

ARREST ITALIAN COMMUNISTS IN FUTILE WAR ON BIG MAY DAY DEMONSTRATIONS THROUGH ITALY

(Special to The Daily Worker)
ROME, Italy, April 29.—One hundred and twelve workers, including many Communists, were arrested in Naples today by fascist police, who are making futile efforts to prevent preparations for large May Day demonstrations of the workers throughout Italy. The Communist Party in Rome, the only charge placed against them being that they had Communist leaflets in their possession.

AS WE SEE IT By T. J. O'FLAHERTY.

THE only European government that is working toward the abolition of von Hindenburg is France. Britain is satisfied. So are the fascist governments of Italy and Poland. At least for the present. One day you will tell when those enthusiasts will draw their daggers. The French political situation is liable to swing sharply to the right, the fascists left that took office after the fall of Poincaré was the most cowardly out of that ever held power in any country.

Communist International has issued a statement on the result of a German election which does not attempt to ally fears of the workers of the world by personal tributes to the dignity and peaceful intentions of the German millionaires. The statement declares that Hindenburg's election increases the danger of war, it does. The monarchist elements are heartened and helped they stand the fascists and slogan, the heavy industrialists and the large population of workers who are intoxicated with the alleged glories of present Germany. More trouble is brewing.

German socialists are in this critical hour for the workers of Germany and of Europe? What steps are they taking to avert another and a greater calamity than has fallen on the unfortunate victims of the German ruling class since that fateful autumn of 1914? They are doing nothing, but twiddling their thumbs and making threats that if Hindenburg does not conduct himself, they, the socialists, may not. This is the kind of tactics which have led the seasoned labor faker Sam Gompers used to hurl at this sham foe, Judge Gary. The socialists are responsible for the debacle which has overtaken the German working class movement, once the pride of the world proletariat.

THE German working class are not leaderless in face of the new menace of Kaiserism revived. The Communist Party remains, its leaders are not sitting down, twiddling their thumbs. Hardly had the votes been counted when a manifesto was coming out of the red presses calling on the entire German working class, regardless of political affiliations for a united front against monarchism, the Hohenzollerns, the Dewey element and the other evils that afflict the workers. The socialist leaders will turn this proposal down, but not all their followers will. There are many days, than ever ahead for the German workers, but they will emerge victorious from their trials as their comrades in Soviet Russia did.

THE pound looks the dollar in the "face" reads a headline in a London paper. That sounds like a challenge and that is just what it is. Those who believe that the lion and the eagle will shake hands peacefully and devour the other lesser capitalist animals in perfect harmony, are laboring under a delusion. No, this makes a pretty picture, and it could form the basis for any number of super-novels, worthy of a H. G. Wells. The dollar and the pound are making faces at each other. The pound is older and perhaps wiser. But the dollar has the pep of youth and its audacity.

BRITAIN went back to the gold standard. That is why the pound gets so cocky all of a sudden. It may seem strange to see it so money (Continued on page 5)

DOWN TOOLS IS CRY OF WORKERS THIS MAY DAY

Ruthenberg, Shachtman
Speak at Chicago Meet

Many millions of workers in all parts of the world will forget their bosses tomorrow and will take part in the greatest May Day demonstration ever held. Under the banner of the Communist parties of the world, these myriads of militant workers will throw down their tools and devote May 1, 1925, to celebrating the inspiring, historic day on which the working class revealed its power. The dark realms of India, Africa, the Near and Far East, will make the British imperialists tremble. The French, German, Japanese and English employers will run for cover behind their police lackeys at the rumblings of the international working class revolt on this May Day. Nor will the murder of workers in the Balkans, or the Big Stick of the international bankers stem the workers in their brightly demonstrated.

National Holiday in Russia. In the workers' and peasants' government of Soviet Russia, of course, May Day will be a state holiday. Thousands upon thousands of workers will gather in public meetings.

CAPITALIST LAW PERMITS CHILD SLAVES IN HOME

Ruins Health and Life of Thousands

ARTICLE THREE.
BY LILLIAN R. BORGESON.
Illinois is guilty of harboring within its state borders the vilest form of "home work"—"home work." In spite of the fact that the city fathers and crafty politicians, together, as usual, with the liberals and the meek social workers, have been busy broadcasting the "fact" that Illinois has state laws which prohibit the labor of little children, the worst child labor flourishes undisturbed. Even the radicals have come to believe that Illinois is far above the other states in its respect for child labor. But such is not the case.

The want-ads of the capitalist newspapers daily carry enticing ads for "home work"—ranging from the popular beading and sewing to millinery trimming and embroidering. The state has a law which is supposed to regulate home industry but it has the customary joker which makes the intent of the law worthless. No Home Work "Except in the Home" This law states that the making of various articles in the home for sale or manufacture is prohibited except as performed by members of the family living within the home. "Members of the family" naturally means, in addition to the father and mother, all adult and minor children. (Continued on page 5.)

Dead, He Still Lives---For the Bankers

"God Bless Our American Institutions. May They Grow Better Day By Day."

"By the organized workers of America that I have for the faith I expect that they will leave the faith. They must carry on. By it is that a union man carrying a card is not a good citizen unless he upholds the institutions of our country and a poor citizen of our country if he upholds the institutions of our country and forgets the obligations of his trade union."

The last words of the leader who has gone. In his life he first thought was for his country. As he passed through the veil into eternity, it was the same—the country.

He was the personified ideal of great freedom, honor, will, harding and courage. President Coolidge was among the first and best of comrades in his widow. These men, the chosen leaders of the nation, knew that Sam Gompers was truly an American.

Sam Gompers was the one great force bearing the weight of the American labor movement. He was the only force capable of leading the masses of the American people to the institutions of our country and a poor citizen of our country if he upholds the institutions of our country and forgets the obligations of his trade union.

Those who loved Sam Gompers, those who revere his memory, can find no truer ally to the great struggle of humanity by carrying on in the spirit that dominated his life than the spirit of Communism.

No greater tribute could come to America than to have the name of one who has been so well controlled by love of country, than Sam Gompers. In the past few years the Government of American resources, the hospitals of American homes—doctors and nurses in large numbers upon a scale and scope undreamed of in the history of the American people.

SAMUEL GOMPERS served the ruling class well while he lived. He is still very useful to them as the above advertisement shows. This was taken from the Vermillion County Star, a so-called labor weekly published in Danville, Illinois. It is edited by Frank Leven, former leader in the farmer-labor party, now deceased. Leven played with both the Fitzpatrick and Ernest factions of the farmer-labor party. He is now playing with the bankers who pay better than either of the above celebrities. When Gompers died and before he was laid away through the carcasses of the millionaire labor exploiters William Rockefeller and Andrew Carnegie, the Workers Party issued a statement telling the workers what a contemptible crook this man Gompers was. The labor faker was well trained by him got sore. Perhaps some of the workers who did not examine Gompers' acts closely, felt irritated at our sharp criticism. But can any better proof of Gompers' treachery to labor be offered than the above advertisement which was accompanied by a picture of the dead labor faker? And what can one say of a labor editor who prostitutes himself for the few dollars he managed to blackjack out of the bankers in return for publishing Gompers' anti-labor fulminations?

OPEN SHOP MUST GO, SAY REDS IN ELECTION FIGHT

Los Angeles Communists
Hold Many Meetings

(Special to The Daily Worker)
LOS ANGELES, April 26.—"The open shop must go," is the slogan of the Workers (Communist) Party in the election campaign of the Communist candidate, Edward Harris, running in the fifteenth district for the city council.

The program demands confiscation of all public utilities, which are to be run by committees of the workers engaged in the various branches of the service. Work or compensation for all unemployed workers, is the responsibility of the city government, says the Communist program signed by Harris.

Demand Abolition of Injunction. Abolition of the use of police and injunctions to break strikes, abolition of child labor, with government support of school children, are demanded in the program. The fifteenth district is the San Pedro Harbor district, scene of the great strike of marine and transport workers. The program demands for San Pedro Harbor that "all employees of companies, steamship agencies, carriers, etc., using public docks, etc., be organized."

IOWA MINERS STRONG FOR W. P. PROGRAM

MELCHER, Iowa, April 29.—Attendance at our meetings at Madrid, Moran, Des Moines, and Melcher, proves that the mine workers in this district are becoming deeply interested in the Communist movement and its program.

Earlier in the month we addressed crowds of miners at Centerville and Mystic. At both of these centers the same interest in and sympathy with the Workers Party was evident. In several of the camps we witnessed the demise of the proletarian party. Although some of the poison scattered against the Workers Party by the "proletarians" yet noticeable, the former members of that sectarian group are now joining the Communist ranks.

Different shop chairmen of the Chicago Amalgamated Clothing Workers use various methods, I will quote Philip Melcher, chairman of the Chicago Joint Board. He explained it thus: "There are two kinds of shop chairmen, some use wise methods and some don't. What I do is to bring the people to a local union meeting and put thru an important matter, some chairmen go up to each individual in a meeting and ask them, 'I want you to come to the meeting tonight and vote so and so; and if you don't I will know what to do.'"

ANTI-INJUNCTION BILL DEFEATED IN ILLINOIS HOUSE BY 74 TO 62 VOTE

(Special to The Daily Worker)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 29.—The Soderstrom bill prohibiting employers from using the courts to obtain anti-picketing injunctions, two years ago defeated in the house by a vote of 74 to 62. The officials of the Illinois Federation of Labor have been lobbying for the bill.

Ten amendments offered by the bill limiting the labor of Illinois women to eight hours were laid on the table on motions by Mrs. Lettie O'Neill, who presented the bill to the house.

Naturally, the business agents do not leave it all to the shop delegates. They are on the job at the local meeting to see that the workers vote "properly." Even not to vote at all is considered as a crime against the cause. Lately they have introduced a system, especially in Business Agent Charles Weinstein's shops, by which they can reward their friends with something material. Here is how it works: An Army of Mercurians. When a price is made on a garment, the business agent and the firm agree on a total price for the garment. (Continued on page 3)

PAN-AMERICAN ANTI-IMPERIALIST LEAGUE STARTS AMNESTY DRIVE TO FREE COMMUNISTS IN ARMY

Determination of the ruling groups in America to consolidate the U. S. military forces abroad into an army of hard boiled, reactionary colonial shock troops, is what deflated the warlike prison sentences meted out to Privates Crouch and Trumbull, according to the Pan-American Anti-Imperialist League. The organization has undertaken a widespread campaign to bring about amnesty for the two Communist soldiers by means of international pressure.

Domingo, Haiti, through Latin America—everywhere where the yoke of American imperialism is tightening. "The protest against the treatment of Crouch and Trumbull is just beginning," the league will endeavor to mobilize every element of resistance to American imperialism. In this country and abroad, to bring about their release, meetings will be held. Leaflets will be issued. The Pan-American Anti-Imperialist League will muster all its forces on behalf of these two brave soldiers. The first step is that they demand to organize as Communists in an American army of occupation. In a colonial territory where Communism is looked upon as a crime and an obstacle to the forces of national liberation.

"Hindenburg Safe" Says Andy Mellon, Head of the United States Treasury

By J. LOUIS ENCDAAHL. TODAY, American big business gladly and cheerfully adjusts itself to the election results in Germany knowing that "Hindenburg is safe!" in the words of "Andy" Mellon, secretary of the U. S. treasury, one of the richest men in the land.

David Lawrence, one of the capitalist syndicate writers at Washington, who writes intelligently of what is going on in the nation's capital, puts it this way: "American interest in German affairs is concentrated on getting money out of Germany. We want Germany to pay France so that France can pay us. WE DON'T CARE WHETHER THERE IS A REPUBLIC OR A MONARCHY IN GERMANY, if the paying process is not interrupted."

The United States, as the head of world reaction, recognizes gladly its counterpart in other lands. It has watched, with growing satisfaction, the strength of the feudal reaction in the Balkans, until recently the American Minister Wilson, in Bulgaria, was unmasked as the guiding influence that persuaded the Bulgarian government to place the blame for the cathedral blast on the Communists, and not on the Jugo-Slav government, as originally intended.

There is the closest kinship between Hindenburg's "Deutschland Uber Alles" and Morgan's "American First!" They both stand for the domination of the capitalist class over the working class. They both demand the supremacy of property rights. Every precaution must be taken to safeguard profits. And in order that profits may grow and multiply, capitalism takes the same steps in both Germany and America.

Wall Street, during the campaign, picked Marx as the safer alternative of the two. But it is highly satisfied with Hindenburg. Coolidge's fake disarmament conference plans may have to go by the board. French capitalism fears Hindenburg rule as the means of bringing into existence a new and greater militarism in Germany.

Let the workers watch the Morgan government at Washington and study its support of the Hindenburg regime. If they do, they will get a little better insight into the real nature of American capitalism, revealing as never before its ugly anti-labor face. They will then understand much better many of the things the Communists have been pointing out for years. They will realize why they must enlist and fight under Communist standards.

NEGROES OUST WHITE HEAD OF FISK COLLEGE

(Special to The Daily Worker) NEW YORK, April 29.—Following a meeting of the board of trustees of Fisk University here, it was made known that Dr. Wyatt McKeezie, white president of the Negro university, has resigned. McKeezie had lost the confidence of the entire student body of the university because he carried out the wishes of the Negro hating southern business men, and lapsed harsh punishments on the Negro students.

The reason given for the resignation of McKeezie was that "his usefulness as an educator among the Negro race among the Negro students refused to ally Negroes to speak to the students of the Nashville, Tenn. University, although invited to give the platform to white manufacturers of the Negro race."

The fight on McKeezie began several years ago, when he was criticized by the Negroes for instituting a system of "prison rules." An editorial by Dr. Du Bois in the current issue of the magazine, "The Crisis," declared: "McKeezie is a black American. Let no decent Negro send his child to Fisk until Wyatt McKeezie goes."

McKeezie's resignation, news effect on June 26, it is announced.

SHOE WORKERS RESTORE THEIR PICKET LINES

Injunction Denied By Court

NEW YORK CITY, April 29.—The United Shoe Workers' Protective Union has defeated an application for a permanent injunction restraining them from picketing in any form the five stores of the United Shoes Rebuilding company...

Ordered Picketing Stopped. In the meantime the judge ordered picketing to be stopped before the union even received a notice to argue the case. The case finally came up for argument on April 25, Joseph Brodsky, representing the union, pointed out that all the papers and affidavits on which the stay was granted were absolutely false.

Why Not Rush Before? The motion for a permanent injunction was denied and the workers immediately rushed back to the picket line with a determination to win. Victory seems assured.

ELECTRIC TRUST ENTERS INTO WORLDWIDE TRADE COMBINE TO MONOPOLIZE RADIO STATIONS

By LAURENCE TODD (Fostered Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, April 29.—Formation of a world-wide radio trust, bringing into one syndicate the Radio Corporation of America, the Marconi companies in Britain and Italy, the French companies, the German Telefunken interests and the Japanese companies is in the way.

"Competition" A Blind Point is given this warning by the Federal Telegraph Co., Inc. The business agent divides $3.85 among the various sections and 15 cents he saves for what is called "shop treasury." If a certain section does very good work for the machine, such as slugging militants, terrorizing the other workers in the shop, etc., the business agent gives them a "present," an increase of their price fixed for the section, of let us say, two cents. Called Out the Hired Troops. At a meeting called by the suspended members to protest against the outrageous action of Manager Levin in removing workers from their jobs and the other workers in the shop, let the machine brought down, not only hired gangsters, but also ordered "reliable" groups from the shops to surround the factory.

What He Would Do If Business Was Let. "If Levin would take me off the job for such reasons I would not consider the consequences but would kill him on the spot. Nobody can dilly dally with me and butler of my wife and children."

When asked why he participated with the gangsters if that was the way he thought the business was to be run, he said: "These are the elements that are suspending members from the union because of 'disobedience'."

Red Ambassador in Tokio Sees Stability in the Far East. (Special to The Daily Worker) MOSCOW.—(By Rosta.)—In an interview with the Moscow correspondent of Japanese papers, V. L. GEORGINA 'CHEKA' TRIAL CLOSES Eighty years' Sentences in Frame-up.

Under very suspicious circumstances, it seems pretty certain that the Berlin secret police knew why he had to die. Savage Sentences. This is the stupid structure of lies on which the sentences of our comrades are based. The death sentences do not mean much, for two of them were passed, for effect, on the police spy, Neumann and Pöge, who were promised protection before the trial began, and will get it—unless they also know too much. The other dependent to receive the death sentence is the Russian worker, Eberleberky, and however much the German government may be trying to break off relations with Russia, it would not dare to raise the international storm that the murder of a Russian would involve.

The terrible reality of the trial lies in the long prison sentences imposed on the other thirteen—workers and comrades all—who have already been subjected to revolting torture in the year of preliminary imprisonment prior to the opening of the trial. When sentences were pronounced, the crowds of workers that had managed to gain access to the court room showered the prisoners with red flowers, and a great protest demonstration was held outside despite police interference.

Great protest meetings and demonstrations are being held throughout the country against this latest outrage committed by the bourgeois and social democratic government (the whole trial being under Eberli's direction) against the German working class, their leader, the Communist Party.

CAPITALIST LAW PERMITS CHILD SLAVES IN HOME

Ruins Health and Life of Thousands

It is an accepted fact that "home work" is impractical unless taken part in by children. One manufacturer said when questioned about children and home work:
Capitalists Anxious for Child's Nimble Fingers

"The 'ablest' time in a child's life is from eight to fourteen when his fingers are nimble and quick to catch on. We can make use of this. Industry can make use of it." Ergo—"home work."

Another manufacturer stated frankly that "home work isn't worth bothering about if the children don't help."
It is obvious even to the uninitiated that in home work there can be no regulation of wages or hours or of wages of those working. We actually find, therefore, that in the poorer districts of Chicago, where wages are low and families large, that the work of the family in desperation turns to "home work" in an attempt to show a living. Little children are engaged in continuing labor before school, after school and long into the night.

Retardation in the school classes among these children has been found to be from 25 to 60 per cent. The truant officer reports that children are absent from school to help at home. They can often times be definitely traced to this insidious form of child labor.

"The Industrial Habits" of Children
The answer given by the manufacturers who are, of course, among the chief opponents to the child labor law is that child labor keeps the children from the streets and "teaches the habits of industry."

The children are kept in dark, ill-ventilated tenement houses using their fingertips to work at the powder puffs and tiny, bright colored beads, straining their eyes in the poor light and stunting their already ill-nourished bodies.

Ruined Sight and Health of Thousands

The last report of the Chicago health commissioner states that 54 per cent of the children have been found suffering from defective eyesight. Those suffering from malnutrition, from "rickets" (which is also a lack of sunshine disease) are estimated to be 14,000. They include a great percentage of those engaged in child labor.

The great hue and cry against even the weak child labor amendment, which is appearing consistently in the columns of all the Chicago newspapers except the DAILY WORKER is significant.

If child labor did not exist in this state, in this city, the industrial magnates and their editorial tools would hardly give their precious front page space to the news of the defeat of the amendment. Their constant editorial plea that this proposed law strikes at the very root of individual initiative and industry, and the other great American virtues, is but another manifestation of their defense of their "advertising public."

Hold Open Air Meetings
Open air meetings are being held at the corner of 4th and Beason Sts. Meetings will be conducted there on April 27, 29 and May 2 and 4.
The program of the Workers (Communist) Party in the city council campaign is given below in full:
Program of Edward Harris, endorsed by the Workers (Communist) Party
I DO NOT repeat the ridiculous pretensions of the other candidates, that I have a program which will suit the workers. I state frankly that my program is only in the interest of the workers, who are exploited by the master class. Now when great numbers of workers are suffering from unemployment, when police and injunctions are called in by the bosses to break all strikes, when the workers' standard of living is being steadily forced down, when workers' children are suffering from inadequate and improper schooling, when the public services corporations, like the gas and telephone companies are unhampered in their control of public utilities, when these companies exact exorbitant profits from the workers, it is a program which calls the workers men and women of Los Angeles for a struggle against the capitalists on the basis of the immediate interests of the workers.

6. Child Labor.—In accordance with the consistent national campaign against child labor initiated by the Central Executive Committee of the Workers (Communist) Party, I demand the abolition of all child labor up to sixteen years of age. Funds for this purpose to be secured through tax levied against corporations' profits and high individual incomes. For young workers, equal pay for equal work for youth and adult. A maximum of six hours a five-day week for all young workers from sixteen to twenty-one years of age. Four weeks annual vacation with pay for young workers.

7. Contract Labor.—I demand the abolition of private contract system in the construction of public work; all contracts to be let through unions, with working conditions, wages and hours.

8. Municipal Employees.—No interference with the right of any branch of municipal employees to organize in labor unions. Establishment of the shop committee system as a means of direct control of job conditions by the employees of the various departments.

9. San Pedro Harbor.—All employees of companies, steamship agencies, canneries, etc., using public docks, public wharves, public waterfronts, must be employed in union conditions, receive union wages.

Abolition of Employers' Association "Employment Agency" commissions and all other such practices.
The above program of immediate demands touches issues which are vital to every working man and woman of the region. Each one of these issues is a direct outgrowth of the present system of production for private profit—that is, of capitalism. It is obvious that these demands do not offer any real opportunity for the workers. Capitalist democracy is nothing but sham. There can be no real solution of the great problems which now upon the workers until capitalism is overthrown—until the workers seize control of the government power and take over industry. This will be accomplished through the establishment of a Soviet republic and workers' and farmers' government.

(Signed) EDWARD HARRIS,
Candidate for City Council,
District 15 (San Pedro Harbor).
Soviet State Tea Trusts Get Year's Supply of Tea
(Special to The Daily Worker)
HARRIS (in local press report on the strength of telegraphic information received from Shanghai, that the Soviet state tea trust has purchased, through the trade mission of the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics in China, from the Asiatic Trading Company, Ltd., a big set of the black and green brick tea crop, that it expected to cover the needs of the U. S. S. R. in this particular kind of goods for about one year. It also reported that the conditions of the deal are very advantageous: 6 cents have been paid per pound for the highest grade, 2 1/2 cents per cent for the lowest; 20 per cent have been paid in cash, while the rest has been purchased on terms of credits for 6 to 9 months.

PROGRESSIVE BARBERS GOT NO ANSWER

Officials Proved Unwilling to Organize

The last convention of the International Journeymen Barbers' Union decided that women barbers, milliners and other workers in similar trade must be organized under its banner. So far this decision in Chicago has remained a letter. In the midst of the militant rank and file members who have called the officials to a showdown, the officials have turned a deaf ear.
On February 10, the militants and many honest workers who have lost faith in the sincerity of their misleadership, following letter to the officers and members of Local 548:
"To officers and members of Local 548, J. B. U. of A. Chicago, Ill.
Greetings.—At the last meeting of the progressive, held on Monday, February 9, it was unanimously voted to pledge each individual member of the group to the following: In the service of Local 548, without compensation, to aid in making the organization of women barbers into our union a success."
The last International Convention's decision to permit women beauty workers into our union marks a distinct step forward in the march of progress. This action has been hailed with enthusiasm by all active members of the Barbers' Union. To the students of the American labor movement, this was the most significant event, and a characteristic example of the trend toward amalgamation and centralization. To the casual observer, it may have only seemed a self-protective measure.
The members of Local 548, grouped in the progressive group, realize to the fullest extent the import of this historic event. They are anxious to see the campaign to organize Chicago women barbers under way. They, as militant unionists, will lend their support, commensurate with their individual ability and time disposable. They will follow the union's plan of organization, if any has yet been formulated, or will participate in the drawing of such program as members of our local union.
In all events, we shall be first on the battle line, urging in the launching of the organization. We are confident that adequate preparations have been made, and trusting in a successful outcome, we remain,
"Fraternally yours,
"Chicago Progressive Barbers."
As was suggested, the officials would not read this letter to the members of the union assembled in regular meeting. Their reason for not doing so was that they were tired in some shady deal and feared that the reading of this very innocent letter would anger them if the article of liberty. It was pointed out that the letter contained nothing of a compromising or illegal matter, but to no avail.
The real reason why the letter was not read was also a fear. Not the one that they gave—but the fear of letting the members of the union know that the progressive group was a rank and file expression. That they were progressives in deed and not in words. The real danger lay in the fact that the progressive group had come to a true understanding of the activity of the progressive.

1. Public Utilities.—I demand immediate removal of public utilities from the ownership and control of labor unions in conjunction with all franchises. Operation to be for public service and not for private profit—under direct management, and not controlled by the various branches of service.
2. Unemployment.—Work or compensation for all unemployed as a matter of course, but as a direct municipal responsibility. The city to bear the cost, and compensation to be paid through working class bodies selected by labor unions in conjunction with unemployed workers. No eviction for non-payment of rent. City government must assume responsibility for comfortable housing of unemployed workers free of charge while they are unemployed, and rooms in the houses of the wealthy residents must be requisitioned for this purpose. Immediate inauguration of a program of public works, especially with a view toward relieving the unemployment situation, such as plan for immediate improvement and sanitation of working class districts. Abolition of private employment agencies. Establishment of an employment bureau by unemployed workers' organizations and unions operating at municipal expense. All employers must register as they may "proprietors and speculators."
3. Education.—Educational policies, text-books, selection of all school assignments agree out of the control of the political servants of big business and placed in the hands of teachers and students. I demand that all children in the public schools of Los Angeles up to the age of sixteen shall be fully maintained at the expense of the city through the year, not only as regards text-books, but also in regards to food, clothing, transportation to and from school, vacation expenses, and all other expenses necessary to a healthy life while studying. Substantially increased pay for teachers. Money for increased wages to be obtained thru special assessments against the "property owners and speculators."
4. Police and Labor.—Abolition of the use of police and injunctions to break strikes, and their use in all labor disputes and free speech fights. Abolition of anti-picketing laws. Maintenance of order during strikes, picketing, etc., to be exclusively in the hands of committees elected by the

BUILDERS AT WORK

CHICAGO CALLS MINNEAPOLIS ACTION

Comrade Leslie Hurt—Attention!

Challenges are being hurled "fast and furious" now. That little Russian stunt taught us by Comrade Shuker of Milwaukee is rolling up results.
Chicago enters the list of numerous cities in the challenge column with a sub sent in thru the Young Workers League by Comrade Al Schapp who throws the gauntlet at Comrade Leslie Hurt of Minneapolis in this way:
Builders' Column, DAILY WORKER:
Dear Comrade—Enclosed is one sub for one-half year to the DAILY WORKER. I challenge Comrade Leslie Hurt of Minneapolis to do the same.
Allow me to add that this scheme sure does get results and puts the real Communist builders to task.
We will challenge each other and by doing so are challenging the capitalists of this country.
Fraternally yours,
A. L. SCHAAP.
Now it is up to you! Get a sub, step up to the City Agent, Dan Stevens, and with it give him a hot challenge to wake up another Communist in your local—or in any other. We can build a bigger and better Communist movement with "Our Daily."

AND NOW WHO'S NEXT?
COMMUNIST CHILDREN'S COLUMN
WHAT MAY DAY MEANS TO US.

FRIDAY is May Day—our own holiday of the workers of the world. The men, women and children of the working class in every single city or village in every single country in the whole universe are parties on this day. Doesn't it feel good to have such a holiday?
Workers the world over have had to undergo much suffering and persecution for their holiday. It has not been given to them by the bosses. It is not that kind of a holiday. And if it were it would be a holiday without meaning to workers.
The workers took this holiday and in countries where the capitalists still rule, like in the United States, we still have to fight for our May Day. Workplaces are strikes on this day. Children do not go to school. Having made the sacrifice they do not sit with hands folded and dream.
We call this May Day a day of protest, of demonstration and of propaganda. We shall distribute literature to every worker we can reach, we shall conduct open air lunch hour meetings for workers, we shall talk the lead in mass meetings in the streets of the city and in the evening at indoor gatherings assembled in large halls.
Every year the lot of the workers in capitalist countries grows harder. As long as capitalism is in control there is the long line of unemployed workers walking the streets without a chance to work. No matter how low wages are the bosses are ever willing to mean to cut them still more. There are the open shop drives of the bosses to gain for them bigger profits. There is the vicious exploitation and cruel discrimination against the Negro race. This year we have had inflicted upon us the Dawes plan, which means that there will be even harsher exploitation and greater competition for bread among workers not only of one country but between workers in other countries.

So, comrades, up bright and early on May Day and celebrate your holiday like good Communists. Get your literature and distribute them from house to house. Distribute them at open air meetings. Talk to workers. Spread the message. And in the evening attend the May Day celebration.
The workers of Soviet Russia and in countries where workers rule have earned their holiday. We still must work to earn ours.
Fellow, are you ready?
Do I hear you answer, "Always ready!"

RUSSIA'S WHEAT SUPPLY AMPLIFIED
Soviets Will Import More Flour
MOSCOW, April 29.—In view of rain delays having occurred in supplying of wheat to Moscow, prices went up 1000 kopeks today, owing to the tendency of part of the population to "hoard large stocks of flour" as they believe the price might go still higher.
However, according to authentic information collected from the Soviet government, there actually exists a shortage of grain within in Moscow other towns, while the 389.5 million pounds of grain collected so far on the basis of the 80.4 per cent of collection planned for the entire 1925-26 marketing season.
A certain shortage of wheat which had been accumulated previously, now has been completely worked out from the stock, so that no more grain "hoarding" is expected.
The price of bread has fallen as cooking is higher as usual.

Being King Is Still a Fairly Good Job

Being king in any respectable country is still one of the best paying jobs going. It is true that the scale has been hammered down somewhat since the Russian workers and peasants performed a surgical operation on the head of their czar and since the Emperor of Austria passed in his checks and Wilhelm, the Kaiser of Germany, took to Doorn. The combined pay checks of the three above-named gentlemen was in the vicinity of 20,000,000 dollars a year. But a worker could live quite comfortably on the pittance allowed to the monarchs who still keep their heads politically and physically. Here is the payroll:

Table listing monarchs and their pay: The King of Spain 2,500,000, The Emperor of Japan 2,275,000, The King of the Belgians 1,075,000, The King of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes 650,500, The King of Rumania 600,000, The King of Sweden 483,800, The King of Bulgaria 400,000, The King of Denmark 300,000, The King of Norway 244,000.

The boys are getting good money, though it is a shame that King George of proud Albion is drawing less than the King of Siam. What about Mr. Ramsay MacDonald?

The Plots Thicken

Another bloody Communist plot has been nipped in the moustache! This time the gore was to be spilled in London and the victim was none other than Austen Chamberlain, treasury secretary for foreign affairs. The cautious news agency which got the dope from Scotland Yard, lets us in on the secret in the following language: "The plot against Chamberlain was developed in a European capital, well known as the center of the plot of a recent bomb murder conspiracy and was believed to be of Communist origin."

Scotland Yard has a habit of discovering plots every once in a while after the fashion of our own late chief of the investigation department of the department of justice, William J. Burns. And both had the same habit of attributing all their discoveries to the Communists. Both never failed to claim credit for nipped plots and to cash in on the publicity in some way or other.

Without being experts in the art of solving cross-word puzzles, we believe that it is not a difficult task to correctly guess the city and location of the Chamberlain plot. The city is London and the exact location is Scotland Yard. May Day is almost here.

Sure enough, the yellow socialists did blame the defeat of their capitalist candidate on the German Communists, as we expected they would. Indeed they were very disappointed us. Ernest Untermyer, in the Milwaukee Leader, squirts the vitrol on us. But, and we say it with due humility, if the socialists did not interpose obstacles in the way of the Communists in 1918 and 1919 it is likely that Hindenburg would now be the object of attentions from kind hearted old women who like to patronize the florist and visit graves of soldiers known and unknown.

The only way to keep the workers from rebelling under capitalism is "the galling gun, the armored tank, the companies drilling in the armories and the mounted cossacks with the clubs and rifles," declares the socialist party. Perhaps the socialists have a better and cheaper way. Poison gas, for instance, the kind that is concocted by the socialist propagandists, or maybe the real stuff.

The "yellow peril" may become a reality if Russia succeeds in bringing Japan and China into an entente against western imperialism, writes Lord Thompson, former British secretary for air in Ramsay MacDonald's socialist cabinet. It is not the yellow peril our bourgeois masters are afraid of, but the "red peril."

The giornale d'Italia, commenting on the German elections, said something that will strike an answering chord in the heart of American capitalism. "Germany, which is mainly industrial, needs to keep labor costs low to meet foreign competition." Von Hindenburg can be relied on to let nature take its course in this respect.

The man who thinks the DAILY WORKER opposed LaFollette because he was too radical is the kind who thinks "Scarface" Al Capone is a revolutionist because he carries two guns around his appendix and shoots saloonkeepers who do not patronize his needle beer business.

The chief editorial writer on the Milwaukee Leader has taken to anticipating styles in ladies' wearing apparel. We hope he will be more successful in this line than in his former role of political foreracer.

It appears that the officials of the barbers' union had a close shave at that mass meeting in Chicago. The rank and file are tired of getting trimmed by their leaders.

Capitalist solons still battle over the "world court," a synonym for the league of nations. But while the storm rages in Washington, Morgan and his merry bankers are lying down the law to the governments of Europe, with more or less success.

Every day get a "sub" for the DAILY WORKER and a member for the Workers Party.

Sessions of Enlarged Executive of the C. I.

MOSCOW, April 28.—(By Mail).—The Communist Party of the United States to all the members of the Czech Communist Party reads as follows: "THIS year's actions of the Czech Communist Party's proletarian have furnished new proof of its political organization, and the correctness of the policy pursued by the Czech Communist Party. It was not incidental that the right elements led by Bubnik have delivered the party a treacherous blow just at the moment of action. The Comintern has already expressed its indignation at this treacherous and has sanctioned his expulsion from the party. However, Bubnik's action, especially his attempt to discredit the party leadership and its political policy, met with but inadequate resistance on the part of the minority of the Czech Communist Party and of the leaders of certain district organizations, especially of the Bruun district. The plenum of the Comintern has found that the memorandum presented by the Bruun group lacks the right elements led by Bubnik and Leninism, nor with the decisions of the world congresses and of the party congresses, and that the bankrupt social democratic views. The danger of a split made imminent thru Bubnik's treachery, was rendered still more acute by the indecisiveness of the minority. Today the Comintern affirms with satisfaction that after a thorough discussion of the question in the enlarged executive, the minority of the Czech Communist Party has abandoned the policy of Bubnik; the minority has recognized the right elements of Communist tactics as the fundamental problem now confronting the Czech Communist Party. The Comintern is confident that the slogan of securing the unity of the party at all costs, and the ideological struggle against the right tendencies, will be approved by the whole of the Czech Party. The Comintern workers want no split; they will fight the splitters. The Comintern calls upon all party members to support the party leadership, which has consistently pursued the policy of liquidating all party crises, and has indefatigably worked for the Bolshevization and disciplining of the party. With the active support of the Czech-Slovakian workers, the party will recover from the ailments of growth and from all relapses into opportunism."

This appeal is signed by Zimovir, by the representatives of the majority, Neurath, Harus, Haken, Hruska, by the representatives of the workers, by Smeral, Zapototsky and Muna, by the representatives of the control commission, by the delegates from the organizations of Prague, Kladno, Bruun and Aussig, by the representatives of the Communist parliamentary fraction, and by the delegates of the Youth.

MOSCOW, April 11.—(By Mail).—THE executive bureau of the Red International of Labor Unions has adopted the following decision: "The resolution of the recent conference of the Reichenberg textile workers' section regarding amalgamation with the textile workers' section of Prague, in a sharp contradiction with the Third World Congress of the R. I. L. U. Instead of carrying out the decisions of the Third World Congress, the resolution of the Reichenberg textile workers' section has adopted an ambiguous formula, which permits of sabotaging the decisions of the World Congress. Hence the executive bureau of the Red International of Labor Unions has decided that if the Reichenberg textile section should fail to amalgamate with the textile workers' section of Prague, before Jan. 1st, 1925, it shall be considered as having severed its connections with the Red International of Labor Unions. The Red International of Labor Unions will no longer exchange correspondence on this question, and considers this decision as final."

MOSCOW, April 9.—(By Mail).—SESSION of the Enlarged Executive of the Communist Youth International. Today the session of the enlarged executive of the Communist Youth International was opened in the Kremlin. There were present 24 members of the executive, 23 delegates representing 12 sections, and 11 advisory delegates. Comrade Vuyovich spoke on the results of the session of the enlarged executive of the Comintern, and on the immediate program of conducting the youth. The fundamental program being Bolshevization, the youth must proceed with the creation of mass organizations. The political activity is revolutionary. Bolshevization of the youth as displayed during the Trotsky debate in Germany, Czechoslovakia, Italy, etc., must be further strengthened. To do this the mass Communist Youth International must lead the struggle of the working youth, particularly the struggle for the improvement of working conditions and child labor legislation, as well as the struggle for trade union unity and for the defense of the interests of the youth by the trade unions. To win over the land youth, and the young workers in the east, are tasks of primary importance. The work of disintegrating the bourgeois armies, as part of the struggle against imperialist dangers, the consolidation of the youth into militant organizations, and the ideological fight against the enemies, particularly against the treacherous so-called socialist youth, must be strengthened. We must follow the slogan of Lenin: "Learn."

In the discussion on the report of Vuyovich, Comrade Rahnard (Germany) emphasizes the need for the complete reorganization on the basis of shop nuclei. Comrade Mehring (executive of the Communist Youth International) demands the intensification of the work among the peasant youth and in the sport organizations, also the concentration of the anti-militarist work by formulating definite demands for soldiers and sailors. Comrade Robert (Balkans) points out the importance of the nationality and agrarian questions in the Balkans. Where the bourgeoisie influences the peasant youth for reactionary purposes. Comrade Deriot (France) points out the significance of putting up concrete partial demands, particularly according to industries, and emphasizes the need for the leadership of the Youth International to utilize the experience of the western countries. Comrade Fuenberg (Austria) emphasizes the need of creating "jung-sturm" organizations (young storm troops) under Communist leadership, and the need of lending a class character to the children's groups movement.

Comrade Michales (Czechoslovakia): The youth of the various countries must be more drawn into the work of Bolshevization of the whole movement. The youth movement often concentrates its work too much on the youth employed in small trades, thus neglecting the more decisive industrial youth.

Comrade Kamenar (Bulgaria) emphasizes the need of retaining the character of the illegal organizations. This necessitates the reorganization on the basis of shop nuclei, which in Bulgaria could even take over the functions of the prohibited trade unions.

Comrade Maquet (Italy): The Italian Communist Youth is conducting an energetic struggle against the Benito group. In its practical work the Italian Communist Youth follows the policy of the Communist Youth International, and assumes more and more a mass character. Comrade Shachtman (America): Without a Leninist school, leadership and success are impossible. In America, the youth has already begun the reorganization on the basis of shop nuclei.

Comrade Fedorovsky (Sport International) emphasizes the need for close cooperation between the Sport International and the Communist Youth International. Comrade Miltchakov (Russia) points out the importance of popularizing international propaganda the economic and political successes of the Russian working youth.

Comrade Rust (England): In the land the youth supports the maturity movement. It participates in the life of the trade unions, and has taken up an energetic economic struggle. England Bolshevization means, above all, to increase the membership.

The West Virginia Injunction

The injunction is an old method of assailing the working class, especially since Bill Taft and the A. R. U. strike. But it remains for West Virginia federal courts to determine whether an injunction ever dies of old age or whether it is immortal.

Two or three years ago a judge now departed issued an order against any organizers or members of the United Mine Workers trying to unionize the mines of the West Virginia-Pittsburgh Coal company at Colliers, West Virginia.

The union came and went again in the section. The judge who issued it is now supplanted by another judge. Again the union tries, if John L. Lewis and Phil Murray can be said to have tried anything, to organize the mines. The moody injunction is resurrected, painted up and 22 officials and miners are arrested and hauled into court for contempt.

The dispatches say that the union officials entered an "imposing array" of lawyers. If they wished either to win the strike or unionize the mines of West Virginia, the injunction would, of course, have to be fought. But the place for "imposing arrays" in such injunction cases is on the picket line, and if the officials had any guts themselves and could rally the miners around their leadership, which they cannot, there would be so many thousand miners violating the moody old injunction that the injunction would be torn to shreds, the mines organized and the strike won.

We bet that the Lewis gang does nothing of the kind.

MUSIC, LITERATURE, DRAMA

By ALFRED V. FRANKENSTEIN. THE Civic Music Association would set up its season with a concert at Orchestra hall in which two activities of the many in which the association is engaged took prominent parts. The Civic orchestra played and a children's chorus of a thousand voices sang folk songs of seven countries as well as some "art songs" by various composers.

The orchestra played some time-honored chestnuts under Frederick Stock's direction. These were the ventures to "Raymond, or the Queen's Secret," by Ambrose Thomas (it sounds like a dime novel, but it is an opera); the "Perpetual Motion," by Franz Liszt, and the "Adagio Patetique," by Benjamin Godard. The Rises composition is a showoff piece for the first violins which the orchestra carried off in fine shape.

phonic field from the Civic, and green is the Civic to be lauded for being the recruiting ground for the large orchestra.

And then the effect of it all was spoiled by a super-Babbit named Carberry who led some "community singing," which is probably the most oxenious effect the world war had on civilization.

Four members of the orchestra have been engaged by professional symphonic organizations. Three of them will go to the Minneapolis symphony next season and one to the Chicago symphony. These are by no means the first to go into the professional symphony.

Between Waves of Revolt

STEP on the dur, he is crushed. The voice of revolt is hushed. Friend deceives, foe defeats him. Hope abandons, hate eats him. Again, as through the ages, Seeking work without wages, Having life without living. Getting naught for his giving.

Mother Earth, womb and grave. Fondly tares her final slave. Final slave and first master, In this day of his disaster. She who bears, and she steals him. Muscles flex, his eye flashes. Hope flames from his ashen!

Step on the cur? But take care! He wears an ambiguous air. Reflects—and consorts with his class. Is patient—proceeding by plan; And whoop-whoop, and sheets him. Has ominous uses. Politician, employer and king. Take heed—his reciting to spring.
