BULLY FOR BURGESS

THE FINAL EXHIBIT

THRU A STARVING STATE

LETTER BOX

The Rebel has read the following from Frank White's paper, The Kansas City Post:

John D. Rockefeller, Jr.'s recent visit to Oklahoma apparently brought about a new attitude in him that nearly every newspaper in New York is devoting columns of comment to the chairman, his performance. Twenty-first Broadway, the Standard Oil building, used to be an important region for all reporters now it is a veritable newspaper man's club, with "Wagon" as the name. Young Rockefeller used to avoid interviews as he would a plague; now he talks to the extent of columns—every page. It is said the lady nurse whose duty formerly was to convey printing reporters to the sidewalk is developing symptoms of heart failure when he daily catches President Rockefeller. O. Heydt comes out with the glad hand and leads forth promptly to the inner sanctum.

The three-way hand-shaking in the West evidently has completely won out John D. Jr. He has been able to discover that newspaper men will not misquote him, and the ordinary "plain" man who over the country are glad to shake him by the hand.

Interviews Getting Across Big.

And it is stated that some of the interviews Young Rockefeller has given out since he returned to New York are leading to the effect of 42-centimetre shells in the camps of certain financiers of the oil industry. Here are some of the things he said last week; they are considered worth a while in some of the Sunday papers:

"Capital is powerless to do one thing. On the other hand, money has been created by salaries."

"Capital can never hope to gain anything through an unfair treatment of labor."

"It is not law which counts in the eyes of men, but that spirit of co-operation, of brotherhood, which prompts fairness. Without this social or economic adjustments are possible."

"In the principle of the organization of labor I am completely in favor. I believe that every American workman is entitled to act according to his judgment."

"I know my industrial plan, and it is being tried in Oklahoma; it is not perfect. No doubt many changes will be made in it as practice suggests them. But with perfect willing to make those changes, I believe the spirit which underlies that plan is the spirit which ultimately will solve all our industrial problems. It is the principle of brotherly interdependence. Not until this spirit is shared by all can we really feel that our capital have ceased their long and weary conflict."

Mr. Rockefeller is telling every one what a wonderful time he is having in Oklahoma. One New York paper said:

"He beamed forward and spoke to the reporters about him with the animation of a schoolboy telling a great and memorable adventure. He was as cheerful as a child when he described the pleasant time he had had with the people in his home state, and his lips quivered with the very inadequacy of words. His words were in there in Oklahoma, which cannot be simulated."

The foregoing shows that John Rockefeller, Jr. really is a man in a dangerous position. There is a demand that he should be in that dangerous office in New York, New York, that he be tried for the murder of Louis Tikas and his women and children, who were caused to be burned at Lusk in April, 1914.

Very few for justice has been conferred in 48 in The Rebel headlines some months ago—"IN THE EXTRADITE, EXTRADITE."

Vainly he gave to the orthodox churches and with which Heep never chanted the psalm and read from Job's lamentations. Vainly has he tried to get the churches of America to do by means of a $300,000 Foundation. Vainly to him that all old New York's waters can't rather wash stain, but not the multi-millionaire conscience.

And so he goes to the muzzled newspaper men in a vain effort to advertise. Rocks will be thrown at him, as he is so thoroughly recognized in the business manager's office of the business managers of America, that he 620 Paydora at, New Orleans, La.

Nugent on Herandez

Rockdale, Tex., Nov. 4, 1915.

Dear Comrade:

I have personally investigated the case of Hernandez and there is NO TRUTH in the Government charge. Hernandez is purely a poor ignorant man. He is not a socialist. He is all in his income will be apparent. Had the United States of America been a socialist, Hernandez would not have been arrested.

The peculiar conditions in the case of Hernandez are the balance due on his $50, after Saturday's payment which with other expense will have Comrade Noble $50 left.

It is not right for Comrade Noble to pay this amount due on the Hernandez case. It is not right for me to incur this amount due on the Hernandez case. It is not right for me to incur this amount due on the Hernandez case.

Yours for Justice, John Noble

"Lies Nailed" O. K.

Just finished reading "Lies Nailed" and it came on the trail of the Hernandez case. I am sending an order for two (2) more. We especially need it to show to the people that we have one of these shams here as we have. Wish our local could afford to buy 500 reads at this point.
