

LATIN AMERICAN ATTACK ON U. S. AT HAVANA SEEN

Coolidge Sends Slickest Diplomats to Congress

(Special to DAILY WORKER) WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Representatives of a number of Latin American countries are expected to protest at the Sixth Pan-American Congress meet in Havana in January against the administration's policy of landing marines in Latin American countries to set up puppet dictators favorable to American business interests and to "supervise" elections. Altho the Congress will be well-attended by representatives of puppet governments set up directly by the State Department (like the Diaz Government in Nicaragua) or by business interests (like the Ibanez dictatorship in Chile), information has already reached Washington, thru unofficial sources, that a resolution will be introduced at the Congress "outlawing" any nation that lands forces in any other American country for any purpose whatever.

Attack Nicaragua Occupation. Direct attacks will be made on the United States for its occupation of Haiti and Nicaragua it is believed. The slaughter of numerous Nicaraguan liberals in recent "battles," is reported to have aroused deep resentment thruout Latin America. Mexico, Argentina, Haiti and Paraguay are expected to lead the attack against American imperialism at the congress sessions. It is believed that Coolidge has selected a particularly slick array of American diplomats with a view to a Latin American onslaught. Headed by Charles Evans Hughes, former secretary of state, the delegation will include Henry Prather Fletcher, now Ambassador to Rome and a former Under-Secretary of State, Dwight W. Morrow, Ambassador to Mexico and former partner in the House of Morgan and Ex-Senator Oscar Underwood of Alabama.

Papa's Dough Gets Doty Out of Legion

PARIS, Nov. 4.—That Bennett Doty, of Biloxi, Miss., who was recently pardoned by President Doumergue for desertion from the French Foreign Legion on the petition of his wealthy father will not have to serve out his enlistment was indicated today. A good deal of unofficial pressure for his release was also brought to bear on the French government by prominent United States officials. War Minister Painleve stated that the cancellation of Doty's enlistment had been "settled in principle." Doty is now with his regiment on service in Syria. He was released from the prison in which he had been confined since his arrest during the American Legion convention here.

Rumor Discussion of Italian-Spanish Pact

NAPLES, Nov. 4.—Political significance is being given to the presence here of King Alfonso of Spain, who has come for the marriage of Princess Anne of France, daughter of the Pretender to the throne of the Bourbons, and the Duke of Apulia. # GERMAN WORKERS EARN LESS THAN PRE-WAR WAGES

Make Gains in Last Two Years Thru Strikes
By LELAND OLDS. (Federated Press)
The extraordinary gains of German industrial workers since 1924 still leave them short of their 1913 living standard, according to a U. S. department of commerce review of the German wage situation. What is more, the present level of wages rests on an insecure foundation because the country's import balance is constantly growing. As a large export balance will eventually be required to keep German industry prosperous labor costs will have to come down to meet world competition.

Published Scandal Of Victoria Reign Riles King George

LONDON, November 4.—Anger blazed forth in Buckingham Palace today when King George learned of the publication of an unexpurgated edition of Charles Greville's famous diary which states that the mother of Queen Victoria had illicit relations with her private secretary, a gentleman by the name of Conroy, and that both planned to confine Victoria until she consented to a regency with her mother and her lover in absolute control. Try To Discredit Story. The royal family now seeks to discredit Greville's diary by casting doubts on its authenticity but the encyclopedia Britannica says that his journals "are regarded as a faithful record of the impressions made on the mind of a competent observer, at the time, by the events he witnessed and the persons with whom he associated. Greville did not stoop to collect or record a private scandal. King Displeased. The king is displeased because the government failed to prevent the publication of the diary which places a stain on the moral escutcheon of the Victorian reign. That queen Victoria felt herself in danger of being poisoned by her husband is another statement in Greville's diary that has the palace raging.

Crew of Revenue Cutter Forced to Stay Aboard Leaking Ship All Night

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Nov. 4.—Battling against heavy gales and giant waves, the coast guard cutter Joutet, a converted navy destroyer with a crew of about ninety men, was pulled from the rocks of Dolliver's Neck today by a government tug and two coast guard cutters. The cutter went on the rocks during a furious gale. Answering calls from the siren of the Joutet, the crew of the Dolliver's Neck life station launched a boat and attempted to reach the cutter but were beaten back by the huge waves. Officers of the Joutet decided to keep the crew during the night aboard the cutter despite the giant waves that pounded against the sides of the vessel.

Verification of the finding is being delayed due to a cave-in of a side of the tomb shaft where the excavators are working. The excavators are working under the direction of the Egyptian department of antiques.

BULLETIN. MANGUA, Nov. 4.—Routing of Nicaraguan liberals with a loss of 60 dead and wounded left on the field was reported today from El Espino, six miles southeast of Quilali, in northern Nicaragua. The defeated force was said to have been composed of 250 men commanded by General Sandino. Marine corps airplanes and a corps detachment commanded by Lieutenant Hogaboom cooperated with Nicaraguan constabulary against the liberals. The marines had one man wounded and the constabulary lost two killed.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Nov. 4.—American marines will guard the large coffee plantations during the picking sessions late this month, it was learned today. # BIG CONCESSION IN ABYSSINIA IS WON BY U.S. FIRM

Gives U. S. Imperialist Foothold in Africa

That the United States won a four-cornered imperialist struggle for the control of Abyssinia was learned yesterday when it was announced that J. G. White Engineering Corp. of New York had entered an agreement with the Abyssinia Government to develop the water power of Lake Tsana (in the northwestern section of the country) for $20,000,000. This together with the huge Firestone rubber concession in Liberia make the United States an important imperialist figure in Africa.

Soviet Sugar Trust Delegates Here to Study U.S. Methods

E. V. Nekrashevitch, vice-president of the Soviet Sugar Trust, has recently arrived in the United States accompanied by P. B. Lukianov, chief engineer, and A. P. Khorkhov, chief agriculturist of the Trust. The delegation will study the American and Cuban sugar industries and also the equipment market in this country.

The Soviet Sugar Trust, which operates at present nearly 200 sugar mills in various parts of the Soviet Union, will start the construction of seven new mills early next year. The new mills, with a daily capacity of from 1,000 to 2,000 tons of sugar beets each, will be equipped with the most modern machinery.

The reconstruction of the Soviet sugar industry has already been completed. Area sown to sugar beets this year is 25 per cent larger than last year, while sugar production is likely to reach 1,400,000 metric tons, a post-war record and 60 per cent over last year.

BIG MORGAN LOAN TO JAPAN TO AID MANCHURIAN GRAB

$40,000,000 Loan Seen as Blow to U. S. S. R.

The real reason for Thomas V. Lamont's "Pleasure jaunt" to Japan was revealed yesterday when the local office of the Nemura Securities Co., declared that J. P. Morgan and Co., with which Lamont is associated, was arranging for a $40,000,000 to the South Manchurian railway. The loan, it was said, will probably be the first of a series of Japanese loans. The South Manchurian railroad is being developed for political as much as for economic reasons, it is believed. Japan, which has been steadily penetrating Manchuria, has attempted to build the South Manchurian road as a rival to the Chinese Eastern railroad, which is jointly owned by China and the Soviet Union. J. P. Morgan, George Baker, Otto Kahn and a number of other bankers were recently awarded the highest governmental by the Japanese government.

ORGANIZED LABOR—TRADE UNION ACTIVITIES

NEWS AND COMMENT LABOR EDUCATION LABOR AND GOVERNMENT TRADE UNION POLITICS

TWO EASTER SUNDAYS IN COLORADO—1914-1927—THE MEMORY OF LUDLOW MASSACRE A LIVING FORCE

By JACK JOHNSTONE. "The coal miners of Colorado are violating the state law in not giving thirty days' notice of their intentions to strike," says Gov. W. H. Adams, who refuses to deal with the I. W. W. (although as far as I know he has never been asked) because they are not recognized by the state as a bona fide labor organization. In the meantime the strikers under the leadership of the I. W. W. are tying up the Colorado coal fields tighter than a drum. If militancy can win their demands then Governor Adams will have to change his opinion about not dealing with the strikers because the I. W. W. is not a "bona fide labor organization."

are using the same militant tactics that were used in 1914. The main difference is in the leadership. The officials of the U. M. W. of A. are hollering "dual unionism." Governor Adams says they are not a bona fide labor organization. Both questions are raised to confuse the issues and to defeat the miners in their struggle for a bearable existence. The I. W. W. stepped into leadership because the U. M. W. of A. abandoned the miners to the unfettered exploitation of the coal barons. The official labor leaders should shut up and hide their heads in shame. If the militancy of the Colorado strikers had been the policy of John L. Lewis, the lock-out of the bituminous fields would have included these strikers as well as the miners in the unorganized fields of Kentucky and West Virginia and victory instead of defeat would have been the result.

Railway Clerks Say Road Breaks Union With New R. R. Law

By HARRY KLETZKY. CHICAGO, Nov. 4 (FP).—Violation of the spirit of the railway labor act was charged against the Chicago & Northwestern R. R. by E. L. Oliver, representing the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Freighthandlers & Station Employees, in the brotherhood's closing argument here before the wage arbitration board set up under the act's provisions. The Northwestern urged the board to permit the road to pay only the market rate for labor, regardless of general economic conditions or standards. Oliver attacked this stand as a method of destroying the workers' right of collective bargaining guaranteed, he said, by the railway labor act which the railroads urged Congress to pass.

Clerks Demand Increase. Reciting the struggles of organized labor for the collective bargaining principle, Oliver declared, "It is inconceivable that all of this history, all of their collective bargaining power shall be cancelled. That would be the effect of accepting the basis proposed to this board by the Northwestern management."

The clerks demand an increase of 15 cents per hour, $1.20 a day. The management has asked for general reductions. Nearly 9000 employees will be affected by the board's decision.

Railroad Cleaning Up. Using the company's own figures, Oliver introduced evidence to show that the Northwestern is in a prosperous condition and that wage scales prevailing in comparable industries are such as to make the clerks' demand reasonable. Fifty per cent of the clerical employees of the Northwestern receive less than $4.25 a day, he pointed out, whereas at least $5.25 a day is necessary to maintain an average family of the clerical status.

Wage rates should be based, Oliver argued, on provision for an adequate standard of living, advances in the general level of wages, the increasing productivity and efficiency of railway workers and general financial and economic conditions.

No freight handler employed by the Northwestern receives the average wage required by an average Chicago family, Oliver pointed out. More than 75 per cent of the clerks receive less than this amount. He showed that at many points in Wisconsin wage rates for common labor, which the company contended should be the basis for clerks' rates, were above the scale paid the clerks.

Coal Company Moves To Beat Miners

(Continued from Page One) propaganda among the men for a return to work at the lower scale. A fake "union" committee of twelve composed of so-called union officials and miners was organized to put over the strike betrayal. Finally Kunick came out in the open and published an article in the capitalist press advocating a return to work and was immediately expelled by the union. Then Kunick tried to hold a mass meeting in favor of his proposition. After being refused the Miners' Hall at Bellaire, Ohio, he succeeded in getting the City Hall at Bridgeport and called the meeting for Oct. 22. Emery, another expelled renegade, was assigned to act as chairman. The meeting was excellently attended. Five hundred miners were there when Kunick began—ready. At his first attempt to speak hell broke loose in the hall, and finally a Negro striker from the Blaine mine expressed the general sentiment of the meeting by walking up to the traitor and knocking him down. Then the police came in, and the miners held a meeting in the street outside the hall—denouncing Kunick and his associates, and reaffirming their determination to stick through the fight.

Post Office Gets After Nan Britton for Expose

The postal authorities are investigating the Elizabeth Ann League, organized by Miss Nan Britton, former mistress of President Harding, organized for the purpose of promoting legislation to legitimize children, it was learned yesterday. The publication of "The President's Daughter" by Nan Britton, describing her relations with President Harding is believed to be the reason for the investigation. The ostensible reason for the move on the part of the postal authorities is to determine whether or not the league is using the funds which it solicits for purposes outlined in its literature.

Salesmen's Union Wins In Injunction Hearing

Supreme Court Justice James A. Dunne in Brooklyn yesterday denied the application of Max and Sam Block, of 709 Broadway, Brooklyn, clothing merchants, for a temporary injunction to restrain the Retail Clothing Salesmen's Union of greater New York from picketing their place of business. Members of the union have been on strike two months, demanding shorter hours. Many of them work 15 hours a day, the strikers claim, and a twelve-hour maximum day is being asked. Justice Dunne found that there was no evidence any violence had been used, and that picketing was lawful.

Appeal of Baldwin Conviction May Go Before U. S. Court

(By Federated Press.)

Immediate appeal from the New Jersey supreme court decision upholding the conviction of Roger Baldwin and seven workers is promised by the American Civil Liberties Union. Samuel Untermyer, attorney for the defense, expects to go first to the court of errors and appeal—final recourse in the state. Failing reversal there, he will carry the fight to the United States supreme court.

Baldwin and the seven workers were convicted of unlawful assemblage when they held a meeting at City Hall Plaza, Paterson, in the silk strike of three years ago. Baldwin, who is a director of the Civil Liberties Union, is still in Europe on $2,000 bond. Prosecutor Barnitt has asked immediate return of Baldwin for resentencing. Baldwin was given six months in jail; the seven workers $50 fine apiece.

"There was no law or ordinance of the city of Paterson requiring any sort of license or permit to hold a meeting in the square, nor did the police suggest that it should not be held," declares Untermyer. The court had the case for six months before giving its verdict.

Mayor Thompson Draws Big Republican Leader Into Campaign for Job

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The star witness at the school-board trial of Superintendent William McAndrew today was Frederick F. Schrader of New York, editor of the progressive, member of the National Historical Society and former secretary of the Republican Congressional Committee. The highlight of Schrader's testimony was the charge that a well-organized "propaganda of flattery" is underway in this country aimed at preparing the United States for easy absorption into the empire of Great Britain. The rapid inclusion into Mayor Thompson's anti-British campaign of more and more of the national Republican chiefs is taken here as confirmation of his bid for the presidency or vice-presidency. At the conclusion of the session the trial was continued to November 9.
