen 33 cents in 1928. In 1924 it was 37 cents.

So says the report of the department of agriculture, based largely on road construction.

Press Yells Bravo For System When One Servant Gets $50,000

YORK, Pa., Jan. 29.

That one out of ten million workers may get by the merest chance a few dollars after a lifetime of faithful service is made the basis of featured news throughout America and used to fool the workers wherever the capitalist press is splitting its propaganda to blind the people. Thus the item runs: "Faithful servants have won $50,000 for Elmer S. Geesey. The will of Joseph H. Stiles, a tobacco dealer, which was probated today, provides that $50,000 is to go to the first servant who has been given as manager of his tobacco business.

The rest of the estate is given in trust to his children.

Silent as the Sphinx the same press says not a word about the millions of faithful workers who after having spent their entire lives to their masters are no longer suit the master.

 blasts of an angry, unkind, unkind and unkind, he was actually living in comfort in the Lux Hotel, Moscow. The editor of the Weekly People called it a "stunt" and I could not believe that I would have anything but a good reputation when I get home the day after tomorrow, until I read the newspapers in the morning, at my rate."

THE little monger whose writings in the Weekly People during the war was one sickening apology would like to see Haywood back in Leavenworth. Her weekly typographical monstrously long article, "The case of Harry M. Daugherty," is a masterpiece in calling the attention of the government to the "illegal" concept of revolutionary activity entertained by the Workers' Party. When the Michigan supreme court recently confirmed Comrade Rubenstein's conviction by a British court, it was a masterpiece in calling the attention of the government to the "illegal" concept of revolutionary activity entertained by the Workers' Party. When the Michigan supreme court recently confirmed Comrade Rubenstein's conviction by a British court, it was a masterpiece in calling the attention of the government to the "illegal" concept of revolutionary activity entertained by the Workers' Party.

THERE is very little difference between the Abramovich who was in Russia and the type represented by the editor of the Weekly People, except that Abramovich has more common sense. It is, of course, well known that the Russian revolution is a success because of the moral courage to do what Abramovich is doing. But between them there is a strong bond, by their mutual hate of the Russian Bolshevik who insisted in making a second party of the revolution, by their power despite the predictions of the take Marxists of the S. P. P. F. and the anarcho-syndicalists of the I. W. W.

MRS. SNOWDEN, ANTI-SOVIETIST, LIKE ABRAMOVICH IN THE U. S. A.; HAS VERY BAD LUCK IN CANADA

By SYDNEY WARREN

(Federated Press Staff Correspondent)
VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 29.—Mrs. Philip Snowden, wife of the ex-ambassador of the exchequer in the MacDonald labor government, is meeting with a very cool reception among Canadian workers of all shades of opinion, because of her fanatic hostility towards the Russian Soviet government.

Her public appearances throughout the dominion have been almost exclusively before organizations hostile towards labor's aim and Mrs. Snowden has taken every opportunity to knock the Russian workers' republic.

Her charge mainly are a repetition of the attitude held by those who favor an "orderly revolution," conducted strictly within the limits of the amenities of polite society.

The federated labor party, comprising the most conservative elements in the Vancouver labor movement, voiced its disapproval of Mrs. Snowden's attacks on Russia through the party's weekly organ, the B. C. Federationist, as follows:

"Apparently Mrs. Snowden, like few others from across the waters, seems to think they can workshop at their ease."

(Special to The Daily Worker) HERRIN, Ill., Jan. 29.—The terror of the Ku Klux Klan which still hangs over Herrin today. The inquest into the death of S. Glenn Young, the Klan gangster, and Ora Thomas, miner deputy sheriff, has proved to be a farce, with two Klansmen, Alvin Bowwell, state's attorney, and George Bell, coroner, in charge. Five witnesses have been threatened into keeping silence as to the truth of the killings of Ora Thomas by the Klansmen.

Klansmen are pouring into Herrin from all parts of the country to attend the funeral of Young to take place this afternoon. Young was the Herrin "cop" of the Illinois constabulary department, a private corporation with offices in Chicago, composed of Klansmen and gangsters, and having as its officers prominent Chicago politicians and capitalist newspaper editors. It was established at State's Attorney Corwin's office that the "constabulary department" has been investigated by Corwin, and found to conduct a traffic in gun permits.

Herrin declares that Young never entered a battle with the cops who were heavily on his side. They point to the fact that Young kept his wife beside him on all his trips in order to avoid himself from attack.

Auto Death Total at 44. Chicago's death toll from automobile accidents since Jan. 1 this year was increased to 44 today with the death of Arthur Timbes, 45, net collector and dealer in antiques. He was struck and injured by an automobile on Michigan boulevard last night. The accident was held up at 7 o'clock.

TEXTILE INDUSTRY IS AMONG THE MOST PROSPEROUS IN RUSSIA; COTTON PRODUCTION GROWING

(By Reeta News Agency.) MOSCOW. (By Mail).—The textile industry of Soviet Russia belongs to those branches of industry which, at the present time, are most prosperous. The increase of the buying power of the peasant population, combined with the lower prices for industrial goods, especially for articles, and higher prices for agricultural produce have been powerful factors in producing this satisfactory result.

In October, 1925, the sale of cotton goods amounted to $4.6 per cent of the output, and in March, 1926, to 129 per cent. More striking still is the increase in the turnover of the principal groups of goods of the principal group in the textile industry—the All Russia Textile Syndicate. The turnover of the syndicate in January amounted to $143 per cent of that of October, that of May to 228 per cent, and June to 456 per cent.

In the summer of 1924 the output of textile fabrics in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics increased to 30 per cent, and a further increase of production by another 24 per cent was considered. At the same time demands exceed the supply, and the sale of the whole output of cotton fabrics in the country was guaranteed.

Home Grown Production Increases. The Soviet cotton industry used in the year's production a total of seven and a half million pounds of cotton, of which 2,900,000 pounds were home grown, and about four and a half million pounds brought abroad. Next year this industry will need about 6,000,000 pounds of cotton, but in view of the rapid restoration of cultivation by another 24 per cent, the amount of the raw material needed will be covered by home grown cotton.

The figures given below show how the country's production of cotton in Russia. The area under cotton in the various cotton areas was as follows:

Table with columns: Area Under Cotton (in Desiatines), Region, 1924, 1925, 1926. Rows include Turkmen Republic, Khorvath Republic, Azerbaijan, Armenia, Georgia, etc.

Expect Increased Demand. The purchasing power of the peasant population in some districts may slightly decrease on account of this year's poor harvest, the comparative high grain and wheat crop almost certainly result on the whole in an increased demand for manufactured goods, and at the present moment there is not only no superabundance of goods just on the contrary, the supply is less than the demand.

Measures have been taken to cope with the demand, and the output is continually increasing as shown in the following table: Output of the Cotton Factories of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics

HAIR INSURANCE BY STATE ASKED FOR U. S. FARMERS

Communist Proposes Aid to Poor by Rich

By ALFRED KNUTSON. (Special to The Daily Worker) BILMARCUS, N. D., Jan. 29.—C. E. Miller, Communist legislator, has introduced a bill providing for compulsory state hair insurance and the levy of a tax on all incomes less than the state, and they have been read for the first time in the house of representatives.

The bills embody the ideas of farmers generally on the question of state hair insurance and represent what the farmer has wanted ever since the nonpeasant leagues started in North Dakota. From the beginning, league organizers and speakers at the league meetings emphasized this feature of the hair insurance plan—a plan which league leaders have now largely ignored.

The present bill is a modification of the percentages of cropped land insured and the withdrawals since the year 1915 are as follows:

This state hair insurance is a liability to the farmer. He does not want to insure his crop because he feels the hair tax is too big for him to pay. His condition on the matter is such that he must insure his crop. This means that he will without hair insurance protection and when hair strikes down his crop he must pay for the loss.

A tax levied upon every acre of tillable land in the state will mean a low hair tax to the farmer—about an average of 80 cents per acre. The state insurance spread over a period of five or six years. In this way the crops of all farmers can be insured.

According to the department of agriculture, the total land area of the state is 3,150,000 acres. Improved land is 1,455,517 acres and unimproved 1,694,483 acres. The total tillable land, therefore, is 1,455,517 acres. The number of acres in the state would be available for taxable purposes.

The compulsory state hair insurance system will immediately simplify the operation of the state hair insurance department because all cropped land is automatically insured and there will be no withdrawals.

HUTCHESON GREASES TOBoggAN FOR EXPULSION OF BURGESS, BROWN'S CAMPAIGN MANAGER

By ONE NOT YET EXPULLED. "Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad," is one of three proverbs that headed the leaflet issued by W. W. Burgess, member of the Carpenter's Union of Philadelphia and campaign manager for Willis K. Brown of the U. S. House of Representatives. The leaflet was directed against Wm. L. Hutcheson, and was followed by the statement, "These three proverbs can be aptly applied to General President."

"He started with a tirade against the Communists and the necessity of keeping them out of the U. S. There were only three Communists at the convention."

"It reminds us of the tactics of A. Mitchell Palmer and Harry M. Daugherty, both U. S. attorney generals, who, to cover their own corruption in office, threw the dust of 'Communism' and 'Reds' in the face of the public."

"The spirit of mass consciousness are not dashed by desire for profit or graft rise in resentment against you, especially against individuals who are not of those who have executive authority."

Burgess in Line for Expulsion. The other statement supposed to have been made by Burgess is now found in the eve of being kicked out of the organization and 'Reds' of the Communist adherents of the U. S. R. L., and other aggressive carpenters.

So far Willis K. Brown, the silent candidate for general president, has remained quiet on the question of signing of "open shop" agreements without the consent of the membership, such as the Chicago agreement. However, there is still one agreement pointed out in the document, which is supposed to have a copy, issued to the members of the Los Angeles, and for which Burgess will undoubtedly be expelled without a trial.

Hutcheson has a long list of names compiled before and added to since the beginning of this campaign for expulsion, with or without trial, depending entirely upon his control of the local machinery. Up to date 37 names have been added to the list in the district of Section 65 of the general constitution, and many others are slated to go.

Every carpenter in Los Angeles, all of them members of the brotherhood from five to 30 years, were the first to be expelled. "This was done prior to the convention to stop a supermajority of delegates from coming to the convention."

"Five members have been expelled in Chicago because of the open shop agreement. One member in Detroit is expelled because he was active in the open shop agreement. The one in Morris Rosen, the left wing candidate for general president, which resulted in Detroit casting a majority vote for 'whereas'."

HARVARD GLORIES IN "AD" BUNK

HARVARD UNIVERSITY, the expense laden educational institution of America, is pushing bourgeois ethics and business and has just given $10,000 in prizes to its ad department. It is significant that the awards are made through Edward W. Bok, the Philadelphia editor of bourgeois editors from a fund he donated.

About 5,000 advertisements were submitted by 375 agencies anxious to show Harvard students and Americans how best to make money by gutting the public with dose propaganda. Just what kind of ads they write the capitalist press does not state. Perhaps it was something of the nature of a New York magazine which advertised a certain type of women's wear, recommending for South American countries each million. The prizes by Harvard and Bok were mostly of $1,000 each.

SUPPORT OUR RUSSIAN DAILY!

THE Russian Communist daily, Novy Mir has a new editorial board and new management, appointed by the central executive committee of the Workers Party after the old management announced that it was ready to give up the fight and turn the daily into a weekly. Comrade Moseysva Olgin was appointed editor and chief and Comrade Bratkovskii was named on the editorial board.

The paper has been inaugurated with the best journalists that the party has. The Novy Mir is one of the oldest Communist newspapers in the country. It was established about 12 years ago by the Russian federation of the old socialist party. With the party split the paper went with the Communist. At the time of the raids in 1921 the paper was forced underground and was turned into a monthly magazine under the same name, being the official organ of the Communist Party in the Russian language. Later on it resumed publication under the name Iskra but was forced to suspend publication for a few days during the struggles in the federation. After unity was achieved the paper again has been resumed under the old name, Novy Mir.

At present the Novy Mir has the best editorial staff since the time when Trotsky and Bukharin were editors in the Russian language. We are receiving congratulations from individual comrades and from branches. It is believed that the paper will soon get out of its present financial straits and will become one of the strongest weapons of our party.

At the convention of the Russian section of the Workers Party is called where measures will be taken to insure the existence of the Novy Mir.

Senate Then Holds Open One to Kid Public

(Special to The Daily Worker) WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A secret session of the Senate today exposed the activities of a group of capitalists and industrialists who are working to overthrow the present administration.

Stone approved first at a secret session to explain his former legal activities for J. Opposition to these two phases of Stone's legal record has blocked confirmation of his appointment as attorney general to re-inject Senator Burton E. Wheeler of Montana.

Stone revealed that the Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America had been formed to overthrow the United States of its oil lands." He said that it was a new union, a conspiracy to overthrow the United States government.
